

HUMAN TRAFFICKING: SEX, LABOR, ORGANS

Louisiana lowdown nblue – he is a musician and had gone to a church to play worship music which he couldn't do because it was music that just didn't honor God (hillsong & Bethel music)– I want to share what the pastor there said while he was there – “we don't need to ask Jesus into our hearts, we just need to be like Him, behave like Him” – he said to him it seemed the pastor was implying you can become Jesus (or be gods). WOW!

HUMAN TRAFFICKING - is the trade of humans, most commonly for the purpose of sexual slavery, forced labor, or commercial sexual exploitation for the trafficker or others. This may encompass providing a spouse in the context of forced marriage, or the extraction of organs or tissues, including for surrogacy and ova removal. Human trafficking can occur within a country or trans-nationally. Human trafficking is a crime against the person because of the violation of the victim's rights of movement through coercion and because of their commercial exploitation. Human trafficking is the trade in people, and does not necessarily involve the movement of the person from one place to another.

Trafficking of children involves the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harboring, or receipt of children for the purpose of exploitation. The commercial sexual exploitation of children can take many forms, including forcing a child into prostitution or other forms of sexual activity or child pornography. Child exploitation may also involve forced labour or services, slavery or practices similar to slavery, servitude, the removal of organs – let's talk about removal of organs for a minute -

TRAFFICKING FOR ORGAN TRADE

Gurkiren Kaur Loyal was hospitalized with a mild case of dehydration during a family vacation in Punjab, India. She died after a doctor in a local Indian clinic injected her with an unidentified liquid. When her body was returned to England, pathologists in Birmingham said that all of her organs were missing — everything except her eyes.

One of the worst inhumanities is the harvesting of organs from human beings, and indeed the breeding and nurture of human beings for the harvesting of their organs.

On October 18, The Telegraph's Steven Swinford published a story -- about a young Somali girl who was smuggled into Britain to have her organs removed so they could be sold for those desperate to cling on to life or to improve their own well-being but who were languishing on long waiting lists.

This was not an isolated incident, nor is it uncommon. The conditions of impoverishment blighting many nations of our Earth induce the opportunity for this black market – whether the poorest of families volunteer one of their own so as to support the rest of their family or where children and adults are kidnapped by others, usually by other impoverished people.

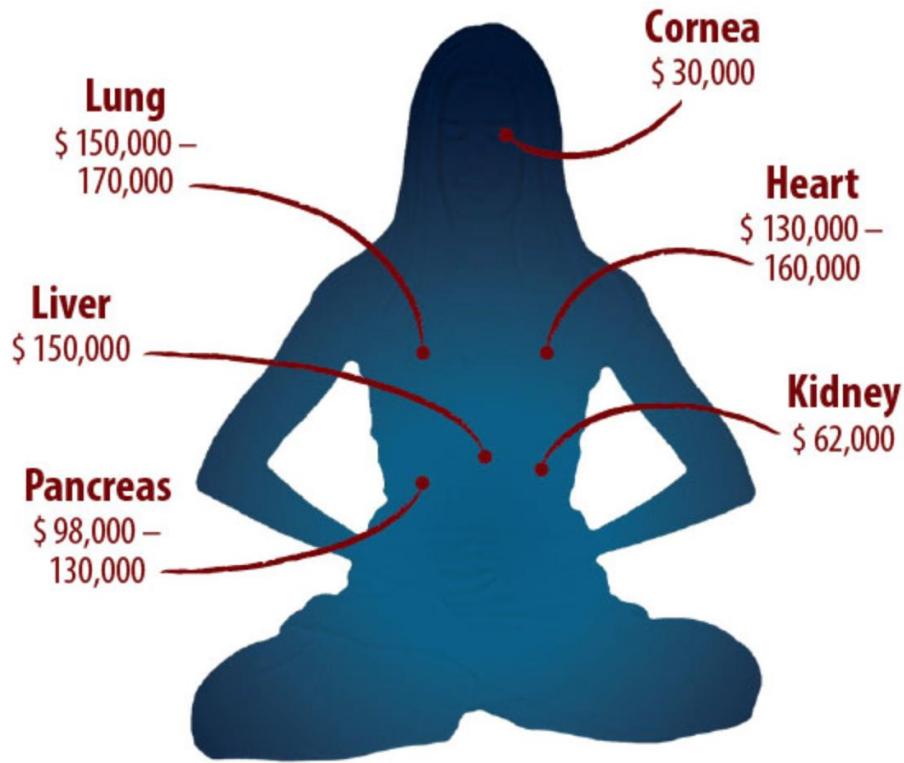

Look at the men in this picture, they bare the same scar because they've all had organs removed.

