

JESUITS and the PRE-TRIBULATION RAPTURE – Pt 5: ANTICHRIST PAPACY STIGMA, JEWISH ANTICHRIST, MACDONALD

"Though Darby was not among those attending the [earlier] Albury meetings, he later claimed as his own many of the conclusions reached at Albury Park. Certainly, by the time the Albury meetings were concluded, Irving had well perfected the new Ben-Ezra ideas when he took it to the 1833 Powerscourt conference – the loose ends were tied together ... We should mention that Darby answered the question, 'Is there a prospect of a revival of Apostolic churches before the coming of Christ?' ... Powerscourt saw the teaching of a pretribulation rapture introduced. It developed into its full bloom at these meetings ... Though others e.g. Irving offered a secret rapture idea, its origin has since been attributed to Darby by most scholars."<sup>[35]</sup>

It is at the Albury Conferences in 1830, shortly before the Powerscourt Conferences, where speaking in tongues is first recorded as taking place, which forms another aspect of Dispensationalist theology.

"Irving, was also the first to have tongues in his congregation ... Irving permitted the "miraculous gifts" at his Presbyterian Church, causing the elders to excommunicate him and lock him out. He then formed his Catholic Apostolic Church down the street in 1831."<sup>[36]</sup>

Darby strenuously resisted speaking in tongues, and regarded them as "devilish":

"Though Darby was not among those attending the (earlier) Albury meetings, he later claimed as his own many of the conclusions reached at Albury Park. Certainly, by the time the Albury meetings were concluded, Irving had well perfected the new Ben-Ezra / Lacunza ideas when he took it to the 1833 Powerscourt conference – the loose ends were tied together...We should mention that Darby answered the question, 'Is there a prospect of a revival of Apostolic churches before the coming of Christ?'...Powerscourt saw the teaching of a pretribulation rapture introduced. It developed into its full bloom at these meetings...Though others e.g. Irving offered a secret rapture idea, its origin has since been attributed to Darby by most scholars."

I don't attribute it to him. I attribute it to Paul who wrote about it under inspiration of the Holy Spirit. And remember the Roman Catholic Church had squashed all teachings and they had died off with those that taught them. Then they held the monopoly on God's Word until it finally began to get out to the people. It has taken a while it seems for real teachers and ministers of God to begin to see the pre-trib rapture for themselves and speak out on it. The witches cannot remain silent forever because God's true servants will expose them and the truth will get out. So one of their tactics is just to go ahead and embrace the truth but pervert it and smut it up in some way.

It is at the Albury Conferences in 1830, shortly before the Powerscourt Conferences, where speaking in tongues is first recorded as taking place, which forms another aspect of Dispensationalist theology.

"Irving, was also the first to have tongues in his congregation...Irving permitted the "miraculous gifts" at his Presbyterian Church, causing the elders to excommunicate him and lock him out. He then formed his Catholic Apostolic Church down the street in 1831."

Darby strenuously resisted speaking in tongues, and regarded them as "devilish."

The consensus is that if the tongues were from the devil then everything taught by Irving was from the devil including the pre-trib rapture. Notice that because Irving allowed the gifts of the Holy Spirit to operate in his church, they kicked him out.

2 Tim.3:5 - Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

There are many that profess to be Christians but want no part of the Holy Spirit. They are not Christian at all and have no power from God moving in and through their lives. There are many churches that fake the gifts of the Holy Spirit, that put on shows and even those that try to teach the gifts into a person. All of that is out of order. But I assure you the Holy Spirit is real, and every single gift mentioned in Scripture is still available to us today. He is the One Who decides what gift to give to whom.

Back to Irving and Darby: they cannot even agree among themselves on their mixing of truth with lies. Speaking in tongues is clearly in Scripture and I have already taught on that one. And we don't know if they were speaking Godly tongues or not because there are satanic tongues as well. We weren't there to judge these things. There is a gift of speaking in tongues by the Holy Spirit.

1970. Thus the transmission of ideas from Irenaeus and Hippolytus to Lacunza, Irving, Darby and Scofield were largely responsible for removing the stigma of Antichrist which the Reformers had applied to the Papacy. As Need states:

"And so, through ideas gleaned from Irving by the writings of Lacunza, and ... and then subsequently claimed by Darby as his own discovery, the war of the millenarians against the Papacy was defused. For if a personal Antichrist must come after a secret rapture, how could the present papacy be the Antichrist, as historically claimed by the Protestants?"<sup>[37]</sup>

Continuing with the research: Thus the transmission of ideas from Irenaeus and Hippolytus to Lacunza, Irving, Darby and Scofield were largely responsible for removing the stigma of Antichrist which the Reformers had applied to the Papacy. As Need states: "And so, through ideas gleaned from Irving by the writings of Lacunza, and...and then subsequently claimed by Darby as his own discovery, the war of the millenarians against the Papacy was defused. For if a personal Antichrist must come after a secret rapture, how could the present papacy be the antichrist, as historically claimed by the Protestants?"

