

NOT a MANDELA EFFECT – Part 2: FALSE GODS GAD, MENI

INTERLINEAR BIBLE

v. 11 – But you (are) those who forsake the LORD, who forget My holy mountain, who set in order for Fortune (Gad) a table, and who fill for Fate (Meni, Destiny) mixed wine.

Last week we brought out who these false gods were. I used their Mesopotamian names because that is the area where they are derived and is the language of the name Gad. The land of Mesopotamia contains Babylon, Assyria, Assur, Ninevah, Sumer, Ur, Susa, Babylonia etc. These nations are all within the same Kingdom that Nimrod began to build. Aram or Padan Aram is Mesopotamia and Arabia is close in this region also. So when you look into who that god was, remember the area and the languages involved. I have recently realized that all of the mystery religions came out of Babylon. Egypt was not the originator but rather Babel was. They all began from the time of the tower of Babel when Nimrod was building his kingdom against God. Babylon taught all nations their mystery religion.

In looking at that passage of Scripture, wouldn't it have been much simpler for the Bible to state that it was Nimrod who was being worshipped? But the translators have muddied the waters making things hard for us to piece together today. Interesting to note that the book of Jasher is mentioned in the Bible but is not in the Bible. In the book of Jasher you learn that Nimrod and Abraham lived at the same time and Nimrod tried to kill Abraham.

Let's go deeper into who Meni was. Or at least look at some additional research. This is from "The Two Babylons" by Alexander Hislop written in the 1800's. This book was originally released as a pamphlet titled: The Two Babylons: Papal Worship Proved to be the Worship of Nimrod and His Wife .

The name of the Lord Moon in the East seems to have been Meni, for this appears the most natural interpretation of the Divine statement in Isaiah lxxv. 11, "But ye are they that forsake my holy mountain, that prepare a temple for Gad, and that furnish the drink-offering unto Meni."|| There is reason to believe that Gad refers to the sun-god, and that Meni in like manner designates the moon-divinity.¶ Meni, or Manai, signifies "The Numberer," and it is by the changes of the moon that the months are numbered: Psalm civ. 19, "He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth the time of its going down." The name of the "Man of the Moon," or the god who presided over that luminary among the Saxons, was Mané, as given in the "Edda,"* and Mani, in the "Voluspa."† That it was

This is a cartoon that Kennedy used to watch. Because this is Disney and I know that all of Hollywood honors these false gods I knew who this one was named for.

If you say this name it sounds like "Mani" or "Mene" or many.

Don't we see "The Man in the Moon" still in our society today? Have you learned yet that all the "fairy tales" are satanic? You should throw all those books away and repent and ask forgiveness for having read that junk to your child. It is all based on idolatry and against God.

as given in the "Edda,"* and Mani, in the "Voluspa."† That it was the birth of the "Lord Moon" that was celebrated among our ancestors at Christmas, we have remarkable evidence in the name that is still given in the lowlands of Scotland to the feast on the last day of the year, which seems to be a remnant of the old birth festival for the cakes then made are called Nūr-Cakes, or Birth-cakes. That name is Hogmanay.‡ Now, "Hog-Manai" in Chaldee signifies "The feast of the Numberer;" in other words, The festival of Deus Lunus, or of the Man of the Moon. To show the connection between country

The companies that make this stuff know full well the false gods it honors. I'm not saying you can't eat a moon pie. You'd be fooling yourself to believe that any food you eat today, unless you grow it yourself, is pure. For the luciferians are in charge of our food supply whether it is from the grocery store, or restaurants. You should be lifting your food up in prayer to God to bless it and purify it. (1 Tim. 4:4-5)

In my early 20's, I went to see a friend who lived in California. We drove down to Baja, Mexico. In the markets there, these things were everywhere. They paint them so beautifully and bright. I bought a medium sized one for myself and a small one for my mom. I had that thing all the way until God taught me the truth of what it was. It is an idol. When my mom passed away I had gotten hers and I threw it out too. These are images made to the very gods that God is addressing in Isaiah 65:11.

