Prosecutor: Pat Robertson Had Gold Deal with African Dictator

Prosecutors at the human rights trial of former Liberian warlord Charles Taylor alleged Thursday that Christian televangelist Pat Robertson had lobbied the White House on Taylor's behalf in return for a gold mining contract.

The controversial pastor and former republican presidential contender met with then-President George W. Bush on Taylor's behalf, prosecutors charged during cross-examination of Taylor in a Dutch courtroom, allegedly in return for a contract to mine gold in southeast Liberia -- a contract they say that Taylor had no legal right to grant.

The gold deal went through in June 1999, with Robertson allegedly pumping $15 million dollars into the project.

Robertson's company, of which he was president and sole director, was called Freedom Gold, Ltd. The agreement gave the Liberian government 10 percent equity interest in the company and Liberians could purchase at least 15 percent of the shares after the exploration period.

"This concession was granted by the Liberian government to promote economic activity and alleviate the suffering of the people of Liberia following a terrible civil war," said Roslan, who denied any quid pro quo for granting the concession, and said that Robertson saw this as a way to help the suffering people of Liberia.

Freedom Gold is not currently operating and has never commercially produced any gold, according to Roslan.

Taylor is charged with masterminding the atrocities, such as mass rape and amputation of civilians, in Sierra Leone (which shares a border with Liberia) in order to take advantage of the country's vast natural resources, including diamonds.

Prosecutors have accused Taylor, who served as Liberia's president from 1997 to 2003, of ordering his subordinates to murder and mutilate civilians, cut off their limbs, use women and girls as sex slaves, abduct adults and children, and force them to perform labor or become fighters to further his economic and political ambitions in the region. Taylor has pleaded not guilty to all charges.

In October, former lead prosecutor Stephen Rapp told ABC News that illegal diamond money was a major motivation for Taylor's rape of his neighboring Sierra Leone: "It's [Sierra Leone's] rich diamond fields which financed the continued conflict, and according to our evidence, was part of the motivation for Taylor in going in there and carrying out a conflict that ranged across the 1990s with an increased level of atrocity against the civilian population."

Prov. 25:26 – A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain (polluted fountain), and a corrupt spring (muddied spring).

What kind of witness did Pat give this wicked man that he chose to do business with? What he saw was a greedy person out for gain at any cost.

Psalm 26:4-5 - I have not sat with vain persons (liars / deceitful men), neither will I go in with dissemblers (hypocrites). I have hated the congregation of evil doers (assembly of evil doers); and will not sit with the wicked.

Cor.15:33 – Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners (bad company corrupts good character / morals).

That man saw that Pat was willing to compromise his morals or else had none to start with.

Psalm 101:3-4 - I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me (get a hold on). A froward heart shall depart from me (a wicked or false heart): I will not know a wicked person (I will not esteem a wicked person).

This should be our witness to unbelievers. Pat had no business dealing with a warlord.

Robertson apologizes for Chavez comment Televangelist urged Venezuelan leader's assassination 'out of frustration'

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. — Religious broadcaster Pat Robertson apologized Wednesday for calling for the assassination of Venezuelan President Hugo Chavez, only hours after he denied saying Chavez should be killed. “Is it right to call for assassination?” Robertson said. “No, and I apologize for that statement. I spoke in frustration that we should accommodate the man who thinks the U.S. is out to kill him.”

On Monday’s telecast of his Christian Broadcasting Network show “The 700 Club,” Robertson had said: “You know, I don’t know about this doctrine of assassination, but if he thinks we're trying to assassinate him, I think that we really ought to go ahead and do it. It's a whole lot cheaper than starting a war, and I don't think any oil shipments will stop."

Covert operations 'a whole lot easier'

He continued: "We have the ability to take him out, and I think the time has come that we exercise that ability. We don't need another $200 billion war to get rid of one, you know, strong-arm dictator. It's a whole lot easier to have some of the covert operatives do the job and then get it over with."