Jeremiah 5:25-29 – Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you. For among My people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich. They are waxen (grown) fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. Shall I not visit for these things? Saith the LORD: shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

Sometimes the victim is compelled into giving up an organ. In other cases, the victim agrees to sell an organ in exchange of money/goods, but is not paid (or paid less). Finally, the victim may have the organ removed without the victim's knowledge (usually when the victim is treated for another medical problem/illness – real or orchestrated problem/illness).

Source: Kilgour & Matas

Migrant workers, homeless persons, and illiterate persons are particularly vulnerable to this form of exploitation. Trafficking of organs is an organized crime, involving several offenders:

- the recruiter
- the transporter
- the medical staff
- the middlemen/contractors
- the buyers

Trafficking for organ trade often seeks kidneys. Trafficking in organs is a lucrative trade because in many countries the waiting lists for patients who need transplants are very long.

Al Jazeera, in February of this year, helped break up a three person trafficking ring in Indonesia. Here villagers in West Java, around 30 individuals, had sold their kidneys to the tune of $5,000 apiece.

Other stories include a child in China who had his eyes cut out, possibly for the corneas, an African girl who was kidnapped and rescued in the UK before her organs could be harvested, and in America, the dizzying case of Kendrick Johnson. His death was deemed a freak accident in the school gym — they said the boy suffocated in a rolled up gym mat. Loved ones remained skeptical, however. After a protracted fight, his parents finally got a court order. They had the body exhumed and independently autopsied. During the autopsy, the medical examiner discovered something terrifying. The Georgia teen was found to have had all his organs removed and replaced with newspaper.

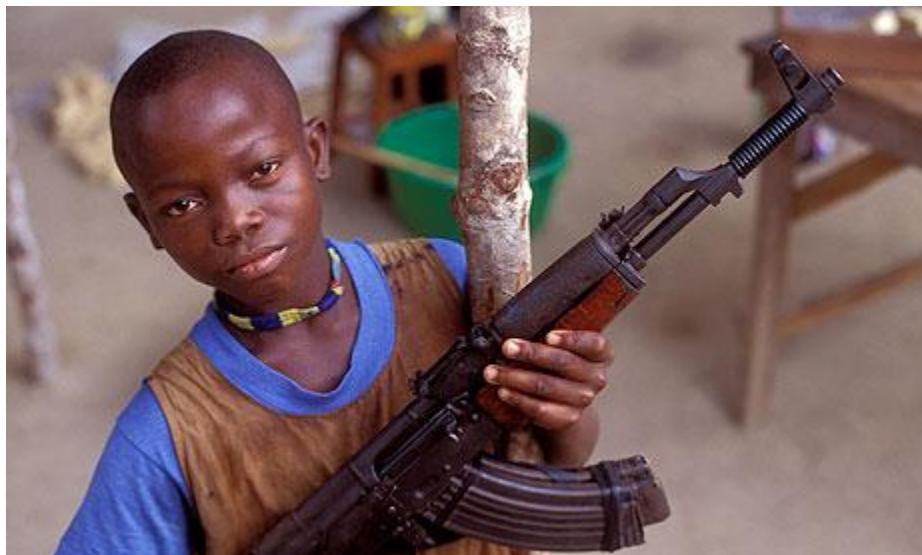

Now back to child exploitation – they use children for illicit international adoption, trafficking for early marriage,

Muslim girls being lead off in chains to meet their new husbands. Photo –
Facebook group Britain First

In June of 2011, a Saudi theologian Sheikh Saleh al-Fawzaan went even further. He issued a fatwa where the obstruction of early marriage for girls was called a violation of the laws of Allah. According to the Sheikh, the fathers have the right to give their daughters into marriage, "even if they are still in the cradle. But the husband cannot join with them in the intimacy," until a girl can withstand the weight of a man placed upon her."

recruitment as child soldiers, (Child solder in Sierra Leone)

for use in begging or as athletes (such as child camel jockeys or football players)

TANG CHHIN SOTHY / AFP

Criminal networks are profiting from forcing people to work on boats, in brothels and in other demeaning and dangerous conditions, but governments in the region are fighting back. Photo: Tang Chhin Sothy/AFP

In Mae Sot, a district in western Thailand that shares a border with Myanmar, migrants looking for a better life are told by brokers that there are good jobs waiting for them in Bangkok or another big city. The men need not pay anything in advance and they can work off their debt in a few months, they are told.