or of the Man of the Moon. To show the connection between country and country, and the inveterate endurance of old customs, it is worthy of remark, that Jerome, commenting on the very words of Isaiah already quoted, about spreading "a table for Gad," and "pouring out a drink-offering to Meni," observes that it "was the custom so late as his time [in the fourth century], in all cities especially in Egypt and at Alexandria, to set tables, and furnish them with various luxurious articles of food, and with goblets containing a mixture of new wine, on the last day of the month and the year, and that the people drew omens from them in respect of the fruitfulness of the year."* The Egyptian year began at a different time from ours; but this is as near as possible (only substituting whisky for wine), the way in which Hogmanay is still observed on the last day of the last month of our year in Scotland. I do not know that any omens are drawn from anything that takes place at that time, but everybody in the south of Scotland is personally cognisant of the fact, that, on Hogmanay, or the evening before New Year's day, among those who observe old customs, a table is spread, and that while buns and other dainties are provided by those who can afford them, oat cakes and cheese are brought forth among those who never see oat cakes but on this occasion, and that strong drink forms an essential article of the provision.

Pouring out drink offerings to a false god in Greece.

Reading omens from cups, tea leaves, coffee etc. or pouring out drink offerings is WITCHCRAFT.

Look at these tables or altars, full with food and drink offerings. These are the gods that the LORD God Almighty was dealing with in Isaiah 65:11. This is not Joseph, baby Jesus and Mary. But rather Nimrod, Ashtareth, and Tammuz. They were worshipped as sun gods and moon gods and still are to this day. The Catholic church which is a cult of Mystery Babylon has done much to bring us all things pagan. Constantine mixed the paganism right into the church. And now most are not questioning the roots of any of this but have just accepted the traditions of men that have been passed to them. The occultists, witches, freemasons, lucifer's elect know full well what all of this is.

|| In the authorised version Gad is rendered "that troop," and Meni, "that number;" but the most learned admit that this is incorrect, and that the words are proper names.

¶ See KITTO, vol. iv. p. 66, end of Note. The name Gad evidently refers, in the first instance, to the war-god, for it signifies to assault; but it also signifies "the assembler;" and under both ideas it is applicable to Nimrod, whose general character was that of the sun-god, for he was the first grand warrior; and, under the name of Phoroneus, he was celebrated for having first gathered mankind into social communities. (See ante, p. 51.) The name Meni, "the numberer," on the other hand, seems just a synonym for the name of Cush or Chûs, which, while it signifies "to cover" or "hide," signifies also "to count or number." The true proper meaning of the name Cush is, I have no doubt, "The numberer" or "Arithmetician;" for while Nimrod his son, as the "mighty" one, was the grand propagator of the Babylonian system of idolatry, by force and power, he, as Hermes (see ante, pp. 25, 26), was the real concocter of that system, for he is said to have "taught men the proper mode of approaching the Deity with prayers and sacrifice" (WILKINSON, vol. v. p. 10); and seeing idolatry and astronomy were intimately combined, to enable him to do so with effect, it was indispensable that he should be pre-eminently skilled in the science of numbers. Now, Hermes (that is Cush) is said to have "first discovered numbers, and the art of reckoning, geometry, and astronomy, the games of chess and hazard" (Ibid. p. 3); and it is in all probability from reference to the meaning of the name of Cush, that some called "NUMBER the father of gods and men" (Ibid. vol. iv. p. 196). The name Meni is just the Chaldee form of the Hebrew "Mené," the "numberer" for in Chaldee i often takes the place of the final e. As we have seen reason to conclude with Gesenius, that Nebo, the great prophetic god of Babylon, was just the same god as Hermes (see ante, p. 25), this shows the peculiar emphasis of the first words in the Divine sentence that sealed the doom of Belshazzar, as representing the primeval god—"MENE, MENE, Tekel, Upharsin," which is as much as covertly to say, "The numberer is numbered." As the cup was peculiarly the symbol of Cush (see ante, p. 49), hence the pouring out of the drink-offering to him as the god of the cup; and as he was the great Diviner, hence the divinations as to the future year, which Jerome connects with the divinity referred to by Isaiah. Now Hermes, in Egypt as the "numberer," was identified with the moon that numbers the months. He was called "Lord of the moon" (BUNSEN, vol. i. p. 394); and as the "dispenser of time" (WILKINSON, vol. v. p. 11), he held a "palm branch, emblematic of a year" (Ibid. p. 2). Thus, then, if Gad was the "sun-divinity,"

