

DARES: BLOODY MARY, BABY BLUE and CHARLIE CHARLIE

WARNING: This may not be appropriate for young children. You know how mature your child is in Christ. You may want to watch this and then explain it to them at their level or wait until you feel they are old enough to understand. Don't wait too long because if you don't teach them, the world will.

Dare: transitive verb - a : to challenge to perform an action especially as a proof of courage

Let's face it, dares are always about trying to get people to do something they would not normally do.

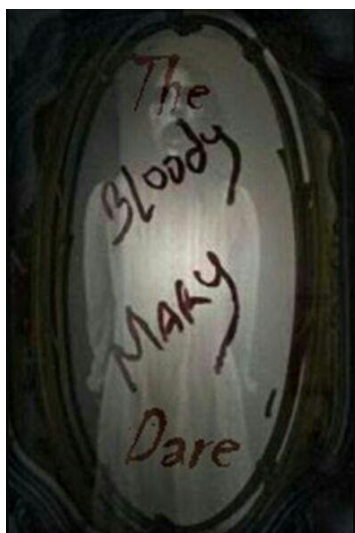

Many “dares” are challenges to do occultic/new age things. Peer pressure, wanting to fit in and not wanting to appear to be afraid, everyone else is doing it. Those are a lot of reasons children are doing these dares.

Bloody Mary

Are you ready to invoke bloody Mary? Instructions, the story, invoke her.

Bloody Mary is the children's game of summoning an evil and vengeful witch of the same name. This is done by standing in a bathroom, with one candle lit and calling the name "Bloody Mary" into the mirror three times in a row.

Bloody Mary, Bloody Mary, Bloody Mary

Urban Legends

Bloody Mary is one of the most popular urban legends with the 'ritual' practised by young people all over the world. Each country and region has its own twist to the legend, but all have one thing in common; the idea is to try to invoke the spirit of a very angry woman!

But who was 'Bloody Mary' and what can happen if she answers your calling?
Where did the legend originate?
Is there any danger in what seems like an innocent game?

On the right, the caption says: On Halloween look in the glass, your future husband's face will pass. All of this is witchcraft and superstition.

There is a legend about Bloody Mary Worth that says she was doing the opposite of the underground railroad. Instead of helping slaves escape she was welcoming them into her home and then torturing them. Others say she was a witch and that when she died they buried her on her own land because it was improper to bury a witch on sacred ground. Later they built a subdivision where her home used to be and removed the grave marker and that she would haunt those homes built there.

This seems to be based on Mary I of England.

She fought against the protestant reformation and had 280 some odd people burned at the stake who opposed Roman Catholicism. The burning of master John Rogers vicar of saints sepulchers (tombs/graves). Reader of Saint Pauls in London. She was a bloody queen indeed.

Here is some more information on why I believe the name Mary was chosen?

Luke 1:42 - And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

Mary was chosen to be the vessel God used to bring Jesus into this world. So that He could be seen in the flesh and they could see that He grew up and had no sin and then learn that He was God and was sent here to take our sins on Himself. That we could know He experienced what we experience. He was and is the only way to God the Father. He is the only One Who can redeem mankind from satan's hand and back to our Heavenly Father. Mary was honored to be chosen by God for this.

In the Mystery Babylon religion, Asherah made up a story about being a virgin that was impregnated by the sun god. She has been worshipped all through time and still is today. The druid priests of the Mystery Babylon Religion surfaced in the Roman Catholic Church. They have statues of all of their gods and goddesses but have renamed them with names of saints. In Catholicism when you see a statue of Mary, it isn't Mary at all but it is Asherah / Ashtaroth / The Queen of Heaven / The Mother of Harlots.

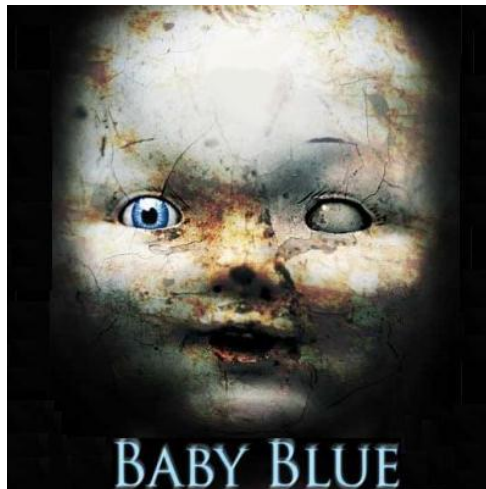

These statues and images are all of Ashtaroth. That statue of Mary in the middle is not Mary but is of the queen of heaven who our Bible tells us is an abomination against God. The statue of Liberty is of her. Lady Columbia is another of her names. In some nations she is worshipped as a sun goddess, in some she is a moon goddess. Some of her other names are Isis, Easter, Athena, Diana etc.

