

MANDELA EFFECT SCRIPTURE CHANGES Pt 3: FALSE MEMORIES, LIVE BY THE SWORD

A shill was saying that listening to music stops the Mandela Effect. The person who was sharing that to me was saying to listen to Christian music. What utter non-sense that is. The problem with that theory is that the Christian music they are referencing is contemporary and it is satanic, even written to satan. And there are hidden messages laid down on the tracks that you cannot even hear, demonic tracks. They are burning images of pentagrams and 6's on the sound tracks to draw the demons in. I showed this in the teaching "Satanic, Haunted, Cursed Objects." That shill said not to listen to gospel music, that it would not work. Can you see through that? Gospel music is what Kennedy sings, it is from old hymn books. It's about all that is left that is pure anymore. That same shill was spreading the lie that the Mandela Effect is just people having false memories. God will always reveal the deceivers to us.

Mandela Effect Examples. What do you remember? "Kit-Kat" vs "Kit Kat" (no dash) I remember the dash.

I remember the one on the left because of the little jingle that they used to sing on commercials. Now even the jingle has changed.

I remember the one on the bottom. My daddy drove Ford's and my middle brother also got a Ford for his first truck. He washed that truck all the time, dated all the girls in that truck and I still remember it today.

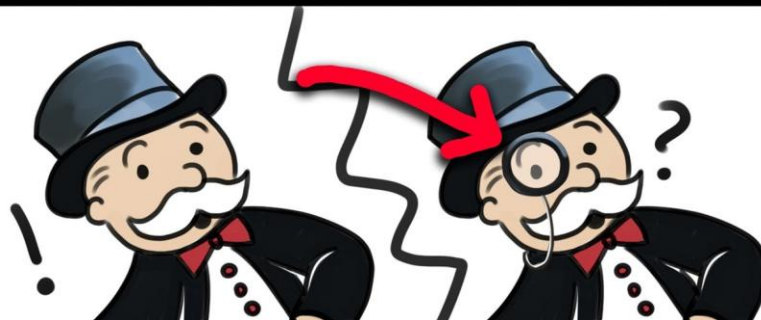

I think this has been going on for a while now and people are only noticing changes with things that they have paid attention to. Or things that stood out to them. What one person pays attention to, another person may not notice or care about. Our brains all work in different ways. So when I see something of interest, you may not find it interesting at all.

Chic-fil-a or Chick-fil-a. I remember the one on the top. Every time I would see the sign as I drove down the road I always thought to myself, why is it spelled that way? I remembered chic (sheek) jeans, spelled c h i c, and those were for girls. The slang term for a girl used to be spelled c h i c. So I always used to wonder why they spelled it that way. Not everyone had those thoughts and may not have had any reference point at all. Most likely when you pay no mind to things you won't notice little changes like the addition of a "k."

Some say the Mandela Effect is parallel time lines or alternate realities. This is new age talk. They are traveling in the astral realm and messing with things. They've been doing this for a long time. If you are unaware of the luciferians time traveling, please watch the "Opening the Abyss" teaching series I did. The link to that teaching is in my sermon notes on our website and in the info. box on Youtube and Bitchute.

FALSE MEMORIES

The Monopoly banker, with the eye glass or without it?

There are those that say the Mandela Effects are just false memories. They are saying that a bunch of people are having “Shared false memories,” or “collective false memories.” Are you buying that at all? Really? Doesn’t that alone seem strange and bizarre?