Daniel 5:25-26 - And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN ( a mina, a mina, a shekel, and half minas. This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it. TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances (a shekel, you are weighed on the scales), and art found wanting (are found lacking). PERES (half minas); Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

*I believe there is some deception going on with this verse.*

On this night Belshazzar was having a great feast and had brought in the vessels they had confiscated from God's holy temple to drink from. They were openly worshipping their gods while defiling God's sacred vessels. Many are still speculating as to what exactly that phrase means. Some say that it means the gods are judged. We can clearly see now that God was talking about at least one of the gods that those in Babylon served, Mene. The god of numbers or geometry. As their custom would be, I'm sure they poured out drink offerings from God's vessels unto their false gods.

Geometry and numbers certainly play into freemasonry which is just a society that practices the ancient mystery religions and happens to rule the world under the worship of lucifer because after all he is the god of this world for now.

Notice the palm branches here. There is a cake in the shape of a heart, the heart in Babylon stood for Tammuz and the fire or flaming heart connected him to his father as a sun god with the flames representing the fiery or flaming sun. This altar is set with wine as well and many of them have milk and wine.

Look at this filth! Yah or ya is a moon god. So they have these cans saying ya know. This is a three headed false god of the sea represented here. See the tail coming out of the water. This is for dagon and other false gods as well. This may represent Cush the father, Nimrod the son and Tammuz the reincarnated son. This company is in Nebo, North Carolina. The can says: a double india kvass ale double dry-hopped with citra + mosaic + galaxy. Fonta Flora Brewery.

emblematic of a year" (Ibid. p. 2). Thus, then, if Gád was the "sun-divinity,"

Meni was very naturally regarded as "The Lord Moon."

‡ See JAMIESON'S Scottish Dictionary, sub voce. Jamieson gives a good many speculations from different authors in regard to the meaning of the term "Hogmanay"; but the following extract is all that it seems necessary to quote:—"Hogmanay, the name appropriated by the vulgar to the last day in the year. Sibb thinks that the term may be . . . allied to the Scandinavian Hoeg-tid, a term applied to Christmas, and various other festivals of the Church." As the Scandinavian "tid" means "time," and "hoeg-tid" is applied to festivals of the Church in general, the meaning of this expression is evidently "festival-time;" but that shows that "hoeg" has just the meaning which I have attached to Hog—the Chaldee meaning.

*Remember the hog or boar was the animal that killed the sun god and his mother, Easter, commanded her or rather their worshippers to eat ham on Easter in his honor. It is the same with Christmas where we see the hog tied up in Scotland's "hogmanay" or "hogtide".

5 Lucky New Year's Foods

I hope you also gleaned more pagan truth as to what “new year’s” is all about as well. There is no “new year’s” in our Bibles. Eating certain things like black-eyed peas, ham, greens and cornbread so that you will have good luck or good fortune or a prosperous year is all tied into paganism and the worship of false gods. Not putting your trust or belief in Jesus Christ.

This is why you see some nations like Turkey with the moon on their flag in honor of the moon god “sin” or allah. Also on the right is an older version of Iran’s flag. The sun god is represented by a lion and the sun is behind him to show he is a sun god. The sword is about his power or strength showing he is a god of war.

We learned that God was angry at Israel for their constant idolatry against Him.

Odin supposedly wanted to drink from Mimir’s well so that he could obtain wisdom and he gave his eye as a sacrifice so that he could have a drink.

He is from the North, a Viking and learned to do spells using what we know today as witchcraft runes. Odin is baal of the Bible another name for him is Nimrod, a sun god.

The dot in the O symbolizes sun god worship.

Some banks give out Odin awards.

