

MANDELA EFFECT SCRIPTURE CHANGES Pt.4: QUEST to ERASE the Bible, HOSEA 4:6, EASTER, MATT.24:36

Let's go back and take a look at the scripture passage that I brought out last week.

Matt.26:52 - Then said Jesus unto him (Peter), Put up again thy sword into his (its) place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

Last week I brought out what it used to say: "he who lives by the sword dies by the sword." No translation says that any longer. None. Thank you to all of you who were making comments on youtube about how we can fight and defend ourselves and our families. I wasn't understanding why you all were doing that at first. Until I remembered about how that verse reads now: take the sword, draw the sword, use the sword - perish by the sword. See what they have done there? They have supernaturally changed that verse, Jesus' words to now seem as though anyone using a sword at all, will in turn be killed by the sword.

Talking to Scott about this, this morning, he said, yeah it fits right in with them taking our weapons. A gun is a sword. Remember the coffee mug I showed you last week with the gun on it. Anything that is used as a weapon is considered a sword. So with their witchcraft, they have set that verse up to make it seem like Jesus frowned on us using weapons at all. The 501c3 government pastors and the luciferians and those not awake will teach this verse without missing a beat. They work for the side of the beast system and will encourage their congregations to do what it says here.

However, in Luke 22:36 Jesus told His disciples to go and buy a sword. He was no longer going to be walking with them on this earth and He knew they would be persecuted, some even to the death. We certainly can defend ourselves and our families when someone is trying to harm or kill us. So that verse was a good example of how the Mandela Effect completely changed the meaning of what was originally said there.

I want to clear up something real quick. When I speak of the changes to the KJ Bible, and I say that there has never been a revision to it, I am not speaking of the 1611, which was the very first KJ Bible. That is not the Bible that most ministers preach from, it is not readily available on the shelf at the local Christian book store. I do own one and do reference it from time to time in research.

The verses that were printed on items for sale in the local Christian book store were not taken from the 1611. The KJ Bible that I minister from is a newer revision. It is sometimes called the Revised Version and the work of translating it began in 1871. The New Testament was printed in 1881 and the Old Testament was printed in 1885. Since that time there have not been any changes to it except for the supernatural ones that I'm bringing out now and in the past Mandela Effect messages.

The Mandela Effect changes I'm speaking of are in regards to the Revised Version of the KJ Bible that was printed in the 1880's. The only other translation of the KJ Bible is the 1611 and most don't use it. And if you do look at it, many times it has been changed also.

Recommended Age: All Ages

In this movie, the hope for human survival is in Scripture. The antagonist—a character routinely compared to Paul pre-conversion—wants to wipe out all traces of the Bible throughout history. He uses a time-traveling device called a TPU. The protagonist, a teenager named Tom, is the key to saving Christian faith. In Tom's family, an old Bible is passed down from generation to generation. This familial preservation of Scripture is what will ultimately protect generations of Christians from persecution. In the movie, kind behavior, Scripture, and the salvation of Jesus Christ are celebrated. The only discrepancy in worldview comes with the issue of time travel. The antagonist in the movie seems to believe that he can wipe out Christianity by going back in time. This, of course, is a faulty view of God's providence and power. God would never allow Christianity as a whole to cease to exist. There is no obscene, profane, or foul language; no sexual content; no nudity; no alcohol or drunkenness; and no smoking or illegal drug use.

A Path in Time - Movieguide: In this movie, the hope for human survival is in Scripture. The antagonist – a character routinely compared to Paul pre-conversion—wants to wipe out all traces of the Bible throughout history. He uses a time-traveling device called a TPU. The protagonist, a teenager named Tom, is the key to saving Christian faith, in Tom's family, an old Bible is passed down from generation to generation. This familial preservation of Scripture is what will ultimately protect generations of Christians from persecution. In the movie, kind behavior, Scripture, and the salvation of Jesus Christ are celebrated. The only discrepancy in worldview comes with the issue of time travel. The antagonist in the movie seems to believe that he can wipe out Christianity by going back in time. This, of course, is a faulty view of God's providence and power. God would never allow Christianity as a whole to cease to exist.

