

PAT ROBERTSON, JOSEPH PRINCE, MOTHER GRACE – Part Five: KABBALAH, SOPHIA

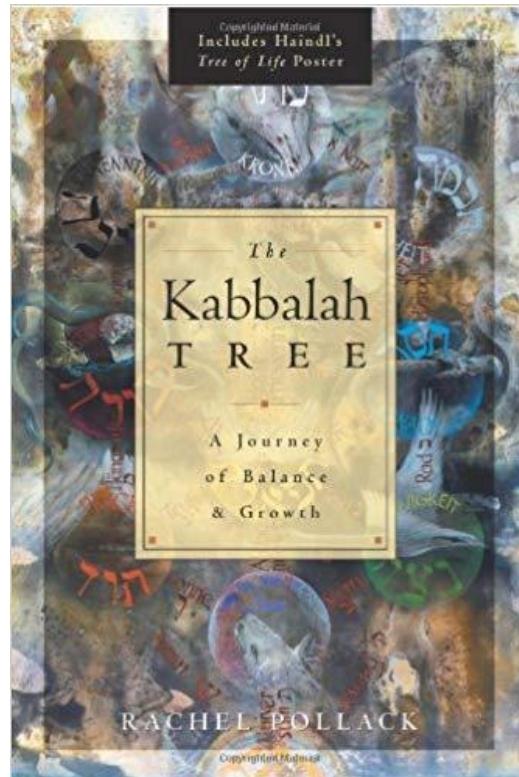

Last week we showed a video clip of a 2018 teaching from Joseph Prince on hesed wisdom. I showed how that is tied into the kabbalah. The luciferians teaching from the tv are weaving occultic logos, symbols and teachings into the church. Let's continue breaking down some more of his sneaky teaching.

If we did not know about his false teachings we might dismiss this as just accentuating what he's saying. But in dealing with magic and witches they use these things to summon demonic power, to show their allegiance to their master and those in their secret brotherhood. They can also use these as cues to trigger someone's programming.

The witches like to say things like this “unlock God’s power in your life.” And here’s one that really irritates Scott - activate the Holy Spirit. You don’t unlock or activate anything. You come to Him and sincerely seek Him and ask forgiveness and really give your life to Him and He begins to work in and through you.

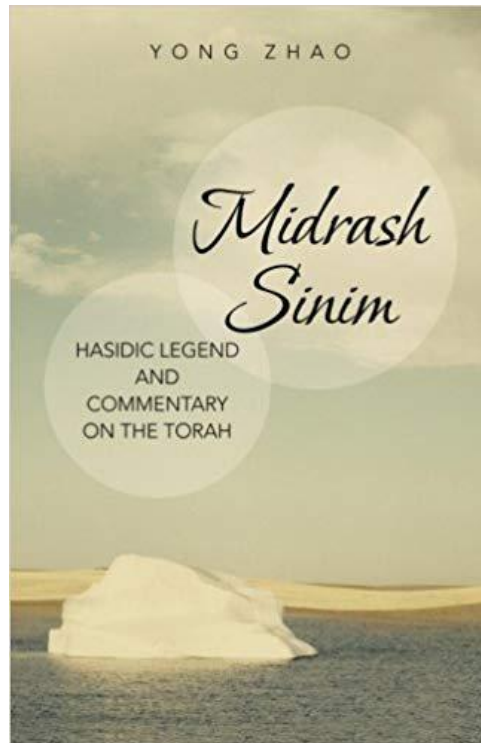

Let’s hear some things from this book:

Though the image of the Christian Son rises here behind Hokhmah, Kabbalist tradition refers to this sephirah as the “supernal father,” the very principle of masculine creativity. If we remember the sexual metaphors prevalent in Kabbalah, we can describe Hokhmah as a kind of phallic outpouring that never empties itself, for its energy originates in the inexhaustible oneness of Kether.

Despite its primal maleness in Kabbalah, Hokhmah actually originated as a female mythological figure. The word appears in the Bible as a personified speaker, that is, a quality that speaks to the reader as a person. She comes to us most in the book of Proverbs. In chapter three, we read, “Happy he who has found wisdom, and the man who has acquired understanding . . . She is more precious than red coral, and all your jewels are no match for her” (this and the following quotations are from the New English Bible). In chapter eight, we read, “Hear how Wisdom lifts her voice, and Understanding cries out. She stands at the cross-roads, by the wayside, at the top of the hill.”