Please play from :52 to 6:31 Isaac Kappy and Fiona Barnett talking from Australia. Fiona speaks about the prime minister of Australia’s recent mention of ritual sexual abuse. The background: she says that in the 1990’s there was a New South Wales State Royal Commission into ritual abuse. They tried to cover it up and say it was looking into police corruption but it wasn’t it was into ritual abuse. And it was completely discredited by the person they employed to conduct the investigation, James Wood, a magistrate. He concluded in his report that ritual abuse was something that victims made up. He had the support of the False Memory Foundation. Kappy says that people in the psychiatric community...It has been ingrained by the people in the psychiatric community. Many times the people working in the psychiatric community are compromised themselves – dirty dr’s. He named that it has happened in institutions, churches, schools, sporting clubs etc. Fiona’s therapist said that in his reports from now on when he had victims of ritual abuse coming in that he was going to write that “Fred came in reporting ritual abuse in whatever organization – as confirmed by the Australian Prime Minister on the 22nd of October of 2018. This completely changes the game. They tried to wipe it out using the False Memory Syndrome Foundation. This is all CIA. The people who set that foundation (False Memory Syndrome Foundation) up are the perpetrators of MK Ultra, child abuse, ritual abuse and child trafficking. The so called research by James Wood to back his dodgy report, said that they (the victims) were all fantasist and they were misled by over zealous therapist. His dodgy research that he employed was by Elizabeth Loftis and that was just dreadful. She’d done a few studies on whether these white middle class females in their 20’s, 30 of them, in her psychology class and they all came from the same place, if they could imagine what it was like falling through a plate glass window. Then she recorded what their responses were to this imagined trauma. Then she generalized findings from this ridiculous study, to the most traumatized, abused population across the world. Fiona points out that if you were in psych class 101 and you tried to make a statement like (That all abuse and memories of abuse is just imagined) that you'd be laughed out of class and fail. But suddenly this person who was appointed to conduct the first investigation into ritual abuse in Australia, is quoting 2 or 3 studies that this moron did that she writes about in a book. And that's his scientific research background. An abuse victim, Dean Henry, named James Wood as a pedophile to the current Federal Royal Commission. Royal Commissions don't do much, they're cover ups, they are white washers. They have a live chat stream going and someone said that Fiona needed to take back what she said about Billy Graham. She read it and said, no she would not take it back because it is true, he is a pedophile and she's not the only one.(about 7 min's)

I was happy that Fiona brought to light the lies that the False Memory Syndrome Foundation was based on. Listening to the witches, to tell us what's right? Why would we listen to luciferian witches to tell us what we do and don't remember and that when we see these Mandela effects then they just say we have faulty memories. Remember Sigmond Freud and the whole psychiatric industry was formed by a plan of the luciferians just before the time of Hitler. It was in the same time frame as the Tavistock Institute and I brought all of that out in the Weather and Chemical Warfare series.

We have been set up our whole lives to believe in their system and their lies. They have these institutions staffed with their brainwashed dr's and the like, just to cover up their crimes. So, no, it is not just a bunch of faulty memories or collective faulty memories. And if a whole bunch of people are remembering something the same way, do we not have enough sense to know there's more to that, that something is there. Instead of just believing them when they throw a label on it and say, "nothing to see here – keep it moving." Really? The shills online are working hard to try and discredit the Mandela Effect and they have the support of the ones who can't see it thrown in with them. I was called an anti-christ for exposing the Mandela Effects in Scripture.

I have heard the lies that those of us who can see the Mandela Effects are just remembering wrong. Misquoting Scripture etc. So many excuses are being offered up for the witchcraft that is happening to our Bibles. Funny how even Christians who say they believe in God cannot fathom that there is a Satan and that he has a kingdom and has evil spirits and people that serve him and help to carry his plans out. They don't understand how witchcraft works or don't believe it is even real. It is real, let me assure you.

John Hagee, who is a witch, shared something true on one of his shows once. He shared a story of a couple who had bought a statue and put it in their house. This figurine had a snake wrapped around it. The next day when they came home, the same snake that was wrapped around that statue had manifested and was literally, there in the physical realm, in their house, wrapped around that statue. That's witchcraft. The people liked that statue with the snake on it. They spent their money on it and brought it right into their house and set it up prominently on display. The serpent is always a representation of Satan. That statue was summoning, it was a point of contact for the demonic realm. It drew that snake to it. We have to understand how witchcraft works to understand what the witches are doing in our world. We need to at least have some basic knowledge of these things. We need to have spiritual understanding of these things. When you have that kind of filth and perversion in your house it is going to interact with the spirit realm.

Out of all the translations, the KJV is being hit the hardest. I believe it is the best translation that we have to work with today and the Luciferians are trying to make us walk away from it and turn to the newer translations. The newer translations have attacked the Trinity and the deity of Christ and at times they have left scriptures out completely.

Sometimes the Mandela Effect is across all translations but many times it is only the KJV. There are thousands and thousands of changes in the KJV now. Changed from what was originally written there. Not a new edition, not a new revision, not a newly printed KJV, but the very same Bible I have owned since I was a teenager has changed. No one snuck in my house and retyped my Bible inserting new pages. This is a supernatural change. They are using occult science, CERN, quantum computing and technology along with their ancient Sanskrit, Hebrew, Aramaic occult writings, rituals, chanting, spell casting and high dark witchcraft to cause this to happen. If you don't believe witchcraft is real then you aren't going to understand how this is happening. The wicked side of the spirit realm is just as real as the holy side of the spirit realm.

