

DECEPTION of GOD'S NAME – Part Seven: SHAMASH, YHWH, YAHWEH, MASORITES

The Hanukkah menorah, also chanukiah or hanukkiah : On each night of Hanukkah a new branch is lit. The ninth holder, called the shamash ("helper" or "servant"), is for a candle used to light all other candles and/or to be used as an extra light. To be kosher the shamash must be offset on a higher or lower plane than the main eight candles or oil lamps, but there are differing opinions as to whether or not all the lights must be arranged in a straight line, or if the channukiah can be arranged in a curve.

Shamash, (Akkadian), Sumerian Utu, in Mesopotamian religion, the god of the sun, who, with the moon god, Sin (Sumerian: Nanna), and Ishtar (Sumerian: Inanna), the goddess of Venus, was part of an astral triad of divinities. Shamash was the son of Sin.

Shamash, as the solar deity, exercised the power of light over darkness and evil. In this capacity he became known as the god of justice and equity and was the judge of both gods and men. (According to legend, the Babylonian king Hammurabi received his code of laws from Shamash.) At night, Shamash became judge of the underworld.

The unsaved Jews know very well what they are doing and teaching the world from their kabbalah. They knew all along this shamash is a sun god for they worship the sun, moon and stars.

Shamash (Akkadian: ŠamašUD ☼☼) was the solar deity in ancient Semitic religion, corresponding to the Sumerian god Utu. Shamash was also the god of justice in Babylonia and Assyria. Akkadian šamaš "Sun" is cognate to Syriac: ܫܡܫܐ šemša, Hebrew: שֶׁמֶשׁ šemeš and Arabic: شمس šams.

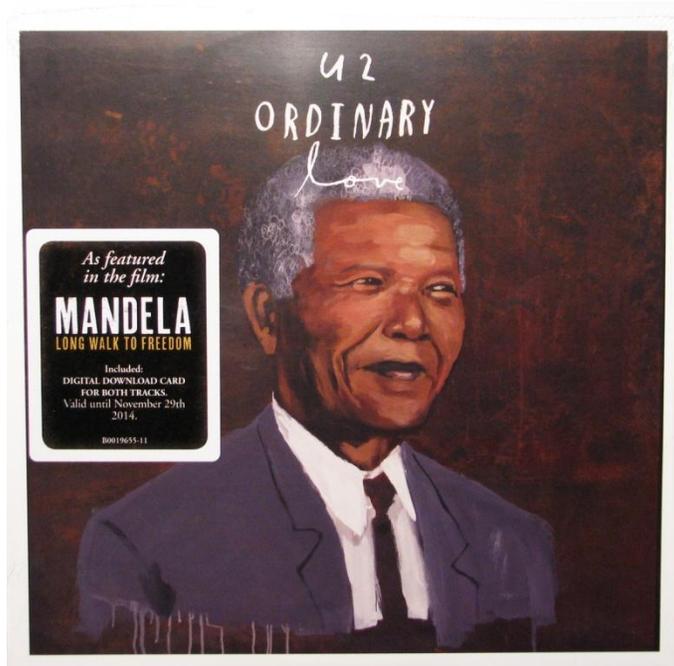

This is one of the symbols for shamash/sun god/baal/nimrod etc.

One of U2's album covers. This could be a boy or a girl. Now we know utu or u2 stands for the sun god. Same with war spelled backward – ra-w still for the sun god.

Look at all the symbolism: boy or girl (gender fluidity), square = cube for saturn/satan, triangle is sun worship, the o is sun/moon worship.

For those of you familiar with what a “Mandela” is, this should not even surprise us. We are seeing changes to our Bibles, not new translations bought out of the store, but copies right in your own home that you have owned for years. One good example for me is Corinthians chapter 13 is called the LOVE chapter. But now the word love has been replaced with charity. Right in my KJ Bible that used to say love that I have owned for years and years, now it says charity.

He has met with all of our top government officials over the years. Flashing the V for nail/satan sign.

One eye for ra/horus/osirus/satan, the star in the circle is witchcraft and a triangle connects the side piece.

