

MANDELA EFFECT SCRIPTURE CHANGES – Pt.11: 1 COR.13:13, MALACHI 4:2

I want to go back to something I touched on last week. I don't think I drove it home very well. We talked about Billy Graham being a freemason and how they really used him to push the false doctrine of "once saved always saved." He taught that all of your sins were forgiven at the cross. Jesus did die for all sin on the cross but the Bible teaches us that we continually ask for forgiveness and repent throughout our Christian lives. We will wrestle against sin as long as we are in these flesh bodies.

When you teach "once saved always saved," you give the person a false sense of security. You make them comfortable, and they feel that they cannot do anything to lose their salvation and so you actually have a lot of people who go on and live a sinful life believing they are saved and that any sin they will ever do has already been dealt with.

When you truly ask forgiveness you are forgiven up to that point and then when you sin some more you must ask again and all along the way you must repent which means stop the sin. And you must live an obedient life serving the Lord doing what He has told us to do in His Word and using your gifts and talents to bring Him glory.

When you are baptized into the Holy Spirit, He will help you to live a righteous life. As a true Christian you should not be living in continual sin. You may mess up here and there and you should feel conviction about it and ask forgiveness, repent, stop doing it and move on. Those that are living in continual sin have not been baptized into the Holy Spirit. If your life never changed since you got saved, then you are not saved. No change means no salvation. You need Jesus and you need His Spirit. Real Christians might sin sometimes but they do not live in continual sin because they have the Spirit of God living in them helping them to stop the sinning and to hate sin the way God does.

1 Cor.13:13 - And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

New International Version

And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

New Living Translation

Three things will last forever—faith, hope, and love—and the greatest of these is love.

English Standard Version

So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Berean Study Bible

And now these three remain: faith, hope, and love; but the greatest of these is love.

Berean Literal Bible

But now these three things abide: faith, hope, love; but the greatest of these is love.

King James Bible

And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

Charity? Look at the other translations and you will see they all say that love is the greatest. Chapter 13 in 1 Corinthians is known as “The Love Chapter.” I was floored when I saw that love has been completely removed from the KJ translation. I have shared before that I had memorized this chapter as a teenager in Missionettes. We were all reading and memorizing scripture from the KJ translation. Everywhere you see the word charity in that chapter, it should say love. Charity and love are not the same things.

Let’s look at some of the remaining online evidence. The KJ begins with “and now abideth.” The New King James is the only other translation that begins with “And now abide.” I removed the evidence that had the word abide in it so that there would be no question that what I found was from the KJ translation. Sometimes we drop off the “e-t-h” to make it more like we talk. So I stuck to the ones that kept the “e-t-h” in so you would know it was the KJ translation that we were looking at and not the New KJ.

Let's take a look at Malachi 4:2.

Malachi 4:2 - But unto you that fear My name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in His wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

I remember teaching Malachi 4:2 and going on with it saying S-u-n there. I knew this was about Jesus. It puzzled me why with all of the sun worship or worship of baal that it would actually refer to Jesus with a title of the sun. So I just thought, ok, well He is shaming those that have been worshipping the sun god who is satan. He is showing that He is the One Who is worthy of all worship.

Psalm 84:11 - For the LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly.

We see here that God is comparing Himself to things we can relate to. The sun brings warmth, helps living things to be healthy and grow and gives light and a shield is representative of His protection. God created all things through Christ and we do not worship the creation, but we are to worship the Creator Himself (Romans 1:25).

New International Version

But for you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its rays. And you will go out and frolic like well-fed calves.

New Living Translation

"But for you who fear my name, the Sun of Righteousness will rise with healing in his wings. And you will go free, leaping with joy like calves let out to pasture.

English Standard Version

But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness shall rise with healing in its wings. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall.

Berean Study Bible

"But for you who fear My name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings, and you will go out and leap like calves from the stall.

King James Bible

But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

This is a Mandela Effect where all translations have been changed. Look at the NIV, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its rays. Just off of Biblehub there are two other translations that say with healing in "its rays." That doesn't seem to be about a person and the Berean Study Bible and the English Standard Version both say with healing in its wings. And there are 11 other translations that say with healing in "its rays." Some of the other translations say in his wings but none of them say S-O-N of Righteousness.

The ancient Egyptian winged sun disk symbol. This is a symbol of the sun god in Egypt. The one who has been worshipped as the supernatural sun god is satan. The spreading of the wings symbolized power and rule as well as divinity. Notice the snakes are there, always symbols of satan.

Even the Bible commentators are saying things like the healing that is referenced as coming from His wings are the rays of the sun.