On Wednesday, he initially denied having called for Chavez to be killed and said The Associated Press had misinterpreted his remarks.

"I didn't say 'assassination.' I said our special forces should 'take him out,'" Robertson said on his show. "'Take him out' could be a number of things including kidnapping."

Caracas demands legal action

The Venezuelan foreign ministry said it was not satisfied with U.S. officials' dismissal of Robertson's remarks and wanted the White House to take legal action.

If you have listened to the interviews with Kay Griggs then you know that what he said matches perfectly with how the military think and operate.

Pat Robertson Estimated to be Worth $150-200 million!

"Robertson lives on the top of a Virginia mountain, in a huge mansion with a private airstrip. He owns the Ice Capades, a small hotel, diamond mines (in Zaire), a vitamin company (Kalo Vita) involved in a multi-level marketing scheme along the lines of Amway, and until recently, International Family Entertainment, parent company of the Family Channel (see below) -- all estimated to be worth between $150-200 million. How does a televangelist, who is supposedly involved in non-profit work, manage to create such a fortune for himself? One thing is known for sure, Robertson's numerous private business interests have at times pushed their expenses onto the tax-exempt, religious interests of CBN. For example, Robertson was caught using CBN money and equipment to aid his diamond mining operation -- a double good deal for Pat, seeing as he employed people in Zaire for ridiculously low wages, and managed to use CBN's infrastructure to cut costs even more. In looking at Robertson's businesses, one is struck by the constant use of non-profit, donor money to fund his schemes. (For documentation of this and more, see Rob Boston's book entitled The Most Dangerous Man in America?: Pat Robertson and the Rise of the Christian Coalition.)"

Pat Robertson Supported by Coors Beer! Look in the middle of the bottle where it says “banquet” and notice two golden lions, crazy looking lions, but lions none the less. They represent sun worship.

Pat Robertson Mum on Liquor Curse Because of Lush Contribution from Coors Brewing Company!

Many will be shocked and saddened by the published statement of Pat Robertson that among his biggest contributors are Joseph and Holly Coors, beer brewing tycoons.

When asked at the Religious Newswriters Association (after addressing them, in Atlanta), what he thought about the morality of the sale or consumption of alcoholic beverages, Robertson replied, "I cannot afford to say anything about that."

Then, the Christian television executive gave the reason why: "Joseph and Holly Coors of the Golden (Colorado) family, are among my strongest supporters. They are very beautiful people and very dear friends – so I cannot afford to say anything about that."

It is a dark day in America when the Dollar Sign neutralizes and destroys the influence of Christian leaders. It is no wonder that the liquor traffic is so firmly entrenched in our country. And what a tragic day that will be when some of these leaders stand before God! (Source of information in this report: The National Statesman Magazine).

~ The Capital Voice

1 Timothy 6:10 - For the love of money is the root of all evil (a root of all kinds of evil): which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

Money is not the only root of evil, for example when King David slept with Bathsheba, another's man's wife, he certainly was not out for money or fixated on money.

Gal.1:10 - For do I now persuade men, or God (am I seeking the approval of man or of God)? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