These are the type of pictures that tell us a lot. He is purposely posing covering his right eye and throwing up the V=nail/satan's nickname and holding up is knighthood medals from the queen, one a freemason cross.

I hope you guys are seeing that we are living in a very staged environment. The people on tv, radio, government and big business are part of satan's system. They are either willingly doing this out of greed, or they have been born into it, or broken through SRA/trauma. Some are clones, some are programmed. Trump is not telling us anything new when he says the news is fake, they have just chosen to let him play this role. Remember they play both sides. Both sides of war, both sides of government, the rich against the poor, black against white etc.

Yahweh

Wilhelm Gesenius's Hebrew punctuation (i.e., Yahweh)

Tetragrammaton (with the vowel points for Adonai) on a Wittenberg University debate lectern

The Hebrew scholar Wilhelm Gesenius [1786–1842] suggested that the Hebrew punctuation יהוה, which is transliterated into English as "Yahweh", might more accurately represent the pronunciation of the tetragrammaton than the Biblical Hebrew punctuation "יהוה", from which the English name "Jehovah" has been derived. His proposal to read YHWH as "יהוה" (see image to the left) was based in large part on various Greek transcriptions, such as $\alpha\beta\epsilon$, dating from the first centuries CE but also on the forms of theophoric names. In his Hebrew Dictionary, Gesenius supports "Yahweh" (which would have been pronounced [jahwe], with the final letter being silent) because of the Samaritan pronunciation $\alpha\beta\epsilon$ reported by Theodoret, and that the theophoric name prefixes YHW [jeho] and YH [jo] can be explained from the form "Yahweh".^[12] Gesenius' proposal to read YHWH as יהוה is accepted as the best scholarly reconstructed vocalised Hebrew spelling of the tetragrammaton.

Gesenius kept for the most part to the lines laid down by the Hebrew grammarians of the Middle Ages, the Ḳimḥis and their followers, but in the successive editions made ever greater use of comparative Semitic philology. Remember, they are translating, not writing God's Word from inspiration of Holy Spirit. God would never have entrusted His Word to originally be written by someone who wasn't truly following Him and walking in step with Him. As a supplement to these works, Gesenius issued in 1815 his "Geschichte der Hebräischen Sprache und Schrift," and this still remains the only available sketch of the history of the study of the Hebrew language.

In a few strokes, he disposes of the myth of Hebrew as the language of creation—still seriously defended by some of his contemporaries—and replaces it with his historical approach. The original home of the language is Canaan, as is shown by its proximity to Phoenician.

Gesenius also draws attention to the fact that post-biblical, i.e. Talmudic, Hebrew often links up with Late Biblical Hebrew and continues to use the same expressions. He attributes these phenomena to the gradual dying out of Hebrew: in exile, Aramaic was adopted by the Judaeans alongside Hebrew, and after the return it progressively crowded out the ancestral tongue, until by the late Maccabeanage Hebrew remained only as a written language. The dying out of Biblical Hebrew happened after the Biblical period.

Linguistic mysticism of Hebrew

Kabbalistic thought extended Biblical and Midrashic notions that God enacted Creation through the Hebrew language and through the Torah into a full linguistic mysticism. In this, every Hebrew letter, word, number, even accent on words of the Hebrew Bible contain esoteric meanings, describing the spiritual dimensions within exoteric ideas, and it teaches the hermeneutic (from hermes, the occult version of enoch) methods of interpretation for ascertaining these meanings.

*Remember a few weeks ago I showed a clip where Perry was talking about this very thing and he mentioned rule 29. The only thing you need to interpret God's Word is Him, His Holy Spirit and prayer.*Names of God in Judaism have further prominence, though fluidity of meaning turns the whole Torah into a Divine name. * What on Earth?! – Crazy. * As the Hebrew name of things is the channel of their lifeforce, parallel to the sephirot, so concepts such as "holiness" and "mitzvot" embody ontological Divine immanence, as God can be known in manifestation as well as transcendence. The infinite potential of meaning in the Torah, as in the Ein Sof, is reflected in the symbol of the two trees of the Garden of Eden; the Torah of the Tree of Knowledge is the external, Halachic Torah, through which mystics can perceive the unlimited Torah of the Tree of Life. In Lurianic expression, each of the 600,000 souls of Israel find their own interpretation in Torah.