Eph.6:12 - For we wrestle not against flesh and blood (We are not fighting enemies of flesh and blood), but against principalities (evil rulers), against powers (authorities), against the rulers of the darkness of this world (against the powers of darkness of the unseen world), against spiritual wickedness in high places (against mighty powers in this dark world / against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.).

Right now, we are involved in a war against satan and those who serve him. He loves it when people don't believe he exist, when they think he cannot touch them, and when they don't understand how he works.

Many do not have eyes to see. Many do not know the Word of God well enough to know these translations are changing. Many don't read His Word, don't study His Word. Some see the changes but don't speak up because they don't know how to defend all of the changes now in the KJV. They think it would cause people to quit believing in God, to walk away from their churches and ultimately they would lose money and people. They aren't gonna stand for that. And I will say also, there are thousands and thousands of changes now and no way would I ever be able to cover them all. I am going to bring some of them out in this series. The main thing is to be aware and pay attention to what you read and ask the Holy Spirit to lead and guide you in your reading and in this life.

God put me in a unique situation with a lady in a home school group. This home school group was so worldly. This lady found out I was a pastor and was looking at some of my messages. She asked about the Mandela Effect and I ran right into a brick wall with her because she was unfamiliar with the KJV. So of course she had no clue what I was talking about. Used to be that most ministers preached and taught from the KJV so most people were familiar with those scriptures but not anymore. So I learned a lesson not to even bother with people that aren't familiar with the KJV.

I have talked with Pastor Erustus and shared with him about the Mandela Effect. He can see it too. Be careful who you are listening to about the changes to the Bible. Many have not truly studied their Bibles and are saying some things are changes that never were. I brought that out in the teaching series “Not a Mandela Effect.”

People that don't read the KJV Bible are not going to understand this or see it. The main version of the Bible that has been attacked so hard with the Mandela Effect is the KJV.

I have noticed that pastors are just teaching what they read in the Bible right now. Many are not catching any of this at all. Because they aren't looking for it, not awake about it and not realizing that this type of witchcraft is being allowed by God. Maybe they notice some things that don't seem right, but they are not speaking up about any of it. Shame on them.

I do not believe we have to go hunting and digging for Mandela Effects. If you continue to read and study His Word you will naturally see them. I think it is enough to be aware of it and what is happening, instead of fighting with others and arguing.

There are some that say they are trying to memorize the whole Bible. That is just ridiculousness. Trolls, shills and witches say that kind of stuff. Things like, I memorized this passage or that passage and I know it always said this or that when all along they are just lying so that they can keep confusion stirred up. That is where your Godly discernment must come into play and you have to test the spirit that, that person is speaking by. Some want to seem like experts so that they can discredit the ones who can see it and know the truth about it. I keep telling you all that it matters who you listen to, what teaching you listen to, what teachers you follow and believe. There are true ministers of God and there are satan's ministers disguised as angels of light. (2 Cor.11:14-15)

Let's take a look at one verse today that I want to bring out. This was when Judas betrayed Jesus and came out to the garden of Gethsemane with soldiers to arrest Him.

Matt.26:51-54 - And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote (cut) off his ear. Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his (its) place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword (those who use the sword will die by the sword). Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He shall presently (immediately) give Me more than twelve legions of angels (for protection)? But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be (must be this way)?

John 18:10 tell's us the servant's name was Malchus and that Jesus restored his ear. I like that Jesus clearly states that He could have had thousands of angels at His disposal to escape all of this but that was not God's plan of redemption, He had to die for us, no one else could.

Verse 52b, the last part of that verse, is what we are going to look at. When teaching on the Mandela Effect scriptures, it helps to find some of the popular scriptures that you can at least still find residual evidence of. The popular scriptures that were most likely to be on mugs, t-shirts, wall plaques and things like that. So here we go.

New International Version

"Put your sword back in its place," Jesus said to him, "for all who draw the sword will die by the sword.

New Living Translation

"Put away your sword," Jesus told him. "Those who use the sword will die by the sword.

English Standard Version

Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place. For all who take the sword will perish by the sword.

Berean Study Bible

"Put your sword back in its place," Jesus said to him. "For all who draw the sword will die by the sword.