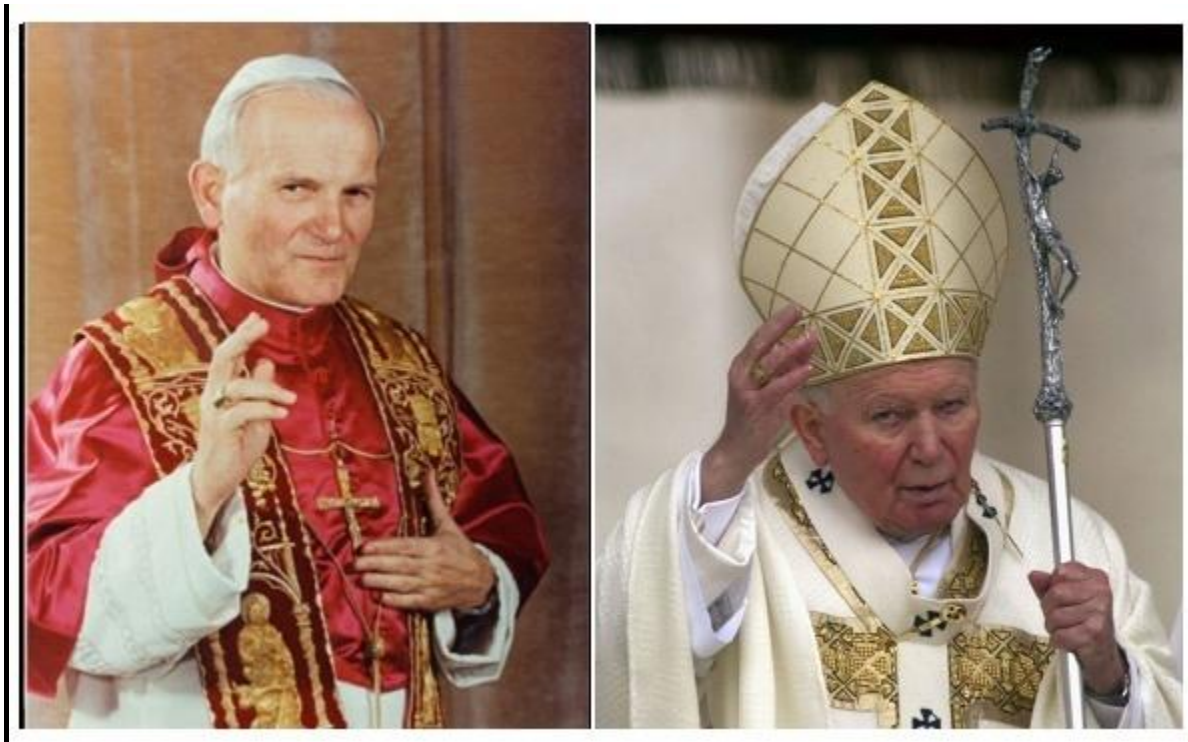

Pat is certainly pleasing man by not stepping on toes and calling out sin. If he did that, the Coors family would certainly withdraw their support.

Isaiah 5:11 - Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink (run after their drinks / pursue after); that continue until night, till wine inflame them!

The bible has plenty to say about consuming alcohol.

In April 2001 Robertson supported China's brutal policy of forced abortion and said that the Communist country was "doing what they have to do" in keeping population numbers down. It is not Christian to advocate even voluntary abortion on the part of the mother, never mind such a tyrannical model of forced abortion as part of a wider eugenics agenda.

PAT ROBERTSON IS OF THE DEVIL...PRAISES Pope John Paul II!

CBN.com – VIRGINIA BEACH, Va., April 02, 2005 -- I am deeply grieved as a great man passes from this world to his much deserved eternal reward. John Paul II has been the most beloved religious leader of our age – far surpassing in popular admiration the leader of any faith.

He has been a man of great warmth, profound understanding, deep spirituality, and indefatigable vigor. It was my great honor to meet with him at the residence of my good friend, Cardinal O'Connor, in New York, and to sit in the Consistory during the mass he conducted in Central Park. I told him at the time how much the American people loved him, and he merely smiled. That love was shared not only in America but by millions all over the globe.

He has been a steady bridge in the transition of Eastern Europe from communism to freedom. His personal magnetism brought together all Christians in new bonds of understanding.

I pray for the Cardinals of the Catholic Church that they might have God-given wisdom in selecting the successor to this great man. Their task will not be easy, but with God all things are possible." -SOURCE

According to Pat Robertson, the Pope is a man of "deep spirituality." You've got to be kidding Mr. Robertson. And you call yourself a "Christian"? The Pope is the leader of the biggest false religion in the world, Catholicism! For Robertson to speak such gleaming words of praise towards such a satanic imposter as the Pope, reveals that Robertson is in league with the devil himself. No born again Christian who loves the Lord would ever praise the Pope, who is leading one billion people straight into Hell. Pat Robertson praises the Pope because he'd be off TV very fast if he criticized the Pope. Satan uses man's love of money to control the world. Pat Robertson has sold out to satan! (...)