Notice that Wisdom and Understanding—Hokhmah and Binah—seem to be one figure, a kind of divine female. In many ancient cultures, including Israel, goddesses were worshipped at both crossroads and hill-tops. Still in chapter eight, Wisdom tells us, “The Lord created me the beginning of his works, before all else that he made, long ago. Alone, I was fashioned in times long past, at the beginning, long before earth itself.” And, “When he set the heavens in their place I was there, when he girdled the ocean with the horizon . . . when he prescribed limits for the sea and knit together earth’s foundations. Then I was at his side each day, his darling and delight . . . while my delight was in mankind.” Here, Hokhmah existed before Creation, as God’s consort. Wisdom has become a kind of cosmic figure.

And still more in chapter eight: “Wisdom has built her house, she has hewn her seven pillars; she has killed her beast and spiced her wine, and she has spread her table.” Notice here the seven pillars, for the seven planets, the seven days of Creation, the seven lower sephiroth, and the seven double letters described in the Sefer Yetsirah.

From the above book:

4. Seven Pillars

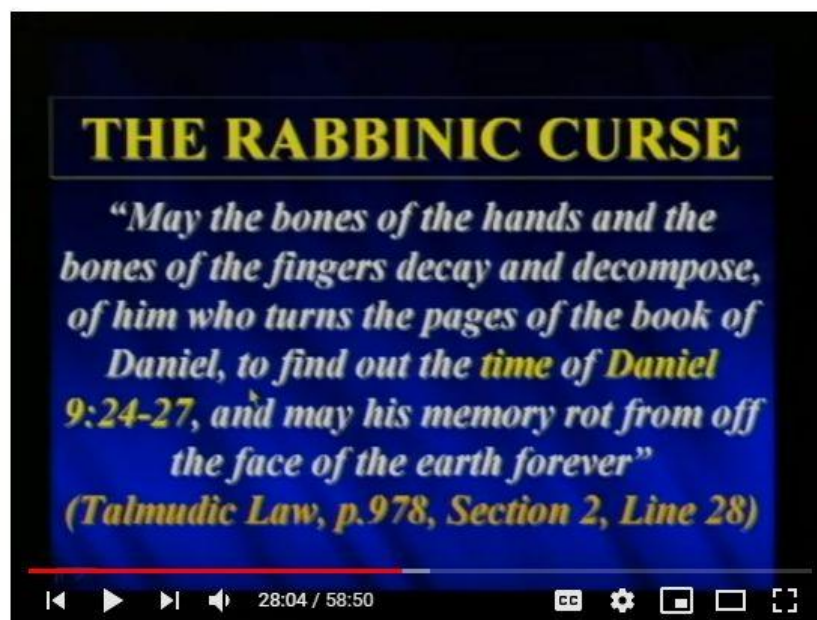

Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars. (Prov. 9:1)

Every house has its pillars. The world created by the LORD could be compared to a house, and it has seven pillars, which are Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Talmud, and Zohar. It is these seven pillars that support the world.

I don't know if they perverted what was in the Bible and drug it into their teachings or if they inserted the personification of their false goddess wisdom into our Bibles. When Joseph Prince said he did not have time to teach on all that God had downloaded into him, he mentioned for example the 7 pillars. He's referring to this:

Proverbs 9:1-5 - Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars (carved out seven pillars): She hath killed her beasts (slaughtered her slaughter); she hath mingled her wine (mixed her wine); she hath also furnished her table (set her table). She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city, Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding (or one lacking heart or one lacking judgment), she saith to him, Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled (I have mixed).

They said the 7 pillars are the Torah (first five books of the Bible) and the Talmud and Zohar.

They guy bringing this out here is Walter Veith, who is a 7th Day Adventist, which is a false religion but he brought out some of the wickedness of the Talmud here. God gave us the Scriptures and there is nothing wrong with searching them out and figuring out the things we can and that He reveals to us. Shame on them trying to curse those that study God's Word as He told us to do. The Talmud is like a huge set of encyclopedias that have been added to by many rabbi's and many of them have not even read all that has been written in the collection. I have never heard of anything good in the Talmud but rather lies and witchcraft.