Berean Literal Bible

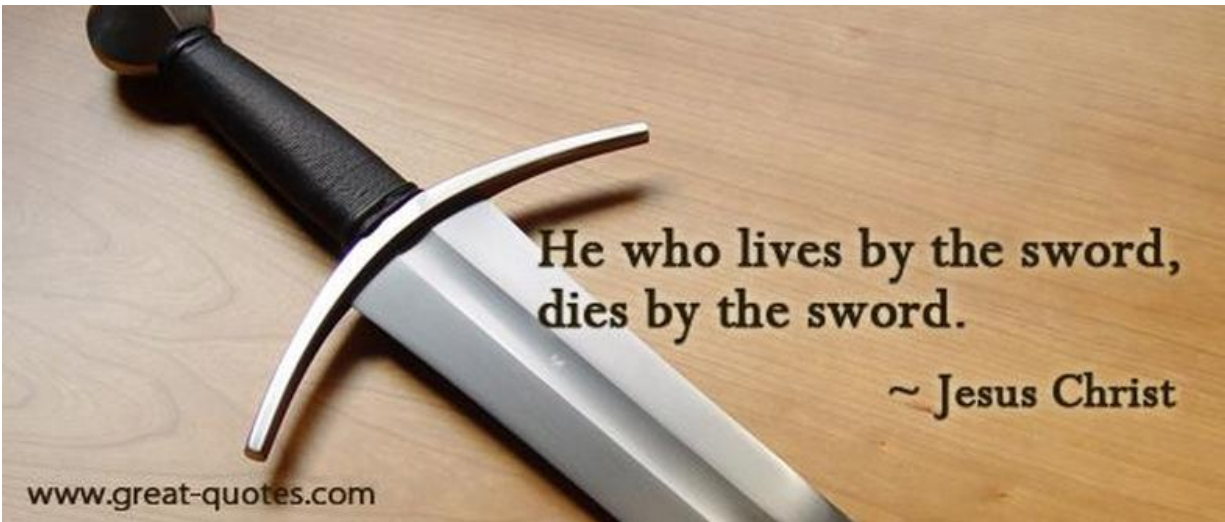

Then Jesus says to him, "Return your sword into its place; for all those having taken the sword, will perish by the sword.

King James Bible

Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

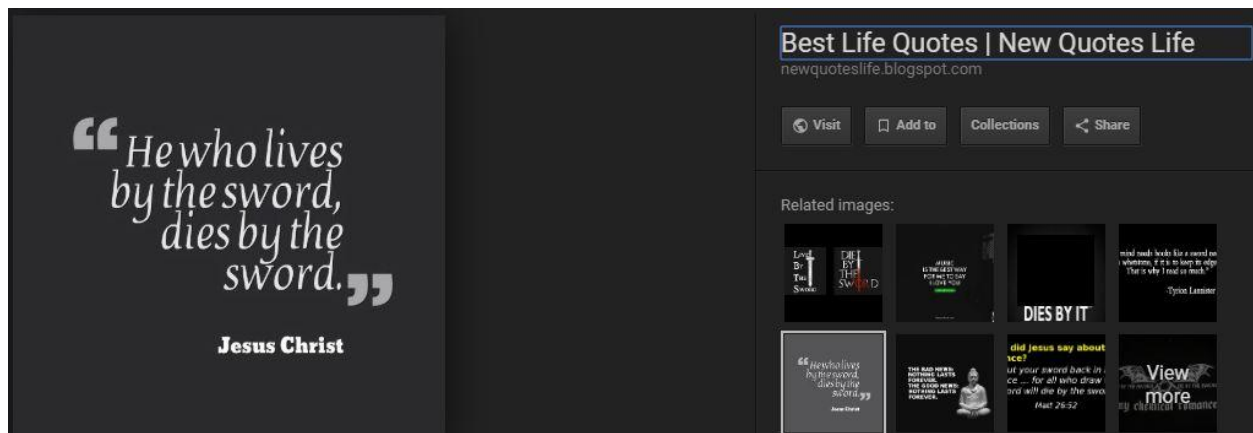

v.52b as it now reads: look at the newer translations from the NIV down and you see it says: for all who draw the sword, for those who use the sword, for all who take the sword, for all those having taken the sword.

Now let's see and hear what it used to be:

From great-quotes.com: He who lives by the sword, dies by the sword.