George Bush ranked very high in the New World Order. Hard to say who took orders from who here.

In these next few pictures we see that Pat sat with the infamous New Word Order president.

Please play from 37:03 to 37:22 and from 1:17:06 to 1:18:26 and from 1:19:48 to 1:21:09 Cathy O'Brien talks about George Bush and how high up he was in the Illuminati.(about 3 min's)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AmxJqVqEmD4>

Here is Bush with some of his grandkids doing a photo op. He has a pyramid on his lap. He is speaking to his co-horts by the placement of that prop, the pyramid.

A real and true Christian would never be welcomed or listened to by the presidents we have today. God's prophets were always attacked in Scripture. A true and righteous king would listen but on the whole they were mostly wicked and did not want God's counsel. So these pictures with Bush, who was high up in the illuminati are very telling of the mutual respect they had for each other and that they belonged to the same organization.

There is nothing wrong with being wealthy, of course. But with great wealth comes great responsibility. Regardless of your rung on the income ladder, we must remember that Jesus viewed wealth as a gift from God to be used in His service. The Parable of the Shrewd Manager teaches us that God must be the most important thing in our lives:

Matt.6:24 - No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon (money/riches).

It is interesting to me that just a few weeks ago God showed me that there was also a false god called mammon.

God name "Mammon"	Syriac	The god of this world . Mammon was the Syrian god of wealth, similar to Plutus of Greek and Roman mythology. Syriac
----------------------	--------	--

Matt.19:24 - And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

Why do we see all of these rich and I mean filthy rich ministers today? Why aren't they using what God blesses them with to do ministry work? Why are their bank accounts packed full and why are they loaded with so many materialistic things? Think about it.

Pat Robertson's father, Senator Absalom Willis Robertson, a Democrat, was a fabulously wealthy Illuminist insider. The elder Robertson was Chairman of the U. S. Senate's powerful Committee on Banking and Currency and later served as a "consultant" to the World Bank.

Absalom was the name of King David's son who wanted to overthrow King David take over the throne and even kill his own father. Clearly Pat was born into an Illuminati freemason witchcraft family. The world bankers and government officials are in the occult secret societies. They are luciferians.

Thanks Mr. Eddie for pointing this clip out to me.

Please play this clip – Pat Robertson saying the illuminati died off in the 1700's(about 1.5 min's)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=urNKsYyIQ9U&feature=youtu.be>

I hope by now after this series teaching that you have learned and can see that the illuminati are alive and well and even are still in control of this earth for their god is the god of this world.

2 Cor.4:4 - In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

CLOSING

LUKE 12:16-21 - And He spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully (an abundant harvest): And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits (no place to store his crops)? And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods (and there will I store all my grain/produce and goods). And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided (Then who will get what you have provided for yourself)? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God (So it is with him who amasses treasures for himself, but has no riches in God).

You do not want to stand before Jesus Christ on judgment day having a loaded bank account. Yes, you can certainly save some for your children's inheritance and keep some to live on but you should be using what God has blessed you with to serve Him and His Kingdom and thereby laying up treasures in heaven for yourself.

1 John 4:1 – Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God (test the spirits whether they are of God): because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

Isaiah 57:3 - But draw near here, you sons of the sorceress, the descendants of the adulterer and the harlot.

These false preachers and false teachers are sons of the sorceress. She is mother of grace: Ashtareth, Queen of heaven, mother of harlots, easter, isis, Ishtar, Diana, artemis, Athena, Aphrodite, lady liberty, lady Colombia etc.

I have been given a flock to warn and a burden to expose this wickedness. I pray this teaching series has helped you to see more clearly the truth of the times we are living in and the spiritual fight we are in and how deceptive and subtle satan's ministers are.