Research: In terms of authority and from a legal point of view, we as Jews in traditional rabbinic Judaism live not by what is written in the Bible, but by the Bible as interpreted by the Jewish tradition, the foundation of which is the Talmud - and, in this sense the Talmud is more authoritative than the Bible.

FURTHER RESEARCH ON “HESED”:

Hesed—El

The name of God associated with Hesed is El, the Hebrew word translated as “God.” El was the common name for a god in ancient Near Eastern cultures. It may come from a root meaning “to be strong” or “power,” connoting not only might but authority and transcendence.

ʾĒl (or ʾIl, Ugaritic: 𐎎𐎗; Phoenician: 𐤀𐤋;^[1] Hebrew: אֵל; Syriac: ܐܠ; Arabic: إله or آل; cognate to Akkadian: 𒂗, romanized: il) is a Northwest Semitic word meaning "god" or "deity", or referring (as a proper name) to any one of multiple major ancient Near Eastern deities. A rarer form, ʾīla, represents the predicate form in Old Akkadian and in Amorite.^[2] The word is derived from the Proto-Semitic archaic biliteral ʾl, meaning "god".

Specific deities known as ʾEl or ʾIl include the supreme god of the ancient Canaanite religion^[3] and the supreme god of East Semitic speakers in Mesopotamia's Early Dynastic Period.^[4]

The "S" showed up first in a ball like the sun for sun worship, serpent, satan and sin. Last week I mentioned how the trident is also a crown. Thank you Ali S. who mentioned that the S for serpent was crowned.

They like to crown the serpent. This serpent looks like he's eating a person to me.

Coat of arms at Milan Central Station.

“Wisdom” is being honored here. It is even wearing a crown. Remember Isis, Semiramis was known as the goddess that wore a crown.

The Greek noun sophia is the translation of “wisdom” in the Greek Septuagint for Hebrew חוכמת Hokmot. Wisdom is a central topic in the “sapiential” books, i.e. Proverbs, Psalms, Song of Songs, Ecclesiastes, Book of Wisdom, Wisdom of Sirach, and to some extent Baruch (the last three are Apocryphal / Deuterocanonical books of the Old Testament.)

The world has exalted philosophers.

Acts 17:15-34 & 18:1 - And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus (Mandela Effect – should say Timothy) for to come to him with all speed, they departed. Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry. Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons (and with those worshipping), and in the market daily with them that met with him. Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (he seems to be an announcer of foreign demons): because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection. And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is? For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.) Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill (stood in the midst of Aeropagus), and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious (how very fearful of gods you are in everything). For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions (objects of worship), I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship (not knowing), Him declare I unto you. God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that He is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshipped with men's hands (nor is served by hands of men), as though He needed any thing, seeing He giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; And hath made of one blood all nations of men (NIV says: from one man He made all the nations) for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed (ordained for appointed seasons / NIV says: He marked out their appointed times in history), and the bounds of their habitation (the boundaries of their lands); That they should seek the Lord, if haply (perhaps) they might feel after Him, and find Him, though He be not far from every one of us: For in Him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also His offspring. Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device (we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone or to an engraving by art and of imagination of man). And the times of this ignorance God winked at (overlooked); but now commandeth all men every where to repent: Because He hath appointed a day, in the which He will judge the world in righteousness by that Man Whom He hath ordained (appointed); whereof He hath given assurance (proof) unto all men, in that He hath raised Him from the dead. And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter. So Paul departed from among them (NIV: at that Paul left the counsel). Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite (a member of the Aeropagus), and a woman named Damaris, and others with them. After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

Mars hill seems to be a Mandela Effect.

So instead of “Mars Hill” it seems it should have read Areopagus.