This is bondage, they search the scriptures and can't find Jesus because of their hardened hearts and blinded eyes.

"The reapers of the Field are the Comrades, masters of this wisdom, because Malkhut is called the Apple Field, and She grows sprouts of secrets and new meanings of Torah. This is alluding to Eve. Remember on that menorah where they had malkhut written at the bottom and I was trying to find out what that meant and last week there was a picture of a man standing on a woman and his you know what was listed as the foundation. That's where this is coming from. Those who constantly create new interpretations of Torah are the ones who reap Her."

As early as the 1st century BCE Jews believed that the Torah and other canonical texts contained encoded messages and hidden meanings. Gematria is one method for discovering its hidden meanings. Each letter in Hebrew also represents a number; Hebrew, unlike many other languages, never developed a separate numerical alphabet. By converting letters to numbers, Kabbalists were able to find a hidden meaning in each word. This method of interpretation was used extensively by various schools.

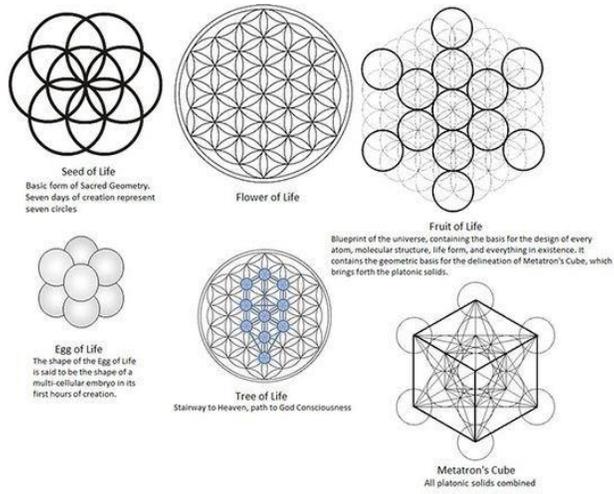

Every bit of this is witchcraft.

Kabbalahist believe in a 72 letter name for God

WIKIPEDIA:

The 72 letter name of God which is used in Jewish mysticism for meditation purposes is derived from the Hebrew verbal utterance Moses spoke in the presence of an angel, while the Sea of Reeds parted,

The infamous Cabalist and Satanist Aleister Crowley writes, "There are thus 72 'Angels'...these [names] are derived from the "Great Name of God"...The "Name" is Tetragrammaton: I.H.V.H., commonly called Jehovah. He is the Supreme Lord of...the whole Universe ("The Book of Thoth," 43). A number of other secret pronunciations of YHVH are used in the occult in addition to Yahweh and Jehovah.

Especially due to the existence of the Mesha Stele, the Jahwist tradition found in Exod. 3:15, and ancient Hebrew and Greek texts, biblical scholars widely hold that the tetragrammaton and other names of God were spoken by the ancient Israelites and their neighbours.

Some time after the destruction of Solomon's Temple, the spoken use of God's name as it was written ceased among the people, even though knowledge of the pronunciation was perpetuated in rabbinic schools. Philo calls it ineffable, and says that it is lawful for those only whose ears and tongues are purified by wisdom to hear and utter it in a holy place (that is, for priests in the Temple). In another passage, commenting on Lev. xxiv. 15 seq.: "If any one, I do not say should blaspheme against the Lord of men and gods, but should even dare to utter his name unseasonably, let him expect the penalty of death."

Rabbinic sources (talmud, kabbalah, zohar etc.) suggest that the name of God was pronounced only once a year, by the high priest, on the Day of Atonement. Others, including Maimonides, claim that the name was pronounced daily in the liturgy of the Temple in the priestly benediction of worshippers (Num. vi. 27), after the daily sacrifice; in the synagogues, though, a substitute (probably "Adonai") was used. According to the Talmud, in the last generations before the fall of Jerusalem, the name was pronounced in a low tone so that the sounds were lost in the chant of the priests.

What were priests doing chanting?