Lacunza's The Coming of the Messiah in Majesty and Glory is also particularly valuable as it presents two Jesuit views which contributed to the counter-Reformation, with Ribera's view being generally accepted by most Protestant churches today – the only Protestant church which still officially adheres to the Historicist mode of prophetic interpretation is the Seventh Day Adventist church.

Lacunza's The Coming of the Messiah in Majesty and Glory is also particularly valuable as it presents two Jesuit views which contributed to the counter-Reformation, with Ribera's view (which is futurism meaning the book of Revelation is in the future still) being generally accepted by most Protestant churches today – the only Protestant church which still officially adheres to the Historicist mode of prophetic interpretation is the Seventh Day Adventist church. I included this to give you an idea of how they float different teachings out. Then some churches stand on this and some on that and they just continue to get new teachings and stances and on and on it goes.

Although this view – that the Antichrist was an individual who would be a Jew – was first formed by fellow Jesuit Francisco Ribera in the latter part of the sixteenth century, this was a far from universal view on the identity of the Antichrist, as until this time it had been completely rejected by Protestants.

Although this view – that the antichrist was an individual who would be a Jew – was first formed by fellow Jesuit Francisco Ribera in the latter part of the sixteenth century, this was a far from universal view on the identity of the antichrist, as until this time it had been completely rejected by Protestants. Just to note, Francisco Ribera is not Alberto Rivera who was another Jesuit from our time. So before the 19th century, protestants were not looking for a 1-man Jewish anti-christ. I have heard that teaching floated out there by all the telewitches / false teachers on tv. That the antichrist is going to be a Jew because the Jews will not accept anyone that isn't a Jew. The truth is that the antichrist is going to be someone that is loved and accepted by the whole world whether that is a Jew or not.

Another piece of information on Ribera, a Jesuit, while he had taken care to describe the papacy of his own time as the 'mother of piety, pillar of the Catholic faith and witness of sanctity,' he did admit that, it had in the past been the Whore of Babylon and he predicted that it would apostatize at the end of time. He is a Jesuit and they even talk bad about themselves openly apparently. That church has been apostate already it seems to me since the beginning. Way back to the time of Constantine.

Chapter 3 Vol.1 Pg. 51 Lacunza said the Jews could not fathom that Jesus was the God of the Old Testament. He says that the Jews taught what one of them said and for no better reason than “he said it.” They got off track like this. That's the truth, they are into full blown witchcraft now. Remember Jesus called them a brood of vipers (Matt.12:34)

Looking back in history, they thought the papacy was the antichrist. They wrote in the Geneva Bible marginal notes about the revelation given about the mark of the beast and his number being 666, that 666 years after that revelation was given to John, that the pope or antichrist began to be manifest in the world.

For sure the Roman Catholic Church and all it stands for is pure wickedness. The great persecution that it leveled against true Christians caused the protestants to see it as the antichrist. So at that time they viewed the antichrist as a system of succeeding popes. And if that were true then what we believe about the tribulation being 7 years could not be true. If they were the antichrist then the tribulation has been going on for a long time by now. They are wicked to the core that's for sure. They are not out of the running for one or both positions of: antichrist and the false prophet. Remember satan always grooms someone up to be the antichrist and the false prophet because he does not know the day or the hour when Jesus will come for His bride. So satan will scramble into action after that event takes place.

MARGARET MACDONALD'S VISION

Many people say that this young woman had a vision about the rapture and that is where the whole teaching came from.

According to Wikipedia, around 1826 to 1829 there were preachers in Scotland where Margaret lived that said the world's problems could only be addressed through an outbreak of supernatural gifts from the Holy Spirit. Supposedly around this time healings began to happen and some of the people at these meetings began to speak in tongues. Some believed the tongues were real and some believed they were demonic. Edward Irving believed the displays happening there were real and John Nelson Darby believed they were demonic.

There have been a couple of attempts to locate a "source" for Darby's concept of the rapture – the belief that a core of Christian believers who have died will be raised from the dead, and believers who are still alive and remain shall be "caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air" (1 Thess 4:17) in conjunction with the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. Some of these attempts imply that Darby's concepts originated from a "false" source. Samuel Prideaux Tregelles alleged that The concept was taken from one of the charismatic utterances in Edward Irving's church. Since Tregelles regarded the utterances as "pretending to be from God," his implication is that Darby's rapture is from a demonic source. Dave MacPherson built upon Tregelles's accusation, and argued<sup>[5][6]</sup> that the source for Darby's rapture was from an Margaret MacDonald's 1830 vision of the end times.<sup>[7][8]</sup>

There have been a couple of attempts to locate a "source" for Darby's concept of the rapture – the belief that a core of Christian believers who have died will be raised from the dead, and believers who are still alive and remain shall be "caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air" (1 Thess.4:17) in conjunction with the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. Some of these attempts imply that Darby's concepts originated from a "false" source. Samuel Prideaux Tregelles alleged that The concept was taken from one of the charismatic utterances in Edward Irving's church. Since Tregelles regarded the utterances as "pretending to be from God," his implication is that Darby's rapture is from a demonic source. Dave MacPherson built upon Tregelles's accusation, and argued that the source for Darby's rapture was from a Margaret MacDonald's 1830 vision of the end times.

