

MANDELA EFFECT SCRIPTURE CHANGES – Pt 6: SPELLING CHANGES, FALSE MEMORY SHILL

Update from Pastor Erustus: Pastor hear again the government is at it again on the church and people claiming Corona virus 4 wave has hit our 10 counties. Starting today they have put us on lockdown in the western part of Kenya about 10 counties for the next 30 days. No livestock open air markets, no traveling outside your county, Curfew now starts from 7pm to 4 am, strict measures put on crossing the border to Uganda. Sad enough no church meetings but bars and other eateries like hotels plus schools operating as usual. We feel this is just targeting the church. These people have no reverence for God and no heart for people sufferings. Fuel costs and commodity prices have been hiked. Kindly pray for us, we really need God to intervene.

Update from Pastor Dalbeer: They have been back on lockdown for what seems like a month or two. They have a curfew and are not allowed to move around. He did share with me this week that they were able to help feed 200 people. We praise God for that!

SPELLING and GRAMMAR

(The inconsistent spelling of biblical place names is a very pervasive problem. Maps that we would like to refer to in EHV articles often use a different spelling of a name than the spelling in the EHV. Do we redraw all the maps, alter all the translations, or do we educate readers to the issue with appropriate footnotes at the right spots in the text? We are inclined toward the third option, because there is no solution in sight on the variety of spelling of place and personal names in the Bible. We have a longer discussion of this spelling problem, for which there is no resolution in sight, in our introduction to the EHV and in our FAQ 17.)

I ran across this in research: (The inconsistent spelling of Biblical place names is a very pervasive problem. Maps that we would like to refer to in EHV (Evangelical Heritage Version) articles often use a different spelling of a name than the spelling in the EHV. Do we redraw all the maps, after all the translations, or do we educate readers to the issue with appropriate footnotes at the right spots in the text? We are inclined toward the third option, because there is no solution in sight on the variety of spelling of place and personal names in the Bible. We have a longer discussion of this spelling problem, for which there is no resolution in sight, in our introduction to the EHV and in our FAQ 17.)

We should all understand that our languages are evolving. They are changing over time. The English language has gone from Proto-English to Old English to Middle English to Early Modern English to Modern English. That is 5 changes already. Most of the Bibles we read today were written in Modern English and depending on the research you look at some say late modern English. We are supposed to be speaking late modern English now. As for the “thee’s” and “thou’s,” we have never talked like that. So in the mix of all of this, we also have the K Jamesy kind of lingo mixed in. We can’t just say about everything, “that’s not how we talk today.” We can’t just call everything that sounds different a Mandela Effect. I’m focusing on bringing out some of the really obvious Mandela Effect changes. We don’t want to be arguing about any of this either, it isn’t worth that and as Christians we should not be arguing.

I look at the 1611 sometimes and I have been reading the Geneva Bible written in 1560. The “thee’s” and “thou’s” were in those Bibles as well, 2 – 3 hundred years ago. Sometimes the Mandela Effects that I see in Scripture are just reverting back to an earlier English spelling of the word. I don’t really count those as a big deal but we still need to be aware of what is happening there too. If things revert back to an earlier English then the whole meaning of the word can change. An example of that is the word let, today it means allow. It used to mean prevent, stop or hinder. A change like that could totally change the meaning of a passage. That word today means the exact opposite of what it used to mean. Suffer is another one. It used to mean tolerate, like when Jesus said suffer the little children to come unto Me. We don’t talk like that today and now that word means experience or be subjected to (something bad or unpleasant). Along with different word choices through the translation process, and definitions changing over time, now the Mandela Effect is also causing the spelling of words to change in our Bibles.

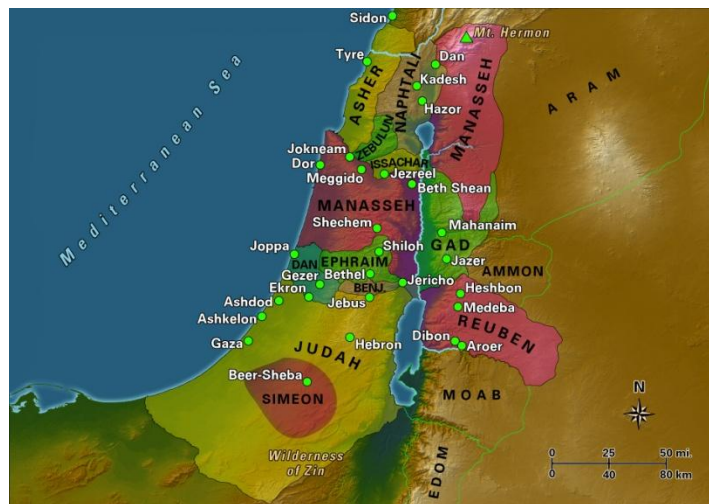

Right now in the KJ you can find Judah spelled at least 5 different ways: Judah, Judea, Judas (Matt.1:2), Juda (Luke 3:33), Judaea (John 4:47, 54)

In the KJ translation it used to be spelled Judah. This is causing confusion because when I see it spelled with ea or aea on the end I think what place is this, where is this?