Matt.6:7 - But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Since the destruction of Second Temple of Jerusalem in 70 CE, the tetragrammaton has no longer been pronounced in the liturgy. However the pronunciation was still known in Babylonia in the latter part of the 4th century.

They have an agenda, in the noahide laws it says you shall not curse the name of yahweh.

1 John 2:23 - Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

Why do they care if the name yahweh gets cursed or not? Because it is the name of their god.

Who is their god?

John 8:44 – Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

The Jews believe that Jesus coming and stating that He is God and bringing a new covenant was blasphemy against God the Father and so He deserved to die.

Jude 1:4-5 - For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

"Of the 54 sacred names in the Jewish kabbalah, the primary one is YHWH" (R. Hathaway "Sacred Name of God? Or Blasphemy,")

The name YHVH was injected into the text of the Old Testament by the Pharisees and others who practiced Babylonian Satanism (the precursor to Cabalism and Talmudism). For those who don't believe the Talmud is Satanic it proclaims that Christ is in Hell boiling in excrement and semen (Gittin, 56b,57a).

The wise Solomon asks, "what is [God's] name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?" (Pro 30:4). God's name is אֱהְיֶה אֱהְיֶה AHAYAH (sometimes transliterated Ehyeh) meaning I AM. This is the name given to Moses along with the Law. "And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you...this is my memorial unto all generations."(Ex 3:14-15). "I AM the Lord thy God...thou shalt have no other gods before me" (Exo 32:4-5).

But I Am (on the right) is Aleph

Heh Yud Heh. This does not match.

The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel never used any personal name to distinguish Him from any peers because He had no peers. Therefore, no personal name was ever needed. The only name He gave for Himself was "I Am," which indicated that He is to be identified with all existence. The Greek Septuagint Old Testament of 285BC never used any sacred name for God, nor was such ever mentioned by other ancient writers such as the Israelite historians, Philo, and Josephus, or the later Eusebius, or even the Jewish Aristeas the Exegete who wrote his commentary on the Greek Septuagint. The word did not appear in any Old Testament text until the Masoretic Text of 1000AD!

From the viewpoint of modern theologians, it must first be understood that they all still accept the Masoretic Hebrew text of 1,000 AD as the true ancient language and Old Testament of our patriarchs. Since that Masoretic Text includes the four letter tetragrammeton, YHWH, over 6,000 times, theologians are forced to speculate that Moses must have put it in his Pentateuch. The Anchor Bible Dictionary, vol. 6, p. 1012, reads as follows: "In terms of the biblical narrative, some suggest that Moses derived the name of Yahweh from the Egyptians, while others think Yahweh was a Midianite deity worshipped by the Kenite clan. Moses would have been introduced to this new deity when he married the daughter of Jethro..." Certainly, Moses would have been acquainted with the Pagan religion of the Egyptians. But, even if the Pentateuch was actually written by Moses (which is not known for sure) in the 15th C. BC, he could not have written it in the Hebrew language which was not formed until the time of the Israelite captivities, from the 8th to 6th centuries BC, when the captive Israelites merged their native Phoenician language with the Aramaic of their captors. Now, I ask you, who wants to raise his hand to claim that Moses adopted the name of a foreign deity as a substitute for "God" or "Lord." If we set aside the closed-minded obduracy of modern scholarship, we can see that Moses did not write any text in the modern Hebrew language because it did not exist at that time, nor was there any Hebrew alphabet or script. The oldest Old Testament text known is the Greek Septuagint of 285 BC, and the word does not appear in it one single time, or in any other ancient Israelite writing, with one exception which I will get into later.

Meditation, sitting in yoga meditation position in kabbalah. Kabbalist pray at midnight and then get up at dawn and pray with the rising of the sun.

Reincarnation – mantra's etc. In the 16th century the zohar and the kabbalah were translated into Latin. "Christian kabbalist" supposedly thought kabbalah was true and pure Judaism because it was written during the time of Christ. But remember the Pharisees and the scribes and what they'd already been up to.

They meditate on 72 names of God. They are wearing phylacteries with the letter “shin – for the moon god sin” on them and wearing their prayer shawls sitting there reading and studying the zohar, kabbalah, talmud and the like. They are missing Jesus.

Matt. 5:20 – For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.