To make a correction to what they believe the rapture is, it is not called the second coming in Scripture. However, it will be the next coming of Christ where He only comes in the air, in the clouds, and does not step foot on this earth but receives His saints up to Himself in the sky. The dead in Christ, including the Old Testament saints will rise first and then those who are alive and remaining will be caught up together with them. This is the bride of Christ. If you have a problem believing Jesus can appear in the air and not step foot on this earth and carry off this event, then you have a problem believing in His supernaturalness.

The Second Coming is laid out in Scripture and that is when He comes back with His saints and He is riding His white horse. That is when He fights the battle of Armegeddon and pours His judgement out.

Supposed theologians tried to say that Darby got his pre-trib idea from MacDonald's vision but he had already written about it some three years prior.

Next week we are going to read MacDonald's vision and discuss it briefly.

CLOSING

After the rapture satan is really going to crank things up. He's already burning down cities, boosting up the number of earthquakes, driving hurricanes where he wants them to go etc. He is the prince of the power of the air. He's using frequencies and all sorts of fallen angel technology like directed energy weapons, H.A.A.R.P, scalar weapons, satellites, drones, smart technology, nano technology, radar weapons, 5G & beyond to accomplish all of this. Not to mention what he's doing through the medical industry. His beast system, the government, is rolling along enacting his wishes. The only thing lacking there is the announcement of a one world government with the anti-christ leader at the helm of it all. We are in the birth pains.

satan does not determine the start of the tribulation. God does. God is in total control. When He removes His bride, then satan is going to run with his fake stories of an alien invasion that took the haters all away, or that they all died of covid or who knows what lies he has planned. Remember project blue beam and all that he has going on in the skies. He has fake sun simulators, and all sorts of stuff up there by now. He has his deception ready to roll because he still does not want people to come to Christ even in the tribulation. At that time if you come to Jesus, you will lose your head and shed your own blood because you refused to accept the blood that Jesus already shed for you.

I want you to hear me. If you are still here after Jesus removes His bride, then please understand, something was not right about your life in Christ. Get yourself right with Jesus. Seek Him with an earnest heart, a repentant heart which means stop the sins you have been doing. Ask Him to baptize you into the Holy Spirit because the Holy Spirit is the only way that you are going to stand up and not take the mark of the beast.

On the left is Pastor Erustus and Pastor Sarah and there is Pastor Dalbeer on the right. These men and women, including myself with Pastor Sarah, are seeing miracles in our lives and ministries and each one of us believe in a pre-tribulation rapture. God will not leave His true children deceived.

SHARED FROM PASTOR DARREL DUMAS

I watched him debate the pre-trib rapture with Stan Johnson from The Prophecy Club. It was a heated debate and I don't feel Christians should debate but rather discuss God's Word. I also don't agree with all of Pastor Dumas' teachings but I did want to share some things he said:

Why don't you want to be the bride? What a disgrace to go into the tribulation because you were not the bride.

If the body of Christ had to go through the tribulation and be whipped – then the Body of Christ would be beaten twice. Moses got in trouble for striking the Rock twice (Numbers 20:1-13)– because that was a picture of Jesus to come – He was only struck once.

Two separate events: One is a Thief in the night (Matt.24:36-44 / 1 Thess.5:2) – doesn't want to be seen.

One is in the daylight (Rev.1:7 / Matt.24:30) – EVERY EYE will see Him.

The rapture is the first judgment on the world that starts the tribulation.

Paul was given the church age mysteries (Gal.1:10-20). Job did not know anything about a group of people not dying. He did not have the mystery teaching that was given to Paul on the rapture (Job 19:25-27).

PRAYER

<https://www.infoplease.com/encyclopedia/religion/christian/branches/roman-catholic-church/beliefs-doctrines-and-practices#:~:text=The%20chief%20teachings%20of%20the,his%20or%20her%20actions%20in>

<https://uscatholic.org/articles/201408/do-catholics-believe-in-the-rapture/>

<https://bccatholic.ca/voices/graham-osborne/do-catholics-believe-in-the-rapture>

Catholics believe Mary was already raised body and soul into heaven.

http://www.bbc.co.uk/religion/religions/christianity/catholic/catholic\_1.shtml#:~:text=Catholics%20share%20with%20other%20Christians,of%20eternal%20life%20with%20Him.

<https://www.christianity.com/wiki/christian-terms/what-is-amillennialism.html>

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Manuel\_Lacunza

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Margaret\_MacDonald\_\(visionary\))

The Stan Johnson Darrell Dumas debate unedited

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=b7P8oNEl6w>