The following passage is part of a prophecy that Jacob pronounced over Judah, his son.

Genesis 49:10 – The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto Him shall the gathering of the people be.

This is prophetically speaking of Jesus. The human side of Jesus' genealogy comes through the tribe of Judah. He will never leave the throne of David.

King David conquered the city of Jebus which was inhabited by the Jebusites. Then he renamed the city from Jebus to Jerusalem. You can read about that in 2 Sam. 5:5-9. On this map you can see at the top of the land of Judah, the word Jebus, that is Jerusalem. Jerusalem is contained within the land that was allotted to the tribe of Judah. So when you hear Judah in the Bible being spoken of as a place, we usually tend to think of Jerusalem.

So all those variations trace back to the Old Testament, to the tribe of Judah. Wikipedia says that J-u-d-a-h is the modern spelling. It is the spelling that I have always seen and was not used to seeing the “ea” or “aea” endings. “EA” is the name of a false god by the way.

Luke 23:5 - And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

New International Version

But they insisted, "He stirs up the people all over Judea by his teaching. He started in Galilee and has come all the way here."

New Living Translation

Then they became insistent. "But he is causing riots by his teaching wherever he goes—all over Judea, from Galilee to Jerusalem!"

English Standard Version

But they were urgent, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee even to this place."

Berean Study Bible

But they kept insisting, "He stirs up the people all over Judea with His teaching. He began in Galilee and has come all the way here."

Berean Literal Bible

But they kept insisting, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all of Judea, and He has begun from Galilee even to here."

King James Bible

And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

Only the KJ translation says Jewry. What on earth is that? Crazy. The newer translations have the spelling Judea for Judah.

2 Samuel 5:7 – Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: the same is the city of David.

What Is the Meaning of Zion in the Bible?

The ancient Hebrew word Tsiyon (Zion) is "a Canaanite hill fortress in Jerusalem captured by David and called in the Bible 'City of David.'" Zion can refer to one of three places: the hill where the most ancient areas of Jerusalem stood; the city of Jerusalem itself; or the dwelling place of God.

What is the meaning of Zion in the Bible? The ancient Hebrew word Zion is “a Canaanite hill fortress in Jerusalem captured by David and called in the Bible ‘City of David.’” Zion can refer to one of three places: the hill where the most ancient areas of Jerusalem stood; the city of Jerusalem itself; or the dwelling place of God.

The government, the kingdom, the mountain of God are considered to be Zion or Mount Zion. This is the place where God has placed His name.

Romans 9:33 - As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

This passage is quoting from Isaiah.

New International Version

As it is written: "See, I lay in Zion a stone that causes people to stumble and a rock that makes them fall, and the one who believes in him will never be put to shame."

New Living Translation

God warned them of this in the Scriptures when he said, "I am placing a stone in Jerusalem that makes people stumble, a rock that makes them fall. But anyone who trusts in him will never be disgraced."

English Standard Version

as it is written, "Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame."

Berean Study Bible

as it is written: "See, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense; and the one who believes in Him will never be put to shame."

Berean Literal Bible

as it has been written: "Behold, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense; and the one believing on Him will never be put to shame."

King James Bible

As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

Notice here that it is spelled Sion now in the KJ translation. But all of these newer translations say Zion except the New Living Translation and it says Jerusalem. Jerusalem is good enough as well because that is where Zion is located.

Lev.25:10 - And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

New International Version

Consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you; each of you is to return to your family property and to your own clan.

New Living Translation

Set this year apart as holy, a time to proclaim freedom throughout the land for all who live there. It will be a jubilee year for you, when each of you may return to the land that belonged to your ancestors and return to your own clan.

English Standard Version

And you shall consecrate the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you, when each of you shall return to his property and each of you shall return to his clan.

Berean Study Bible

So you are to consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty in the land for all its inhabitants. It shall be your Jubilee, when each of you is to return to his property and to his clan.

King James Bible

And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

When you look at the newer translations you can see that jubilee was supposed to have two e's on the end. J-u-b-i-l-e seems like it would be pronounced ju-bile.

Hebrews 4:7 - Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

New International Version

God again set a certain day, calling it "Today." This he did when a long time later he spoke through David, as in the passage already quoted: "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts."