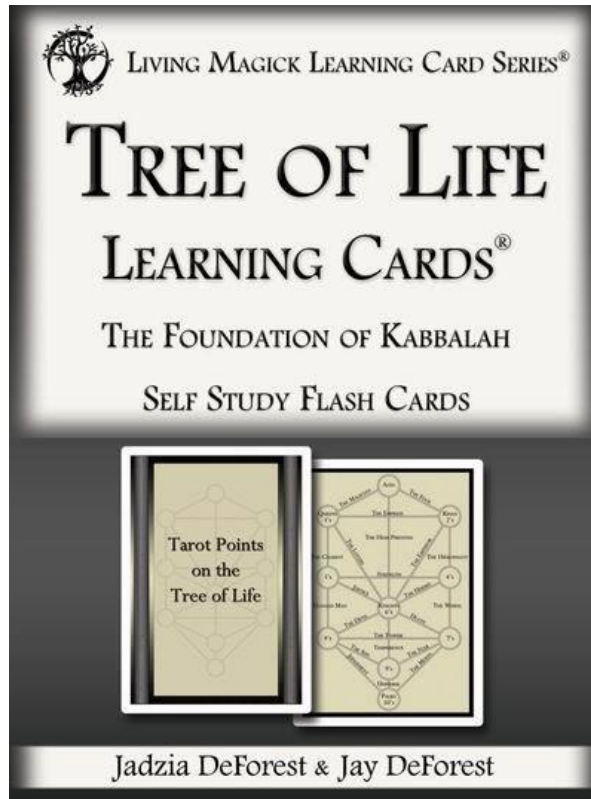

Witness to the people who just want to be artists, or thinkers or cultural. Those things are fine but for every person our life came from Christ and He is our Savior and we are to bring Him glory. He’s the only way to eternal life. Let’s not let their lifestyle or difference of opinion shut us down from telling them about Him.

The Apprentice or entered apprentice is what it is also called when someone enters into freemasonry. This book cover says: The World and the Universe as One. The 2nd cover shows coding within the name “apprentice.” So the freemasons have a tree with the roots exposed. Thank you Ms. Janice for showing this to me.

This show never dawned on me about freemasonry until just a few weeks ago. The title says it all. This was one of the first tv shows for me to let go as a baby Christian because they took God’s name in vain on it.

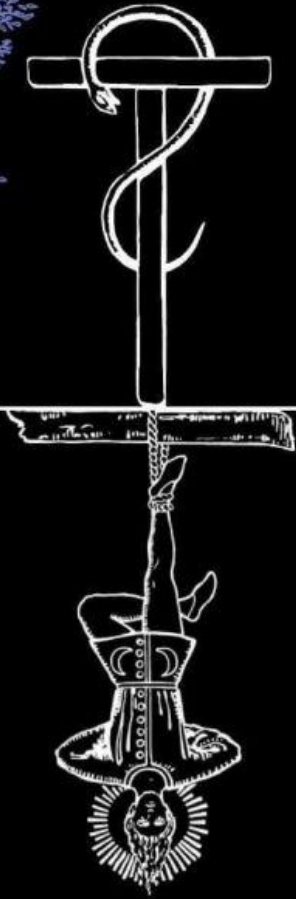

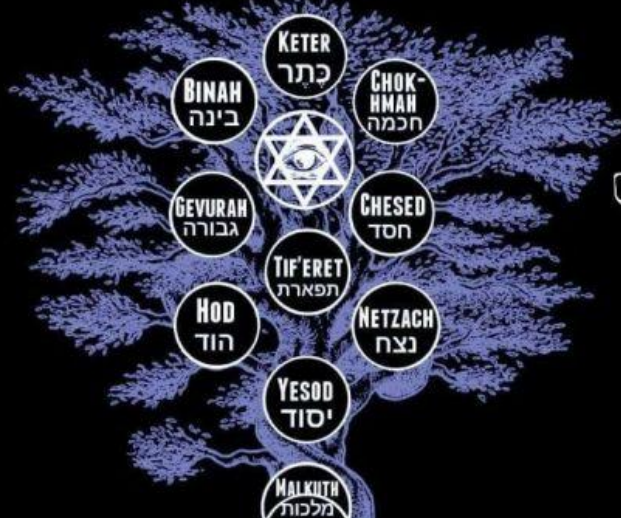

We already learned last week that kabbalah is witchcraft taught to the world by the unsaved Jews who have rejected Jesus Christ. They certainly have a tree that they call the tree of life. Beware of trees with the roots showing.