Ellicott's Commentary for English Readers

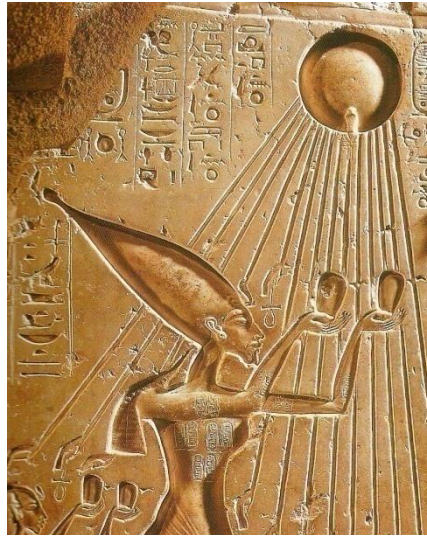

(2) As the rising sun diffuses light and heat, so that all that is healthy in nature revives and lifts up its head, while plants that have no depth of root are scorched up and wither away, so the advent of the reign of righteousness, which will reward the good and the wicked, each according to his deserts, will dissipate all darkness of doubt, and heal all the wounds which the apparent injustice of the conduct of affairs has inflicted on the hearts of the righteous.

Wings.—Figurative for rays. The fathers and early commentators have understood Christ by the Sun of Righteousness, and they are so far right that it is the period of His advent that is referred to; but there can be no personal reference to Him in the expression, since "sun" is feminine in Hebrew; and the literal rendering of the word translated "in his wings" is "in her wings."

From Ellicott's Commentary for English Readers – look at the second paragraph: Wings – figurative for rays. The fathers and early commentators have understood Christ by the Sun, S-U-N of Righteousness, and they are so far right that it is the period of His advent that is referred to; but there can be no personal reference to Him in the expression, since "sun" is feminine in Hebrew; and the literal rendering of the word translated "in his wings" is "in her wings."

They are speaking of the rays of the sun but then in the end they say that it cannot even be about Christ because sun is feminine. Remember with the luciferians, there is always duality. Female and male in one, black and white, as above so below etc.

It is interesting that they say the fathers, that would be the early church fathers they speak of here, and early commentators are the ones who understood Christ by s-u-n. And then they do at least come around and say it actually cannot truly reference Him at all.

See the sun with it's rays coming down and at the end of the rays they have drawn hands with Egyptian ankhs which are symbols of the blessing of life from the sun god. Where you see the circle for the sun there is a bird there which is Horus / Tammuz, the Egyptian sun god or it is a snake which is the same difference. It is receiving drink offerings from Akhenaton. Remember the Pharaoh's said they were the embodiment of the main god they worshipped. To me that seems like a willing vessel for satan to enter into and empower just like he did with Judas.

It seems like they are mixing their sun gods into this passage. Remember satan is the sun god, baal whom God hates and forbid His people to worship. He is the one being worshipped at Christmas, not Jesus.

From: images.knowing-jesus.com - The artwork or meme here is reading correctly but notice the description under the meme is not correct, it says s-u-n.

The lyrics on the screen were written correctly with S-O-N. This artist is lifted up on the world stage so you have to understand that he and his music are compromised. I wanted you to see that the verse did not change in this song.

Thank you so much Mrs. Ann. She shared this with me a few years back. She bought this in 2018, it is a box of Bible promises – vintage evangelical set, God’s promises for you. It just so happens that the card they chose to use to advertise this item is Malachi 4:2. It says healing, it is a card to give encouragement and a promise about the Lord’s healing. The verse reads correctly the way it used to be with S-O-N.

Rev.21:23 - And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

Rev.22:5 - And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

This is a promise to us about the New Jerusalem and of God blessing us, something to look forward to.

CLOSING

Old recordings of preached messages are being changed, pictures are changing, teachings are changing, sometimes all translations are changed across the board. I remember hearing Gail Riplinger reference 1 Corinthians chapter 13 and she said charity. I thought to myself, as long as she has read and studied the Bible and all the various translations surely she knows it used to say love. She said charity and did not miss a beat. However, now I wonder if the audio was changed because that is happening as well. The audio Bibles are changing, words in tv shows and in movies are changing, song lyrics are changing and this goes back to things that were recorded a long time ago. It is hard for us to comprehend how this can be, but it is supernatural. Keep reading and studying God's Word while you still can.

I want to share what Pastor Erustus said about the tampering and changes and the Mandela Effects against the Bible: All this is satan's scheme to lie and deceive people not to know the truth. As believers there is need to learn how to walk in the Spirit always in order to know the true Word of God so that we may stand against all the wiles of the devil. Jesus said when the Holy Spirit comes, He will teach us all the truth. Thus we need to rely on the Holy Spirit in order to remain in truth since the original Bible scripts have been altered from the original meaning.

I will leave you with this: I came to the Lord reading an Open Bible, New Living Translation and it did not hinder my walk and my getting close with the Lord. The main thing is to be baptized into the Holy Spirit because He is our Teacher. If something is really off, He will show you as you grow in Him. He will not leave us deceived. Real ministers, pastors and teachers that have been called and ordained by God are a compliment to the Holy Spirit to help lead and guide you in your Christian life. Be careful and be led by the Holy Spirit, many of you have had no shame in asking me to listen to false teachers and tell you if they are good or not. If you don't know, then you shouldn't be listening to them. There are many who are standing in the pulpits or teaching that were never called to do so.
