

EXPOSING THE CORONAVIRUS VACCINES

This is a powerful video packed with a lot of information. Watch this you guys.

Please play this video Some of the things discussed are: the swabs with nano technology on them, in 2009 they were researching giving vaccines through the nasal cavity, profusa hydrogel, the vaccine and what it really is, routing policies for biological hosts, where AIDS came from, (AIDS was created in a lab and then it was put into Hep B vaccines and into small pox vaccines and these vaccines were donated to Africa by the millions and this is why AIDS became so prevalent in Africa. This is why millions died and were infected. Then America said we will bring in cures for you but you will owe us money and so the countries that they first infected – then became indebted and can never get out of debt. The cures they brought in was chemo therapy which is just poison. They talk about how America loans great amounts of money to foreign countries that can never pay it back and so then America takes over their natural resources.) They say the “pandemic” will go on until March of 2025. Countries began ordering coronavirus test kits as far back as 2017. Being sterilized through the vaccine, CRISPR which is a gene editing tool, UK NHS (National Health Service) seeking a.i. to track all the adverse reactions to the vaccine, anaphylaxis seems to be one of the huge reactions to the vaccine, foreign proteins being injected, your body cannot get rid of the change that is going to be made by these vaccines, you will forever be damaged, those who had previous injections (flu shots) are far more susceptible to have adverse reactions, 3 weeks is the incubation period in order to acquire anaphylaxis (they have studied this), body bags being shipped out (but we don’t know to where and we don’t know if these are normal deliveries or not), vaccine fallout, the flu has disappeared, the pcr tests are not accurate, testing has been revised, pcr test is not a tool to detect disease and Dr. Tom Cowan discusses the fakery of the whole virus.

Thank you Mrs. Kimberly so much for sharing this video with all of us.

How about the info. on where AIDS came from. Wow. Look at AT&T and the luciferians with their patents on "routing policies for biological hosts." That's us you guys. They have been sending and receiving information already through our bones and skin using us as antenna's. This system is already in place and they are already using it. Remember Bill Gates and Microsoft with the patent on WIPO using body data with a crypto currency system. This is what the nano technology is doing. Helping them to send information to us and retrieve our thoughts as well. satan tries to mock God and be God at every turn but he never will be. Ms. Tommie had shared with me the information about AT&T that she and her brother who works in IT had discovered and when I asked for it, it had been wiped from offline. But I did find it through the patent #'s that this guys shared.

The lady telling us there is morgellons fibers in the test kit swabs seems like a nonsense video to me. We don't see the test kit being opened and the swab being torn apart, just all of a sudden we are told this story and we see a destroyed long swab there. She has fibers that she is claiming are nano fibers. Seems like it would be hard for the nano fibers to come off of the swab and into your brain to me. I mean she had to tear it apart to find them supposedly. And my understanding is that the nano goes into our bodies and self assembles and forms these things, it doesn't go in as an already formed wire. Not that it can't do that but this video seems shady to me. Seems like they think we have lost all ability to reason.

About the smart dust nano chips that may be in or on the testing swabs, just remember that smart dust has also already been sprayed on us for many many years now through the chemtrails.

Not sure I believe the body bag guy. I think he's coded. Or he could be a skill they are using to get truth out. He has a cap on that he seems to purposely capture in the shot and it has Christmas trees on it. Looks like an American flag but instead of stars it has Christmas trees. That is code for the luciferians because they worship baal which is satan. Those are baal altars. They are also called Asherah trees and are found beside baal altars. That is an asherah grove or a bunch of baal altars. So either way, it symbolizes worship of the sun and moon gods and goddesses. Remember coronavirus is all in worship of the sun god who is satan. The orange t-shirt stands for freemasonry. If you look up the color orange on the Pythagorean numerology chart you will get 33. If this is coded then he's speaking to the brotherhood here. There is a number on his t-shirt and I couldn't capture it very well. It is either 512 or 312 and depending on how you do the witchcraft math you get a bunch of 6's out of that.

We don't know if all of those boxes contained body bags. We could not read the labels on all of them. We don't know what was loaded onto that truck. We don't know if these are regular deliveries to hospitals. We don't have any detailed information here.

I don't believe every story of injury because I have seen some coding. I saw one nurse who said she was the head nurse over her unit and always fainted like 5 or 6 times a month. She got the vaccine and they were doing like a news briefing covering her after getting the shot and all of a sudden she starts saying, "Oh I feel faint and passed out." I don't believe that for one minute. Who on earth would put a nurse that passes out all the time in charge of anything? Especially other people's health? I saw another story where a woman was faking being sick and a reporter sneaked up on her and caught her out in public walking and talking just like normal. This was a stunt to show that a certain dr. had cured her so that more people would be drawn to his practice. I don't know why they are showing some fake actors with the injuries but maybe it is to make people think that no injuries are happening. Not sure about that part of it.

However, there is so much death and injury related to this vaccine, that is real. You can search VAERS who gathers vaccine adverse reaction information and see the deaths and reactions.

They have lied to us about what viruses really are. Science has been used against us and this has been tyranny on so many levels.

If you know this type of information. If you are a truther and know all of this but don't know Christ then it is for nothing. If you die knowing all of this and not knowing Christ you will be damned to torment in the lake of fire for all of eternity. He is The most important truth you can ever know. Come to Him and bring glory to His name with your life while you still can.