Once they go with the agents, the situation changes. The men are taken to fishing boats where they work as virtual slaves for weeks at a time out at sea and are locked up when they return to shore, according to an Asian Development Bank report on human trafficking.

“There is violence and abuse meted out to workers who are slow or don’t understand what is being asked of them, and the work is hard, with little time to rest,” noted the report. “Not all workers experience or witness abuse, but it is generally understood that they may be beaten or killed if they try to escape.”

FORCED MARRIAGE

Main article: Forced marriage

A forced marriage is a marriage where one or both participants are married without their freely given consent. Servile marriage is defined as a marriage involving a person being sold, transferred or inherited into that marriage. According to ECPAT, "Child trafficking for forced marriage is simply another manifestation of trafficking and is not restricted to particular nationalities or countries".

The girl in pink was forced to marry at age 6 to a man that was 25.

Genesis 24:57-58 – And they said, We will call the damsel, and inquire at her mouth. And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

This is only an “enactment” of what happens in these forced marriages.

A forced marriage qualifies as a form of human trafficking in certain situations. If a woman is sent abroad, forced into the marriage and then repeatedly compelled to engage in sexual conduct with her new husband, then her experience is that of sex trafficking. If the bride is treated as a domestic servant by her new husband and/or his family, then this is a form of labor trafficking.

Sindh had 1,261 cases of women being kidnapped for forced marriages in 2014. -

AFP/File

POVERTY AND GLOBALIZATION

Poverty and lack of educational and economic opportunities in one's hometown may lead women to voluntarily migrate and then be involuntarily trafficked into sex work. As globalization opened up national borders to greater exchange of goods and capital, labor migration also increased. Less wealthy countries have fewer options for livable wages. The economic impact of globalization pushes people to make conscious decisions to migrate and be vulnerable to trafficking. Gender inequalities that hinder women from participating in the formal sector also push women into informal sectors.

Price check.

$32 billion is generated annually by the human trafficking industry.

Globalization and the rise of Internet technology has also facilitated sex trafficking. Online classified sites and social networks such as Craigslist have been under intense scrutiny for being used by johns and traffickers in facilitating sex trafficking and sex work in general. Traffickers use explicit sites and underground sites (e.g. Craigslist, Backpage, MySpace) to market, recruit, sell, and exploit females.

SEX TRAFFICKING is the act of forcing, coercing, or transporting a person for the purpose of a commercial sex act.

These crimes are primarily committed against women and children. Sex trafficking can occur in residential brothels, brothels disguised as massage parlors, strip clubs, and via online escort services and street prostitution.

Pakistani woman
$342

Mozambique girl
$1-$1,000

Nepalese woman
$975

Iraqi girl
$2,500-$5,000

Romanian girl
$3,000-$6,000

What price would you put on your wife? On your daughter? On your mother?

This is wrong.

I Timothy 6:10 – For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. This is their god/idol.

This reminds me of the truckers that have mud flaps of the outline of a woman. That is sexist. Shame on those who look at women as a slave or sex object to fulfill their lusts.

WE ARE NOT FOR SALE

30 MILLION PEOPLE.
$150 BILLION INDUSTRY.

Some 50,000 women and children are trafficked to the United States each year, according to the most recent Department of State estimates.

Average age of human trafficked victim is 12 years old.

In the Americas about 51% of trafficking is for sexual exploitation while 44% is for forced labor.

“Not For Sale” is one organization working to stop human trafficking. Stacy Faust, a representative for this organization was allowed to give a presentation at the church we used to attend to bring awareness to human trafficking. God bless Pastor Bobby Trayal for making his congregation aware of this.

