

AMEN Pt.4: THE HIDDEN ONE, AMON, AMUN, AMIN, AMAN, KING TUT

Fragment of a stela showing Amun  enthroned. Mut, wearing the double crown, stands behind him. Both are receiving offerings from Ramesses I, now lost. From Egypt. The Petrie Museum of Egyptian Archaeology, London

Fragment of a stela showing Amun enthroned. Mut, wearing the double crown, stands behind him. Both are receiving offerings from Ramesses I, now lost. From Egypt. The Petrie Museum of Egyptian Archaeology, London.

Mut means mother and she was worshipped as the mother goddess of Egypt along with her consort Amun. The double crown she wore symbolized her rule over the whole land of Egypt, lower and upper Egypt combined.

Here is a better picture of what we were just looking at. Remember amun was worshipped before the time of Nimrod. And when we think it strange to see depictions of male and female gods and goddesses being worshipped. Remember the fallen angels procreated with human women. So we have a mixture of wickedness going on against God as we see satan building his kingdom and receiving worship. In Egypt the pharaoh's wives would carry the title god's wife of Amun.

School U

January 28, 2018 11:15 pm

You didn't find anything. Stop your lying. Amen is ancient Egyptian and the word was not originated by the Hebrews. Do some REAL research next time. The word, Amen was the name of the chief deity in ancient Egypt and it means "The Hidden" or "The Unseen." Do some research!

Reply

Winman

June 14, 2018 4:58 am

Know one said that Amen doesn't mean the "hidden one," but that according to Revelation 3:14, Jesus was called The Amen. Furthermore, The Amen, Aman, Amon, Amun, Amin, was worshipped by the ancient Kushites, ancient Egyptians, and the ancient Greeks... I do not believe anyone of us are lying, we either don't have the same level of knowledge or we are choosing to believe what we want to believe even when truth is looking us square in the face...

Reply

School U said, You didn't find anything. Stop your lying. Amen is an ancient Egyptian word and the word was not originated by the Hebrews. Do some REAL research next time. The word, amen was the name of the chief diety in ancient Egypt and it means "The Hidden" or "The Unseen." Do some research!

Winman said: No one said that amen doesn't mean the "hidden one," but that according to Revelation 3:14, Jesus was called The Amen. Furthermore, the amen, aman, amon, amun, amin, was worshipped by the ancient Kushites, ancient Egyptians, and the ancient Greeks...I do not believe anyone of us are lying, we either don't have the same level of knowledge or we are choosing to believe what we want to believe even when truth is looking us square in the face...

Notice how many different spelling variations have been mentioned for amen. What I have found in research is that spelling has changed over time and from country to country. And the luciferians also get creative in how they spell things and don't seem to mind as long as they sound the same and we don't put it together.

Remember we don't see a time where Egypt worshipped and served God in our Bibles but just the opposite, they were continuously leading the Israelites into idolatry against God. So I certainly don't believe a main god of theirs for 1000's of years was the God of the Bible and the same God we serve today. I do not believe they were calling on a title for Christ. This false god amen, who is satan predates Abraham. This is truly back to the beginning of our Bibles and the fallen state of the world, after sin entered through satan's tempting Eve. It did not take satan long to get busy over in Egypt establishing his worship there after God came against the Tower of Babyl.

Rio

December 1, 2018 11:03 am

Doing research above and beyond what your find on the lying internet and fakeapedia, what's understood is that the true and original Earth's race is Black. All other races have been genetically modified. Of coarse the Elite don't want and won't ever let this be known in the mainstream. And as the for word, amen, it's true and original meaning is, let it be hidden! So why do we use it and believe it to mean something good, because when finishing a Prayer or request to Creator with amen, you're doing what the negative powers that be want. Please do not take my word for it, research this info yourself! Step outside of the box and programming we've been enslaved to believe!

Rio said: Doing research above and beyond what you find on the lying internet and fake-a-pedia, what's understood is that the true and original Earth's race is black. All other races have been genetically modified. Of course the elite don't want and won't ever let this be known in the mainstream. And as for the word, "amen" it's true and original meaning is, let it be hidden! So why do we use it and believe it to mean something good, because when finishing a prayer or request to Creator with amen, you're doing what the negative power that be want. Please do not take my word for it, research this info yourself! Step outside of the box and programming we've been enslaved to believe!

*This person seems to believe initially everyone was black. There is a movement that is tied to the Hebrew roots movement. The movement believes that the Israelites were all black. I have spoken with Pastor Erustus about this before and he does not believe this way. This is just another deceptive movement for people to get caught up in. The Hebrews mixed their races, they never stayed pure and away from other idolatrous nations as God wanted them to. Moses married an Ethiopian / Cushite woman and Aaron and Miriam didn't like it. (Numbers 12) Joseph married the daughter of an Egyptian priest of the city On which is the city of the sun. (Gen.41:50, Gen.46:20) The Israelites were constantly mixing their race. Read Ezra chapters 9 and 10 and find out how quickly they did this after they were released from captivity in Babylon for 70 years. Do not get caught up into a race debate or fight, it isn't worth it. God loves His children the same no matter what color we are.