Not he who draws the sword or takes the sword or uses the sword – but he who lives by the sword.

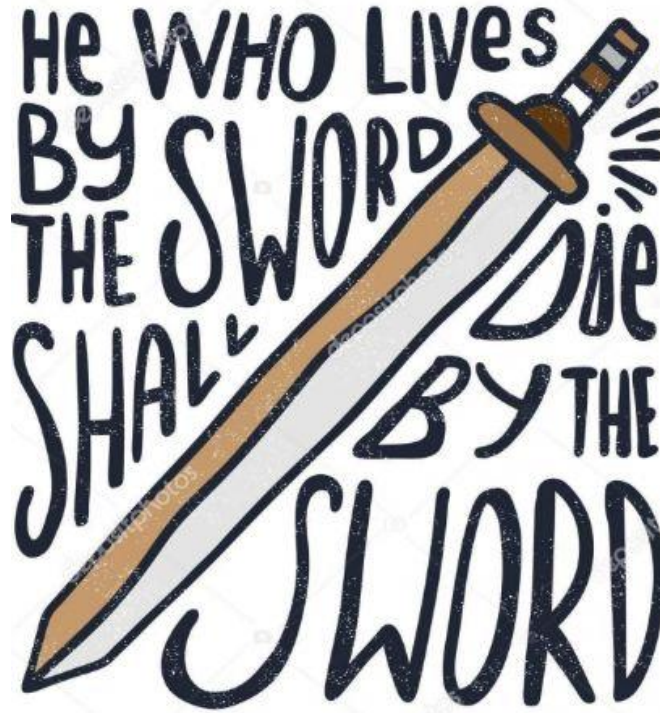

From newquoteslifeblogspot.com: He who lives by the sword, dies by the sword.

The screenshot shows a website page with a navigation bar at the top containing links for 'Home/About', 'All Phrases', 'Phrases by Topic', and 'Phrases by Bible Book'. Below the navigation bar is a purple banner that reads 'Discover the linguistic gems of the KJV in this best-selling book...' with a right-pointing arrow. To the left of the main content is a sidebar with the heading 'KJV Sayings' and the text 'Discover hundreds of well-known phrases, quotations and idioms from the King James Version of the Holy Bible.' Below this is a blue button that says 'Follow @KjVsayings'. The main content area features the phrase '“Live by the sword, die by the sword”' in a large, purple, serif font. Underneath the phrase, the text reads: 'Source: This phrase has its origins in Matthew 26:52 of the King James Version of the Bible'. Below that, it says: 'Meaning: expect to become a victim of whatever means you use to get what you want'. The background of the page is a light beige color with faint, repeating text from the Bible.

From: kjvsayings.com: Live by the sword, die by the sword. Source: This phrase has its origins in Matt.26:52 of the KJV of the Bible. Meaning: expect to become a victim of whatever means you use to get what you want.

Remember for so long the KJV was the most popular translation of the Bible and most things that were printed for sale used this translation. Today, none of the translations say “live by the sword, die by the sword.” None of them.

Matthew 26:52: "Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword".

From: Nairaland Forum Looks like someone posed a question there: What does he who lives by the sword die by the sword mean? That was back in 2019. Look at the pictures used there – Live by the sword and die by the sword. The typed out scripture there reads like this: Then said Jesus unto him, put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.”

I thought this was a good online search to bring out because the meme is showing the old way that it used to be. But the typed out scripture reads how it currently is in Scripture. They don't match up. So in this example, the typed out words have clearly been changed yet the meme stayed the same. I hope you are beginning to see this for what it is. Scripture is changing.

A meme from Whisper: Here's a piece of Christian scripture for you: Jesus said to Peter in the Garden of Getsemaneh (Gethsemane): Put down your sword, for verily, he who lives by his sword, shall die by it. (Theirs was not as close as the others but close enough you still see it was not the same as any translation we have now).

CLOSING

Please play this clip is from the tv series "Cheyenne", this episode is "The Empty Gun" from 1958.

God lined this one up so perfectly. I had finished the sermon and the very next night this came on. Sometimes even the scripture in the movies is being changed. It's so random as to what you can still find to prove out certain scriptures. And at this time, 1958, there were not any newer translations and yet we can see that it does not match the KJV any longer and there were not any revisions from 1958 until today of the KJV.

I hope this is helping you to see the changes and even for some of you that have read your Bibles to remember what it said.