A demon will interact upon seeing and hearing someone following these instructions and willingly participating in this. It is evil and not of God. Even sins of ignorance have consequences.

Once people do these things and open doors to the demonic in the spirit realm, sometimes they think it is the house or place where they are that is the problem. They think they can move away and the problem will go away. If you are in a house or place where satanic things have occurred and so there is spiritual activity because of what has been done there, then you might be able to move away from it. But if you have participated in these type of activities then you can't outrun it or move away from it. It will follow you because you gave it legal ground, you gave it the right to be there. You now have to deal with it and close that door.

For this demonic game you go into the bathroom and turn out the lights and lock the door. Then you stare into the mirror while you say the chant and hold out your arms like you are rocking a baby.

At the end of it you are supposed to feel weight in your arms as if an invisible baby is really in your arms. If you do this you are inviting evil spirits to interact with you and that is what you will feel. It is supposed to get heavier and heavier as you hold it and it begins to scratch you. You are supposed to flush the baby down the toilet before it gets too heavy to keep holding. If you don't do it soon enough an mean ugly woman is supposed to appear in the glass and scream at you to give her baby back. She will supposedly scream loud enough to break the glass. Some people believe she is bloody Mary. Then legend goes that she killed her baby and if you are still holding the baby when she is summoned, she will kill you.

Demon name Lilith – Jewish – Rather startling young lady started out as Adam’s first wife and became a demoness.

Goddess name “Lilith” – Mesopotamian / Sumerian – goddess of desolation. She is perceived as a demonic figure who, in the epic legend of Gilgamesh and the Huluppu tree, takes up residence in Inana’s holy tree growing on the banks of the Euphrates in Unug. When the hero Gilgamesh attacks Lilith she escapes into the desert wastes...

Lilith or Lilis – Christian – The Talmudists say that Adam had a wife before Eve, whose name was Lilis. Refusing to submit to Adam, she left Paradise for a region of the air. She still haunts the night as a spectre, and is especially hostile to new-born infants. Some superstitious Jews still put in the chamber occupied by their wife four coins, with labels on which the names of Adam and Eve are inscribed, with the words, “avaunt thee, Lilith!” Rabbinical mythology.

Let’s just be clear, Judaism and the Talmud – that’s all witchcraft. They are the ones Jesus rebuked and called vipers.

Judaism is witchcraft. Lilith's punishment was that 100 of her babies would have to die each day. But in other renditions she was allowed to kill 100 babies a day unless they had an amulet of protection. What a load of witchcraft. Amulets and good luck charms for protection and luck are the devil's lies that people eat right up. The people believing in that nonsense don't believe in Jesus Christ or they need to grow in faith. These things will serve as a point of contact for that demon. They do the opposite of what the witches teach, they will not drive any demons away but only attract them.

CHARLIE CHARLIE GAME

In this paranormal game you cross two pens or pencils to create a grid (with sectors labeled “yes” and “no”) and then asking questions to a “supernatural entity” named “Charlie.” The upper pencil is then expected to rotate to indicate the answer to such questions. The first question everyone asks by speaking into the pencils is "can we play?" or "are you here?" or "are you there?"

Reactions

In May 2015, four teenage girls were sent to a hospital in Tunja and quickly released with a diagnosis of mass hysteria.

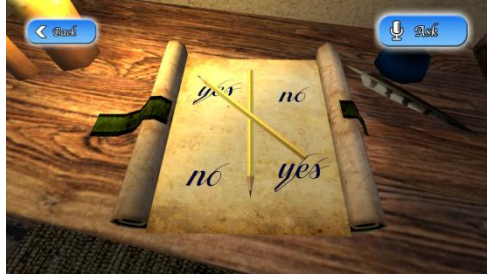

Kate Knibbs writes that “once the paranormal fad went viral, it didn’t take long for Christian fearmongers to warn against calling on the nefarious spirit world. Pat Robertson denounced the Charlie Charlie challenge as demonic. Several exorcists promoted the idea that the game caused spirit possession, a concern repeated by Muslims in Jamaica and the UAE. Various media outlets described participants in the game as “gullible.”

In April 2017, the East Libyan government banned the game, blaming it for 6 suicides.

In that article they go on to “debunk” the game and say it’s no big deal and not that dangerous. Nothing but worldly psychologists were giving their opinions. They want to promote the idea that it’s all fun and games when it isn’t.

Kennedy’s friend was ten years old telling me he had already played this game. Look, they have apps for your phone to play this filth and it is very cheap or even free. Satan just wants you to be curious and do these things. He knows the consequences and he just wants to get a grip on your children.