Gal.3:28 - There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

I wanted you to see what this person said about amen meaning "let it be hidden." I could see this being true, deceiving all the people to say this word all the time thinking it meant something else. Causing Christians to think it meant "hidden" as in God Who we don't see. That is witchcraft, believing that what you speak becomes true. Only God has the power to speak something into existence (Romans 4:17). We agree with His Word and we speak in faith but we don't Speak things into existence – that is new age and Satan's system. We would certainly not want to be speaking out that we want things to be hidden.

The witches are always trying to get us to participate in their witchcraft by repeating words that they prompt their congregations to say or take part in their spells to give it power even in our ignorance. That is word magic. One way their witchcraft gains power is when we participate because it shows that we agree with them and are listening and being taught by them. That we are doing what they want or what they say. Following them.

And now this word for Satan is said in all of God's churches. They scrub the internet to make it hard to dig down to truth. They control the online information and they print books that say what they want us to believe etc. The unsaved Jews hate Jesus. No I don't believe they are saying His title in their rituals, songs and prayers. But rather it is for the one they chose to follow and worship.

The Transformation Process of a People: From BC Africa Up to 1619 America, with Reference to Modernity for Comparative Analysis. Paperback – Import, 1 April 2011

by D-Kha'd (Author)

See all formats and editions

Hardcover

10 Days

celestial entity, Aton (Sun). He was Amenhotep III ca. 1450 BC. Today when the Christians recite the biblical prayer, at the ending they say "Amen." As shown, Amen is a two syllable word in the four syllable "Amenhotep." The Encyclopedia Britannica vol. 12 1957, p.78 say "Amenhotep means 'He in whom Amon is content.' It is believed the phonetic name Ammon means 'The Hidden One.' For only the Pharaoh and his High priest were privileged and allowed to look upon Ammon in the innermost sanctuary, to view the statue or symbol of representation. A little later I'll have more on the worship of Ammon. As history has recorded, "Amenhotep III was the great-grandson

Today when the Christians recite the biblical prayer, at the ending they say “amen.” As shown, amen is a two syllable word in the four syllable “amenhotep.” The Encyclopedia Britannia vol. 12 1957, p. 78 say “amenhotep means ‘He in whom amon is content.’ It is believed the phonetic name of ammon means ‘The Hidden One.’ For only the pharaoh and his high priest were privileged and allowed to look upon ammon in the innermost sanctuary, to view the statue or symbol of representation.

From the Encyclopedia Britannia – Amenhotep, means ‘he in whom amon is content.’ In Egypt they believed the god was the father of the pharaoh. So Amenhotep is the pharaoh, and his name means that the god he serves, amon – satan, is content with him. Notice here they bring out the aspect that “amen” means ‘The Hidden One’ and that only the high priest and the pharaoh were privileged to look upon him in statue form or a symbol representation. This is a mimicking of God the Father in heaven. The Tabernacle that Moses built and the Temple that Solomon built were patterned after God’s Temple in heaven. They had a separate room where the ark of the covenant was kept with the mercy seat and cherubim and this was called The Holy of holies or the holiest place of all. So satan set the same thing up in his earthly kingdom in Egypt.

Mark

June 18, 2019 1:15 pm

I tend to agree with you on this theory. Tutmose (the brother of Akhenaten) who is possibly “Moses”. Tut – mose story in Egyptian is similar to the story and timeline of Moses in the Bible.

Reply

Mark said: I tend to agree with you on this theory. Tutmose (the brother of Akhenaten) who is possibly “Moses.” Tut-mose, story in Egyptian is similar to the story and timeline of Moses in the Bible.

When we study, we do look at history and into things that have been recorded outside the Bible to see what lines up and what does not. Remember Moses was raised as an Egyptian by Pharaoh’s daughter, she gave him his name. (Exodus 2)

We must let the Holy Spirit lead our studies, He knows everything and even though I used to be blinded, He did not leave me that way. Study God's Word, pray, and seek Him for more revelation, ask Him not to leave you deceived.

Jennifer Bristol

December 17, 2017 1:12 am

The proper name is Amun-Ra- the Sun God, also originally known as Ra or Aten-Ra. Look it up in Egyptian Pantheon Mythology.

Reply

Eric McKenzie

November 17, 2018 6:04 am

The people of Kemet did not use vowels so no one can definitively say which spelling is correct. It could be Amun and it could equally be Amen eg Amenemhet or Amenhotep as in Amenhotep IV (the Greek form is Amenophis and is the King who we know today as Akhenaten).

Be careful where you are checking your facts. Ultimately, it would be best to go back to the hieroglyphs and see for yourself.

Reply

Jennifer Bristol said: The proper name is amun-ra the sun god. Also originally known as ra or aten-ra. Look it up in Egyptian pantheon mythology.

Eric McKenzie said: The people of Kemet did not use vowels so no one can definitively say which spelling is correct. It could be amun and it could equally be amen eg amenemhet or amenhotep as in amenhotep iv (the Greek form is amenophis and is the king who we know today as akhenaten).

Be careful where you are checking your facts. Ultimately, it would be best to go back to the hieroglyphs and see for yourself.