They were pouring drink offerings out to this false god/goddess and it reminded me of the “Mother of Harlots”. These are older renditions of her. The one on the right reminds me of satan’s false trinity. Nimrod was worshipped as a god on earth and became worshipped as the sun god - baal. Tammuz, worshipped as the reincarnated sun god. And Ashtareth, the queen of heaven (Jeremiah 7:16-20 & 44:19). She is spoken of in Revelation chapters 17 and 18 as the Mother of all Harlots, the great whore of Babylon. It is revealed in Rev. chapters 17 & 18 that Mystery Babylon is a physical city called a great city – that reigns over the kings of the earth. This city has carried on the idolatry that was begun at the Tower of Babel, which was in the ancient city of Babylon. The idolatry against God of worshipping and sacrificing to satan or lucifer's false trinity and ultimately it is all in worship of lucifer. There is also a Mystery Babylon Religion that Ashtareth created upon Nimrod's death and it continues to this very day.

The same idolatry practiced by the heathen nations and the Israelites has never stopped. We see it in the Vatican, the Roman Catholic Church, Freemasonry practiced by all of our world leaders and top military and top business leaders around the world. It is practiced by the royals and the Rothschild's and all the secret societies. It came out of the ancient mystery religions of Babylon, Egypt, Samaria and the like. This religion went underground once Nimrod was murdered and has only gotten stronger right up until today. This religion is in the so called churches. I spoke about the roots of this in the message "Christmas – Part One: Christmas Trees".

Long before there were statues and pictures of what the world has been led to believe are Mary and baby Jesus, there was Ashtaterh known in Egypt as Isis and her baby Tammuz known in Egypt as Horus. She said he was Nimrod reincarnated. This is known as sun worship or baal worship as baal is the sun god.

Semiramis and Horus were worshipped as "Madonna and child." As the generations passed, they were worshipped under other names in different countries and languages. Many of these are recognizable: Fortuna and Jupiter in Rome; Aphrodite and Adonis in Greece; and Ashtoreth/Astarte and Molech/Baal in Canaan.

During the time between Babel and Christ, pagans developed the belief that the days grew shorter in early winter because their sun-god was leaving them. When they saw the length of the day increasing, they celebrated by riotous, unrestrained feasting and orgies. This celebration, known as Saturnalia, was named after Saturn, another name for Nimrod.

Are we serving these gods today? As a nation, and around the world? Yes, we sure are. Saturnalia is the same thing as Christmas. The sun and moon gods are still worshipped today. They are honored at every so called holiday and so called Christians are lying to themselves if they think God is pleased with any of it.

L: eye of Ra / Re / Osiris / Horus M: All seeing eye / eye of lucifer / eye of Odin / Eye of Ra R: Odin with his right out removed or darkened (Zechariah 11:17). He is also referred to as the "all father" – all of this is nothing more than lucifer and his mixture of fallen angels/nephilim/titans and demons. We are deceiving ourselves if we think the god mentioned on the U.S. Dollar bill is the God of the Bible. Why have we not questioned why there is an Egyptian pyramid and latin writing on our American money? There are many occultic symbols embedded on this money on purpose to honor the gods that the luciferians serve.

CLOSING

Last week we were discussing a passage from Isaiah 65, verse 12 to be exact. This ungodly Mandela Group said "bow down" was new in that verse. These are people who do not seem to know God's Word.

Let's look at verse 12 now:

v. 12 - Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake (spoke), ye did not hear; but did evil before Mine eyes (and you did the evil in My eyes), and did choose that wherein (in which) I delighted not (and that in which I had not pleasure you chose).

Look how major this is to God. They were going to be killed, destroyed because of their idolatry. God did not delight in their idolatry. It is the same as celebrating in the pagan holidays. Celebrations that began in worship of pagan gods. Like Christmas which was originally called winter solstice, bacchanalia, saturnalia or yuletide and saying that you are celebrating Jesus' birthday. No one knows when He was born and the pagans were celebrating the death and rebirth of their sun god long before Jesus Christ came to this earth through Mary to be born in the flesh but still fully God and walk this earth. The Roman Catholic Church renamed all the pagan fertility rituals with Christianized names and brought this idolatrous sin right into the church. It does not please God and it is sin and you will be judged by Jesus Christ for continuing to participate in it. You will be judged for willful sin as well as for sins of ignorance. God said to have no other Gods before Him. (Exodus 20:3-5)

Are you deceiving yourself believing God is ok with the things you are doing or continuing to do?

Luke 12:47-48 - And that servant (slave), which knew His lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to His will, shall (will) be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

James 4:17 - Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

PRAYER