New Living Translation

So God set another time for entering his rest, and that time is today. God announced this through David much later in the words already quoted: "Today when you hear his voice, don't harden your hearts."

English Standard Version

again he appoints a certain day, "Today," saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts."

Berean Study Bible

God again designated a certain day as "Today," when a long time later He spoke through David as was just stated: "Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts."

Berean Literal Bible

again He appoints a certain day as "Today," saying through David after so long a time, just as it has been said, "Today, if you shall hear His voice, do not harden your hearts."

King James Bible

Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Here you can see the KJ Bible has separated the word today into two words. But all of the newer translations have this word written correctly as one word. These are not typos or translational errors, the revised version was written in early modern English. This is a Mandela Effect on the KJ translation only.

Hebrews 13:8 - Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

The word "today" is separated and written as to and day. The word forever is written the same way, separated into for and a second word, ever. It didn't used to read like that.

New International Version

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

New Living Translation

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

English Standard Version

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Berean Study Bible

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Berean Literal Bible

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today, and to the ages.

King James Bible

Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

New King James Version

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

New American Standard Bible

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, and forever.

Look at the newer translations, those words, today and forever are written correctly there. This is a hit against the KJ translation.

Deut.17:1 - Thou shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock, or sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evilfavouredness: for that is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

New International Version

Do not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep that has any defect or flaw in it, for that would be detestable to him.

New Living Translation

"Never sacrifice sick or defective cattle, sheep, or goats to the LORD your God, for he detests such gifts.

English Standard Version

"You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep in which is a blemish, any defect whatever, for that is an abomination to the LORD your God.

Berean Study Bible

You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep with any defect or serious flaw, for that is detestable to the LORD your God.

King James Bible

Thou shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock, or sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evilfavouredness: for that is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

The word evilfavouredness is speaking of a defect, blemish or flaw. Just looks like a crazy word thrown in there to me.

Now there are words like dwellingplace, restingplace, stumblingblocks – all one word.

The spelling and grammar errors are so numerous now and there's no way I can cover them all. Let's switch gears now.

FALSIFIED MEMORY and FABRICATED MEMORY

This is from a shill who claims he used to be part of the department of defense.

TO ALL TARGETED INDIVIDUALS:

There is no such thing as the 'Mandela Effect'. It does not exist. It never existed.

A 'FALSIFIED MEMORY' is a psychological phenomenon where a person recalls an event or topic which never happened. A 'FABRICATED MEMORY' is a psychological phenomenon where a person recalls an event or topic that happened differently than the way it actually occurred. ((Seems to me like they have those two definitions switched around.))

The 'Mandela Effect' is simply a psychological phenomenon, using models of deception and manipulation, to manipulate the daily motives and emotional perceptions of an individual, population or even entire segments of society - at a time - using fabricated and falsified memories which either never existed to begin with or which existed differently than how the victim recalls.

So the 'Mandela Effect' never once existed to begin with and only comes into being, once the fabrication or falsification, such as events, topics, objects, images, symbols, text, etc., they are using, captures the attention (Active Memory) of the those they are targeting. Then it becomes the 'Mandela Effect'. If it fails to capture the victims attention, no matter how falsified or fabricated the topic, event, etc., may be, it does not exist! It is entirely subjective. ((I do agree that a lot of the Mandela Effects are subjective based on what people remember. I have pointed out already that we don't all pay attention to the same things and our brains work differently. Something that catches my attention may be nothing to you or of no concern to you. However, I have been able to find residual evidence to back up many of the scripture changes.))

(DRUM ROLL PLEASE!) The CIA/DOD Contractors use the 'Mandela Effect' to generate falsified and fabricated memory references from people which never existed to begin with and only come into existence once they become part of the victims memory and thought process.

It is simply a matrix of models of deception and manipulation designed to reshape societal thoughts and behavior by reshaping memories.

The CIA/DOD Contractors are using the incorporation of disinformation (lies) and misinformation (half-truths), and even misattribution, to force those who are targeted to become super-suggestable by activation and manipulation of their associated memories: RESIDUAL MEMORY!

Please understand and tell people who are targeted individuals that the 'Mandela Effect' is nothing more than a fabricated and falsified matrix of mass mind control models of deception and manipulation to force a population, individual or even entire segments of a society, to become dependent upon fabricated and falsified memories which never existed to begin with. ((Seems they are working awfully hard to convince us that it doesn't exist. But plainly it is all over our Bibles.))