This was a great point about the vowels. The Egyptians or people of Kemet did not use vowels. Remember the Masoretes, the ones who supposedly gave us our Old Testament translations from original Hebrew, tell us the same thing – they did not use vowels back then. Interesting correlations when you really look at it. The Hebrews largely wrote and spoke the languages of the places where they went into captivity, namely Babylon and Egypt. So it makes sense why this word is spelled so many different ways but means the same thing.

Representation and symbolism [\[edit\]](#)

Some scholars have claimed that Ashur was represented as the winged sun that appears frequently in Assyrian iconography.^[who?] Many Assyrian kings had names that included the name Ashur, including, above all, Ashur-uballit I, Ashurnasirpal, Esarhaddon (Ashur-aha-iddina), and Ashurbanipal. Epithets include bēlu rabû "great lord", ab ilâni "father of gods", šadû rabû "great mountain", and il aššurî "god of Ashur".

This piece of information shows how the nations would place the name of their god before their own name. Representation and symbolism – Some scholars have claimed that Ashur was represented as the winged sun that appears frequently in Assyrian iconography. Many Assyrian kings had names that included the name Ashur, including, above all, Ashur-uballit I, Ashurnasirpal, Esarhaddon (Ashur-aha-iddina), and Ashurbanipal. Epithets include beiu rabu “great lord,” ab ilani “father of gods,” sadu rabu “great mountain,” and il assure “god of Ashur.” Ashur is the Assyrian name for Nimrod. You can see that in Genesis 10:11.

*Please play this video on the origin of amen*This man’s youtube channel was pulled down. He shares how to read the hieroglyphs of Amentutankh or King Tut and how the powers that be have worked to change and disguise that name so that we don’t catch on to the fact that the word “amen” was used at the beginning of his name because it honored the god that he served. (about 4.5 min’s)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=swWoyMKIM6E>

That sounded like good information to me. His channel got pulled for a reason. Censorship. However, I have seen iah or yah and el mixed at the beginning and ending of many supposed Biblical names. Samu-el, Dani-el, Isa-iah, Jerem-iah, Ezeki-el. The waters are very muddied today.

“Tut-ankh-amen, Amenism, Atenism and Egyptian Monotheism” With hieroglyphic texts of hymns to amen and aten. By: E.A. Wallis Budge. Seems credible to me that they put the amen on the end of his name so we would not pick up on it. These are the kinds of things they do to hold back the truth from us.

CLOSING

<https://factcheck.afp.com> › amen-hebrew-not-egyptian-... ⋮

'Amen' is of Hebrew, not Egyptian, origin | Fact Check

Claim: The word “amen” is derived from the ancient Egyptian god Amun Ra

Claimed by: Multiple people

Fact check by AFP Fact Check: False

Feedback

This came up in one of the very first searches I did in my research on “amen.” The site is factcheck.afp.com And it says: ‘Amen’ is of Hebrew, not Egyptian, origin. (They state this boldly to stop you in your tracks and get most people to say I thought so and to move on without really knowing or getting to the truth.) Claim: The word ‘amen’ is derived from the ancient Egyptian god Amun Ra Claimed by: Multiple People

Surely you have learned by now that Snopes, and other online fact checkers are just part of the agenda to sway you to believe whatever the beast system wants you to believe. This fact checker is not giving accurate information. But they know that many people will just believe what an online fact checkers says and shut their research down right there. You have to research the fact checkers today and see who signs their pay check, then you’ll get to the bottom of why they are saying what they say. Think about the censorship we are seeing right now with this virus. If you speak against their vaccines or bring out credible dr’s or nurses or any information other than what the beast system government says, you will be censored.

PRAYER

From the book: “The Transformation Process of a People”

https://www.google.com/books/edition/The Transformation Process of a People/39XYlh-nxf4C?hl=en&gbpv=1&dq=amenhotep+III+made+those+he+conquered+pray+to+amen&pg=PT28&printsec=frontcover

<https://www.todayifoundout.com/index.php/2010/11/where-the-word-amen-came-from/>

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Amun>

https://aminoapps.com/c/paranormal/page/blog/amun-creator-god/PJBE_jVQHmudb37R316eQWxjLwoWaR253Yq

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Amun>

<https://blackhistory938.wordpress.com/2017/06/01/the-pagan-origin-of-the-word-amen/>

<https://ancientegypt.fandom.com/wiki/Amun>

Amenophis II mentioned in this research

<https://isthatinthebible.wordpress.com/2014/05/05/the-phoenician-god-resheph-in-the-bible/>

Amentet - research

<http://www.ancientegyptonline.co.uk/amentet.html>

Amen & hallelujah - origins

<http://www.dzyantheosophy.org/---matram---hpb.html>

Jewish witchcraft rituals to which amen is stated afterward.

http://bloodpassover.com/xbp.pdfsource Thisiszionism

Revelation Part 1, Amen, Amen Ra, Cursing your prayer

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=btEV6ulu4yg>

About amen and yhwh The Jews took adjectives about God and turned them into names for Him.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sZeSH9BnV1k>