LABOR TRAFFICKING

is the movement of persons for the purpose of forced labor and services. It is also the act of forcing a person to work for little or no money. It can include forced labor in underground markets and sweatshops, as well as legitimate businesses such as hotels, factories, restaurants, construction sites, farming, landscaping, nail salons, and traveling sales crews. It may involve bonded labor, involuntary servitude, domestic servitude, and child labor. Labor trafficking happens most often within the domain of domestic work, agriculture, construction, manufacturing and entertainment; and migrant workers and indigenous people are especially at risk of becoming victims.

Labor Trafficking in California

did you know?

Thousands of African children are trafficked to farm cocoa... for American chocolate companies.

www.rageagainsttheminiivan.com

A poster with a dark background featuring several young African children looking out from behind a metal structure. The text "did you know?" is at the top in a large, white, textured font. To the right, there is a column of text in white. At the bottom left, the website address is written in a smaller white font.

Young boy cutting pods of cocoa beans down.

Children harvesting cocoa beans.

I believe it is wrong to force children to work, much less to work for free and be forced to work.

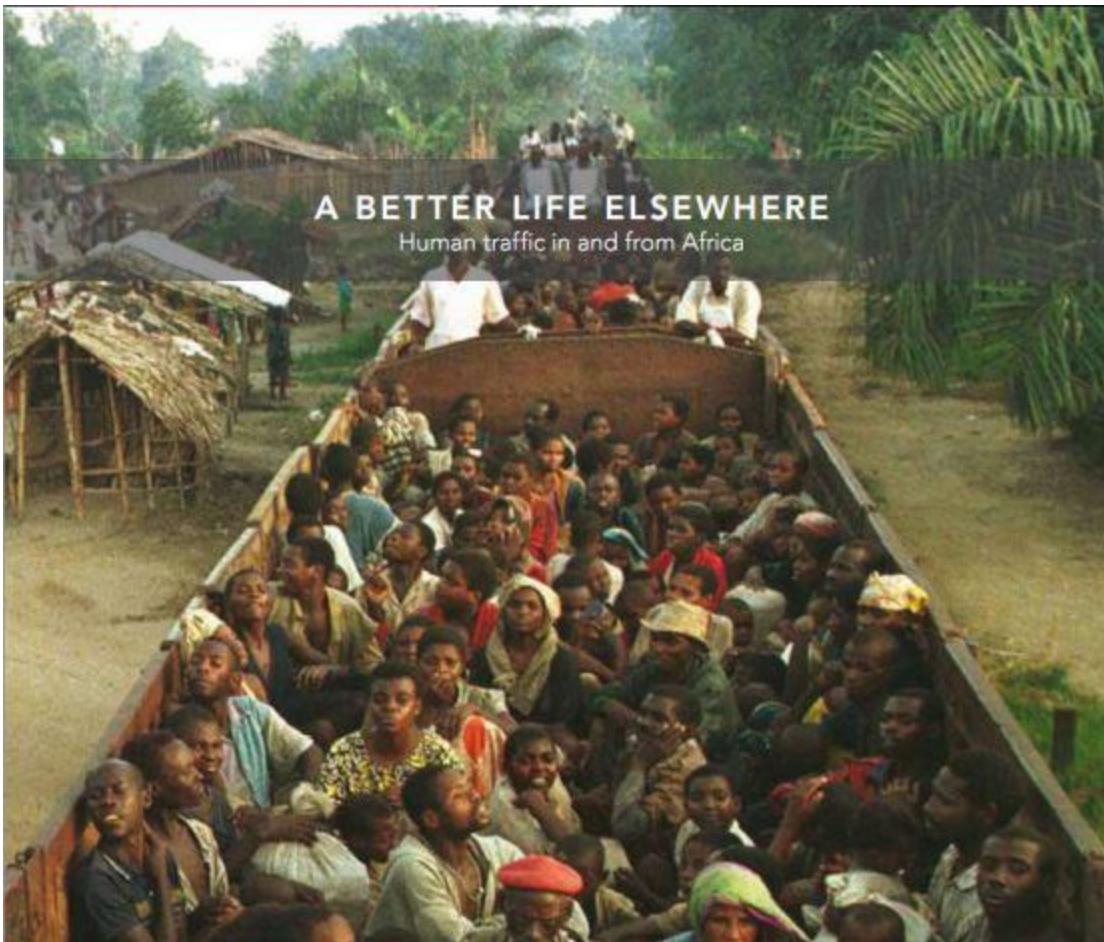

James 5:4-8 – Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you. Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

Cecilia Borjeson is a writer for Bonaverde. She says, "Modern day slave practices are real and do still exist in coffee-producing countries. It often consists of 'hiring' poor workers from a different region of the country – once at the coffee farm they are not paid, they barely have housing or food, and are prevented from returning to their homes, sometimes supervised by armed guards."