Think it is just entertainment? They always put the truth in their movies. It is one of their ways of hiding the truth in plain sight because we have just thought it was entertainment. When they were experimenting with time travel in the Montauk Experiments, Preston said they wanted to go all the way back to the time of Christ. Why do you think they wanted to do that? If they could undo what Christ did for us, they would, but God isn't going to let them.

Some have said in the past, as a way to brush off the Mandela Effect, that if you believe in it, then you are causing it to happen. I had someone tell me that I am causing the changes to my Bible. She said, you believe what you have heard about different scriptures so when you look them up in your Bible, then they are changed in your Bible.

What a load of hog wash. That is straight up witchcraft. That is no different from the people who are making vision boards and then focusing their energy and using their consciousness to try to draw those things to themselves. That's witchcraft. That is no different than the people who don't want me to call children kids because they might turn into goats. Non-sense. As Christians, we don't believe in these superstitions and witchcraft so it holds no power over us. People using their energy and focusing their minds and consciousness to make something happen are drawing on the dark realm, satan and his kingdom will answer those that participate in their system of thought and worship.

The Mandela Effect is high level witchcraft being done corporately to the whole world. Not just someone's personal beliefs changing their own Bible. We would be pretty powerful people if we could just think things into existence, right? That line of thinking goes right along with speaking things into existence. Or the old "name it and claim" it false teachings. God holds that power, not us. I have found Mandela Effects in my Bible that I have not seen anyone bring to light. So that means I had no prior knowledge until I discovered it for myself through reading and study. So obviously I did not use my mind to change it because nothing was in my mind about it in the first place. The Mandela Effect is not happening based on thoughts.

Let's look at Hosea 4:6

Verse (Click for Chapter)

New International Version

my people are destroyed from lack of knowledge. "Because you have rejected knowledge, I also reject you as my priests; because you have ignored the law of your God, I also will ignore your children.

New Living Translation

My people are being destroyed because they don't know me. Since you priests refuse to know me, I refuse to recognize you as my priests. Since you have forgotten the laws of your God, I will forget to bless your children.

English Standard Version

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.

Berean Study Bible

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you as My priests. Since you have forgotten the law of your God, I will also forget your children.

King James Bible

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

Hosea 4:6 – let's read the KJV: My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to Me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

They were not teaching or obeying God's law any longer. The priests had the responsibility of not only keeping God's law, but teaching His people how to keep it as well. When God says that He will forget their children He is referring to Exodus 20:6 where He says He would bless their children because they have kept His commandments. That is the same concept as the covenant He made with King David where He tolerated evil kings on the throne of Israel for David's sake until such a time as Christ came and He is the last and remaining King on that throne. King David's seed line ended with a righteous King on that throne. Israel is not recognizing Jesus as the King on the throne of David, but they will. He will come and sit on this earth and rule and reign from Jerusalem for 1000 years after the tribulation.

Look at the newer translations: My people are destroyed or being destroyed right down the line. None of the translations are reading the way I learned that verse. This looks like a Mandela across all translations.

Let's look at some of the residual remains of the original KJV before the Mandela Effect.

My People Perish for the Lack of Knowledge

Study to Shew Thyself Approved unto God

Larry D. Thomas, Sr.

A book: My People Perish for the Lack of Knowledge by Larry D. Thomas, Sr. This man inserted the word “the” here. I do not recommend this book as you can see the satanic symbolism blatantly in our faces. Remember those in the secret societies, the brotherhood, speak through their symbols without saying a word. You can see the moon for the moon gods and goddesses or bull’s horns or baphomet’s horns. Remember how the Israelites bowed down to the golden calf of baal who is satan. Also the triangle right on the supposed Bible here. In the mystery religions, the triangles are always for sun worship, look at the pyramids. The picture on this book has sun rays on all of it. This is freemasonry and speaks of worship to the sun god who is satan.