HERE IS ANOTHER E-MAIL WHERE THE SAME INDIVIDUAL IS TRYING TO PUSH EVERYONE TO LISTEN TO MUSIC - Remember I have already exposed ALL Christian contemporary music to be satanic and that goes for Country, Rock, Pop, Rap and any other main stream music you get a hold of. I think this guy is just being used by them to keep people confused and believing the lies. I think he's a shill. This is just like all the hypnotic sleep music and music that produces altered states. All music controlled and produced by radio stations and record companies has demonic attachments and subliminal programming encoded in and laid down on the tracks that you cannot even consciously hear. That is what this message is all about, deception.

REMOTE NEURAL ATTACKS OF PREVIOUS MEMORY REFERENCES OF ORGANIZED STALKERS IN ECUADOR WITH SIMULTANEOUS MOTIVATIONAL IMPULSES OF BURNING WHITE HOT RAGE IN A LOOPING PATTERN TO MINIMIZE THE COGNITIVE EFFECT OF CHRISTIAN CONTENT AND TO STOP CHRISTIAN MUSIC BREAKING BRAIN ENTRAINMENT WITH RNM SUPERCOMPUTER.

To DISRUPT MY CONTINUITY OF THOUGHT and to ERASE SHORT TERM ACTIVE MEMORY.

If the RNM Supercomputer does not stop or minimize the cognitive effect caused by the external interference created by the Christian Music that Pleasing Christian Music will PERMANENTLY ALTER MY BRAIN WAVE SIGNATURE rendering decades of training research and development using me as a guinea pig absolutely worthless.

Remember in this e-mail that he sent to a list of many contacts and some of them are big names, he sent a link to a song which I did not listen to.

Imagine the irony? A free song on the radio can permanently defeat the CIA's Most Sophisticated Trillion Dollar Weapons System on Earth. **This guy shows he is a total shill by acting so aware of the CIA & DOD but yet does not even know that the radio stations are controlled and sold out to the luciferians as well. I don't buy it at all. And he must have sent some song to listen to but I did not fall for it.**

He goes on: it must be Christian Music to DEPATTERN the Satanic Ritual Abuse and pleasing and dogmatic in nature to BREAK BRAIN ENTRAINMENT while simultaneously of sufficiently high speed in beat count that it can overpower the visual and verbal entrainments of the RNM System. It cannot therefore be old time gospel, folk music, etc. **Wow! How obvious can you get? It cannot be old time gospel. Because it is cleaner and purer.**

Contemporary Christian Music will permanently alter the victims brain wave signature in a matter of as few as 90-180 days. CIA/DIA Contractors must stop it at all costs even if they must kill or incapacitate the victim.

THIS SONG WILL BREAK BRAIN ENTRAINMENT AND DEPATTERN THE SRA OF CIA MIND CONTROL TECHNOLOGIES BUT ONLY IF IT IS COMPATIBLE WITH THE VICTIMS BELIEF SYSTEM. **What utter non-sense. If anything, he only sent a song that would help to program the minds of those who listened to it and believed his non-sense.**

CLOSING

*Please play this Fox News clip about the Mandela Effect. This is a psyop piece run by the news to make everyone who sees and understands the Mandela Effect out to be crazy. They bring out their fake dr. to explain that groups of people are having false memories. Then they bring out a medium and hypnotherapist (so a witch) to explain what it is. ((What a joke.)) He says it could be explained by past lives, or that our souls split into many pieces and we are experiencing past lives at the same time.* (about 6.5 min's)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vsTmv6sHQpE>

So this was the media trying to make everyone that sees and understands the Mandela Effect out to be crazy. That is how you do propaganda, they referred to witches to explain the whole thing. They had a fake dr. trying to explain away groups of people having fake memories. (Remember Fauci has been a fake dr. that they have used extensively for the covid project. I heard someone say they vetted him out and they could not even find where he had ever treated a single patient ever. He's a paid for government dr. just like the one on this clip.) Next they brought out a medium and hypnotherapist to explain what it is. That's a witch straight out! He said it could be explained by past lives, or that our souls split into many pieces and we are experiencing past lives at the same time. Did you see the huge sun behind him initially? Yes, he worships the sun god, satan. He is speaking to the brotherhood as one of them.

Remember Fiona Broom was the tool they used to make us aware of the Mandela Effect. Knowing that she is a witch tells us that this is from the luciferians as I brought out in parts 1 and 2 of this series already. Then they really try to mock us when they have the lady tape the same segment in different color dresses and play them at the same time.

Notice they did not mention any Scripture changes. They don't want to open that can of worms. I have seen too many supernatural changes to just dismiss them all. And even I remember that old song by "Queen" and it ended with "of the world." Before I was a serious Christian, I watched that old satanic movie Star Wars and he said "Luke, I am your father." There's my two cents on that.

So many things have changed and people are remembering differently. Some have better memories than others. Some remember what mattered or stood out to them. And some people are so young to some of the changes that they have only ever known the so called newer version of a song, or brand or Scripture verse.