Child labor is widespread in coffee cultivation. Cecilia Borjeson is a writer for Bonaverde. She says, "Modern day slave practices are real and do still exist in coffee-producing countries. It often consists of 'hiring' poor workers from a different region of the country – once at the coffee farm they are not paid, they barely have housing or food, and are prevented from returning to their homes, sometimes supervised by armed guards."

Proverbs 22:22-23 - Rob not the poor, because he is poor: neither oppress the afflicted in the gate: For the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

Human trafficking in and from Africa. Credit: Fair (Forum for African Investigative Reporters)

Half of the workforce of the artisanal mining sector is comprised of children. Children as young as two years transport, wash, and crush minerals to earn half a dollar a day. (Photo: The Carter Center/ G. Dubourthoumieu)

DOMESTIC SERVITUDE

A form of labor trafficking, domestic servitude often involves women who are forced to live and work in the homes of employers who confiscate their legal documents and prevent them from leaving. Domestic workers can be U.S. citizens, lawfully-admitted foreign nationals, or undocumented immigrants.

Harrow woman convicted of keeping Tanzanian woman as domestic slave.

A former hospital director has been convicted of abusing a domestic worker in her employment and forcing her to effectively work as a slave, in what is thought to be the UK's first prosecution for such an offence.

Mwanahamisi Mruke was trafficked from Tanzania to Britain and made to work 18-hour days for over three years carrying out chores at her home in Harrow.

Col.4:1 – Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

Some of the organizations that say they are working to stop human trafficking are actually just a “front” and do nothing more than pretend to do a huge bust or rescue only to turn around and sell and put the people right back into the same slavery or worse. Cathy O’Brien spoke on this.

CLOSING

Really we have come to the point that human life is just a commodity? Just a product on the shelf at the store to go and pick one out and pay for it and do whatever you like with it???

Proverbs 6:16-19 – These six things doth the LORD hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto Him: A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, an heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

Aren't these people lying? I'll pay you so and so much for working for me etc. I don't know where these organs came from... This girl wants to work for you etc. Yes, they are shedding innocent blood by the organs harvested against the person's will and the people who are dying from being so used in slavery and sex. Yes they are devising wicked imaginations of how to smuggle people from one place to another and how to get more money and how not to get caught which is also lying and running to mischief.

Unless these people confess their sins and repent, they will not be entering heaven.

PRAYER

Human Trafficking

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Human_trafficking

Trafficking in Asia

<http://www.adb.org/news/features/human-trafficking-continues-haunt-asia>

Organ removal

<http://thestringer.com.au/human-trafficking-sex-slavery-organs-5178#.V6UJnPkrlIU>

Trafficking in CA

<https://oag.ca.gov/sites/all/files/agweb/pdfs/ht/chapter1.pdf?>

Trafficking in Africa

<http://www.informafrica.com/blog/investigation-into-human-trafficking-in-and-from-africa/>

Coffee Trafficking

<http://onlinepost.weebly.com/blog/nescafe-a-product-analysis-of-the-coffee-giant>

Children made to mine

<http://www.mintpressnews.com/cobalt-mined-by-children-for-use-in-your-favorite-gadgets-rechargeable-batteries/213165/>

Domestic Slave

http://kalayaanuk.blogspot.com/2011_03_01_archive.html

Child Brides in Saudi Arabia

<http://viola.bz/child-brides-in-saudi-arabia/>

Organ trafficking

<http://bigthink.com/philip-perry/what-you-need-to-know-about-human-organ-trafficking>

Baby can be bride even from the cradle

<http://www.wsj.com/articles/SB1000142405311903635604576472011907391364>