THE TREE OF DEATH OR QLIPOTH/KELIPOT (MEANING: PEELS, SHELLS OR HUSKS) REPRESENT THE REVERSE SIDE OF THE TREE OF LIFE'S TEN SEPHIROTH AND THEIR DIVINE EMANATIONS. THESE COUNTER FORCES REPRESENT OUR SHADOW SELF; UNITY AND DUALITY IN ITS TOTALITY.

TREE OF LIFE

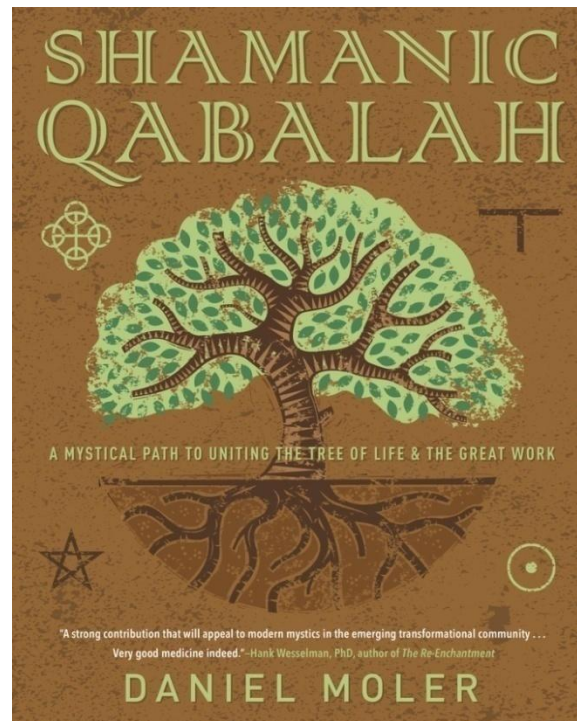

TREE OF DEATH

Attributes of God have been woven into our Bibles as names or titles of God. The unsaved Jews who teach the Talmud, kabbalah, zohar etc. teach these names as: jehovah jireh, or the LORD God or LORD (all caps) or Lord (Capital L and lowercase ord) or small capitals lord etc. Each variation is supposed to indicate a difference between the Father, the Son or both etc. This has come from the Masoretes who have tampered with the translations.

Here is satan's tree again. Notice the symbols, the circles with the Masonic cross in the middle, the T for tammuz, the witches star and the symbol for the sun. A mystical path to uniting the tree of life and the great work. Sometimes kabbalah is spelled with a q. Just like the koran with a k and sometimes a q. The quote says: "A strong contribution that will appeal to modern mystics in the emerging transformational community...Very good medicine indeed."

I hope you can see that kabbalah, witchcraft, freemasons, new age, secret societies are different versions of the same thing. See the astrology symbols along with the all seeing eye. Remember the god el of the Canaanites that was also referred to as 2 or II? You see that at the bottom of this cover as well.

This one says it all.

CLOSING

I took this picture at our local Hobby Lobby. This is a witchcraft tree sold at Hobby Lobby. So now you know that the witches have a tree too. They take the same initiations in these luciferian circles. Hobby Lobby is not a Christian store and I have a message coming on that one day. If you have any pictures or jewelry or anything with a tree with the roots exposed you need to destroy it, burn it or get rid of it so that it will not wind up in someone else's hands. Repent of it and ask God's forgiveness. It isn't art, it has occultic meaning. Above and below, divine and human or good versus evil. This is not the tree of life.

Rev.22:14 - Blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

Jesus Christ is the new covenant and we are to abide in Him and follow His Words and teachings.

satan has many trees now, the Halloween tree, the Christmas tree, the valentine's tree and on and on it goes. satan stopped Adam and Eve from having the right to the tree of life when he tempted them to sin against God. He wants to keep you from being restored to your Heavenly Father and having the right to the tree of life in heaven. He mocks god and so his trees are trees of death and not life.

If you stand with and believe in this ministry and consider yourself part of this ministry – I invite you to pray over these requests with me each week. As I pray, listen and be in agreement in your spirit.