This is an application for your phone. If your child has a tablet or a phone you better believe these free apps pop up and are advertised to them. Satan has covered his bases and he wants in any way he can get in. Talk to them and go deep in explaining how spiritual things work. Check their phones and tablets and keep the communication open about what they do in their spare time and who their friends are and what their interests are. God entrusted them to you and you will answer to Him for how well you raised them and if you taught them His ways or not.

I covered this in “Evil Spirits in Your House – Part Two.” This is a time that Satanists and witches like to be active because it is the exact opposite time from when Jesus died on the cross. They try to mock and pervert everything to do with God.

By the way each country has their own versions of these dares. They may use different names, for example, Mexico doesn't have a “Charlie Charlie” game but they use a different name for their demon summoning. Things are added to or taken away from them over the years as well. These dares are playing on curiosity and a craving for the supernatural. They are leading the participant to chant which is what witches do or as Jesus said, it is what the heathens do. The point is to get you to willingly participate and to summon a demon.

CLOSING

I felt it was important to cover this subject because not only is this relevant to adults but it is effecting even our very young children. Kennedy's friend was only ten years old when she was grappling with bloody Mary. I remember hearing about bloody Mary in school and how to summon her and I thought about what I had heard and it would scare me at night going to the bathroom in the dark and seeing the mirror there. I never said the words or did any of it and I was still scared she was gonna appear in that mirror as I went to the restroom. At that time in my life I had not been to church. My family was not in church and I was not being raised in Christ. My family did not know anything about spiritual matters. Furthermore, I don't even think I ever told my mom about it.

Kennedy's friend was scared of her mirror in her room and so her mom covered it up. She told her children there's no such thing as ghost. And remember her daughter was being haunted by the appearance of a man beside her bed. I explained what that was and why it was there in the teaching series "Evil Spirits in Your House."

Proverbs 22:6 - Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

We have dropped the ball in training up our children. We as parents are responsible to teach our children God's Word, His Will and His Ways.

Deut.6:6-7 - And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way (when you walk along the road), and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

Are you teaching your children God's Word? Do you read it together with them? Do you discuss it with them? Do you discuss it and pray with them in the morning and at night? Do you model it for them? If you are a Christian then God's Word should come up in conversation every day as a natural part of life. It should be natural to talk of the Lord as a family. We start our day with prayer and we end it with prayer. And we talk to God throughout the day as things come up. We praise Him for different things as they come to our heart and minds. Jesus Christ is the head and as parents you are under Him and you are also a type of spiritual covering over your children.

Do you know how to talk to your children about the spirit realm? Have you explained to them that satan, fallen angels, demons, witches, evil spirits – that all of this is real?

They need to be taught the consequences of what happens when they do these type of things. It opens spiritual doors to the enemy, to evil spirits to attach to them and stay with them throughout their lives and wreak havoc against them.

Deut.18:10-14 - There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire (who sacrifices his son or daughter in fire), or that useth divination (fortune telling - clairvoyance), or an observer of times (interprets omens - astrology), or an enchanter (sorcerer - hypnotist), or a witch (a person who cast spells on people and controls them with their mind), Or a charmer (a witch of a lesser degree), or a consulter with familiar spirits (mediums, psychics – consulting and working with the dead asking them to guide them), or a wizard (male witch), or a necromancer (seeking unto the dead – using familiar spirits to tell the future). For all that do these things are an abomination (detestable / He hates them) unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee. Thou shalt be perfect (blameless) with the LORD thy God. For these nations, which thou shalt possess, hearkened unto observers of times (sorcerers), and unto diviners (fortune tellers): but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath not suffered thee so to do (God forbids you to do those things).

All of this still stands today. God hates all of this and those who practice it. In the Old Testament God said not to allow a witch to live. All of this falls into the category of witchcraft today. We put up with witches only because we are under a new covenant now under Christ, a time of grace where God is patiently waiting for more people to be saved.

If you have participated in these things or similar things, then you want to be sure you have asked forgiveness for ever having done these things. Ask forgiveness for ever having believed in superstition of any sort. When you ask with a sincere heart and are truly sorry about this sin against God, He will forgive you. Ask Him to cleanse your life from anything that entered in because of participating in these things. Plead the blood of Jesus over your life. Think about the things you do, watch, believe, participate in and buy. Think about if they please God or not. Look through the things you own and see if you have things that don't please God and destroy or burn them and ask forgiveness.

You should be asking God's forgiveness over your life daily and pleading the blood of Jesus over your life. Live an obedient life and as you do God will naturally break things off of your life. If you have gone deep in wickedness or have sin that you cannot seem to overcome you may need deliverance.