"My People Perish for Lack of Knowledge" I was between a rock and a hard place and my life had just seemed to stand still. I was not sure of anything any longer in this world because nothing seemed to go right or work out. This made me wonder if I had missed my position and/or the calling of God in my life. Could I be on a different course than God had planned for me? Was I supposed to turn Left instead of Right at Albuquerque? This book is much like an "Owners Manuel" for understanding "How" to become Victorious, where we were given our "Power of Attorney" and how to walk in that Power every day of our

TRUTH IN SKILLED HANDS

Daily devotional from insidetheshrink blog: Friday, June 14, 2013 – Read me – My people perish from a lack of knowledge Hosea 4:6 They changed it up a little on the last part, instead of for lack of knowledge they put from a lack of knowledge but you can see it is basically the same.

From Empik.com – My people perish for lack of knowledge

Please understand that researching to find any remains that had not been scrubbed from off line is the only way to show you what the verse used to say.

Since none of the translations currently say “My people perish” any more, where do you think those who used that verse on their books or their teachings got it from? It is because that verse has been supernaturally changed.

Acts 12:4 - And when he (Herod) had apprehended him (Peter), he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

Easter is a Mandela Effect. For a time I thought it was there because Herod was educated by the Romans. But from what I can gather the word that was always there was Passover and now it has been changed to Easter. This is part of the problem of why people can't understand that Easter is a false goddess and not anything to do with Jesus. They don't study and they can't make the connection that the goddess Easter was worshipped by the pagans. It's not a turn off to so called Christians because they have no idea who Easter is. What a shame. And what a huge abomination in God's eyes.

New International Version

After arresting him, he put him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring him out for public trial after the Passover.

New Living Translation

Then he imprisoned him, placing him under the guard of four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring Peter out for public trial after the Passover.

English Standard Version

And when he had seized him, he put him in prison, delivering him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending after the Passover to bring him out to the people.

Berean Study Bible

He arrested him and put him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring him out to the people after the Passover.

Berean Literal Bible

whom also, having seized, he put in prison, having delivered him to four sets of four soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.

King James Bible

And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

Look at all the newer translations shown here and you will see they all say Passover. Are they better than the KJV? Are they more knowledgeable than the translators of the KJV? No. This is one of those Mandela Effects that has only hit the KJV and is trying to make it seem corrupted and untrustworthy, especially to those of us who know who Easter is. However, it doesn't phase most so called Christians because they readily accept easter and ask no questions and participate in all of it. Even if you tell them the truth, they have no conviction of the Holy Spirit to separate from the filth of it all.

Verse \(Click for Chapter\)

New International Version

"But about that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

New Living Translation

"However, no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen, not even the angels in heaven or the Son himself. Only the Father knows.

English Standard Version

"But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only.

Berean Study Bible

No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

Berean Literal Bible

But concerning that day and hour, no one knows, not even the angels of the heavens, nor the Son, except the Father only.

King James Bible

But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

Matt.24:36 – KJV – These are Jesus' words: But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but My Father only.

Now, the KJV does not state that Jesus does not know the day or the hour. The part that said "nor the Son of Man" has been taken out. The Son not knowing is still referenced in Mark 13:32 but that passage never read quite the same as this passage. Most people teach and quote from Matt.24:36 when speaking of the day and hour.

CLOSING

The Mandela Effect should shake you and draw you closer to Jesus Christ! It is a wake up call to Christians. It is prophecy being fulfilled and we can see it.

Amos 8:11 - Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:

In the dark ages when people were not allowed to have Bibles, there was a famine of God's Word. Another famine was between the Old and New Testaments, they say God did not speak to His people for around 400 years and it is because they were not truly serving Him. From Malachi until the time of John the Baptist, God did not speak through His prophets. That was a type of famine of God's Word.

The churches are mostly apostate today. They haven't been preaching God's true Word for a while now. Silent about the Holy Spirit, nothing on the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, nothing about the judgement of God, only that He is love, nothing about the Blood of Christ, nothing on deliverance and how to live an obedient life.

Now we see another way that this famine is being brought about, through witchcraft. God is aware and He is allowing it, after all He prophesied it, telling His servants ahead of time how it would be. He often times uses the enemy to bring about His prophecies.

I thank God for the Mandela Effect because it has caused me to dig deeper and research and study more to know the truth. It has given me a sense of urgency in my life with God to realize His prophecy is happening. To me, it is just one more sign that Jesus is coming soon!
