

DEMONIC TOYS

You are responsible for what comes into your house. What are you spending your money on? Things that honor satan do come with evil spirit attachment.

Headless Mistress and her demonic horse of death

Look at the money spent on this. See the horns, the bone wings, the split personality hair. There's an illuminati triangle on the horse and part human/part animal is the result of what the nephilim did when they tampered with DNA back before the flood. The package promises nightmares with batwings. Looks like baphomet on her torso, it is for sure flaming hearts which is what catholics worship.

Horns, animal ears, animal eyes, black wings, scales on arms, animal nose.

These toys can open a door to satan in your child's life.

Fina C - gave a testimony about toys:

It's true.

When I was of the world we used to buy my daughter monster high doll's. She started having nightmares.

She also wanted to share her personal testimony:

It had a lot to do with evil. I didn't talk in detail about what we saw but my daughter also saw someone turn from normal to demonic just like the horror films.

That changed us and God really helped us out of darkness.

Fina C. – Her testimony, great for everyone – she was catholic

We are now learning that titans were not mythology but probably based on the offspring of the nephilim who were giants and God calls them evil spirits.

Conditioning to aliens (demons)

The character Darth Maul – totally demonic

Pastor Dalbeer in India shared this: This Sunday I gave the message which I found from Cherie sister about the toys. When I ask the kids do you like this kind of bad and mean faced toys? One kid shared with me what he had experienced. The first day he got the toy & played with it and held it all day. That night when he went to sleep the toy beat him in a dream. When he played with that toy he did not feel right and he was mean toward the other kids and his behavior was bad. He loved that toy and his attitude changed and most of the time he was mean to the other kids. His grades also went down. He also did not sleep good at night. After he got rid of the toy, he came back to himself and was good to others and his grades improved.

Avoid even the appearance of evil. 1Thessalonians 5:22

Look at the eyes and blood on the face and the color of death.

Harry Potter is bad. Sorcery, witches, curses and spells – all these are an abomination to God.

If the toys I'm posting seem ok to you, you should seek the Lord for guidance.

The girl has a smirk on her face and a spirit of pride, this is made by Disney who participates in mind control and programming and pedophilia (research them), the apple represents the original sin and the worm is made to look snakish wrapped around it which represents satan. Behind the girl, there is a shadow lurking with horns and looks as if it is wearing a cape but the way the shadow is cast it shows the outline of baphomet. It is like he is possessing her or in her because that is the shadow she is casting. That color is the color of the pale horse in Revelation.

Pastor Philip shared:

In our country a young girl used some of the toys as a pillow case. One day in her sleep she saw herself being carried by this toy into the sea where she encountered the devil and all of his agents in a very big conference. She could not easily get home and of course she was initiated already and she wanted to be delivered. She was not carried to the church to be prayed for, she became mad and up to the present she is mad. If we say we are for Christ we should be only for Him and we should be separated from anything that can't bring us any closer to Him. The devil works in signs, covenants and marks, not only in spiritual ways. Many of our friends or brothers down there are marking themselves feeling fine to have signs of the devil put in their flesh, not knowing that they are welcoming ways of being initiated into the dark world.

Would you buy any of this for your child or let them watch this stuff?

Psalms 127:3 – Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is His reward.

Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it. Proverbs 22:6

When you buy these things or allow them into your home you are coming into agreement with the evil spirits and curses on them.

CLEAN HOUSE – toss those Disney toys, get monster high dolls out, throw all star wars toys out. Look at your books and movies and posters. Anything that wouldn't please God needs to go.
