

CHRISTIAN WOMEN Pt.10: WEAVES, VEILS, BLUE HAIR, MEN'S HAIR and BEARDS

Roe vs Wade – praise God that was overturned for any good that it did or is doing at all. They are already working to walk that one back. Remember Roe vs Wade was never about an abortion, she didn't have an abortion. It was about making abortion legal in America so that we could harvest baby parts right here in our own country instead of buying them from Switzerland. Learned that from a Dr. Tent lecture.

This is from a movie title “Westward the Women,” made in 1951. Notice all of the women have their hair up and long dresses down to their feet. I praise the Lord that we are not in all of this bondage any longer. Again, there is nothing wrong with having long hair and always wearing dresses down to your feet if you want to.

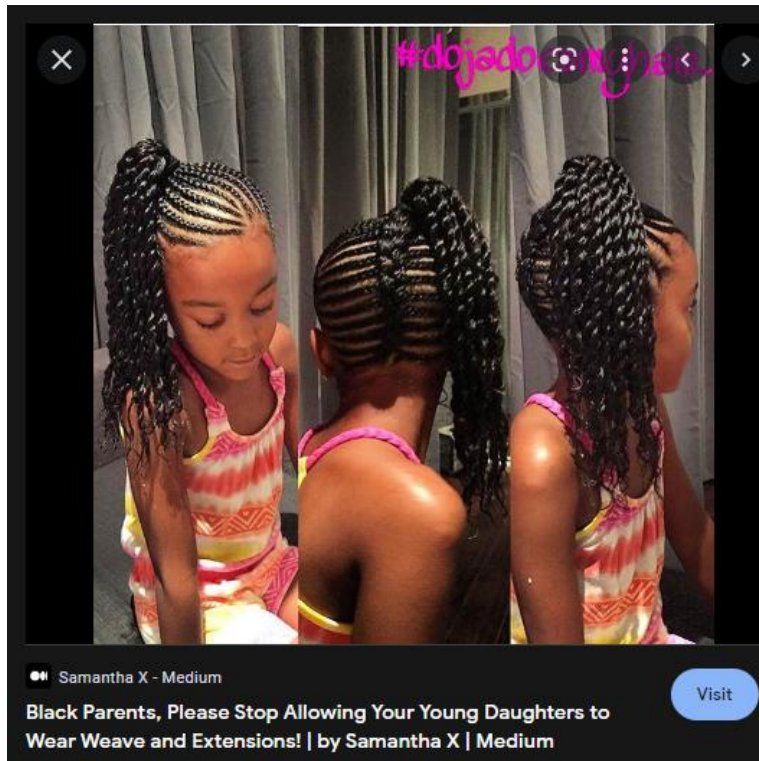

This was Kennedy's long hair. On the left, she let me put some simple braids in once. She very rarely lets me mess with her hair at all. On the right, we took a picture of it before she got it cut shorter. Kennedy has very thick hair. Reminds me of what was said about King David's son Absalom having thick heavy hair, so much so that he had to cut it once a year to have some relief. (2 Sam.14:26)

She got her hair cut short because she said it was so hot and it was a big job to wash it and she doesn't like to use the blow dryer and so it would take a long time to dry. It was so beautiful but it was a lot to manage. After she got her hair cut short she said she loved it and that it was a lot cooler and easier to manage.

This is a picture of Scott and me on our honeymoon. This was probably the longest my hair has been since we've been together coming up on 21 years in August. The longest my hair has ever been in my life, was probably in Junior High, it was past my shoulders. I never had long pretty hair. My hair is very fine and it is not thick. It took a lot of work, product and tools, to make it look nice when it was longer. I spent a lot of time on my hair.

WEAVES

Black parents, please stop allowing your young daughters to wear weave and extensions! I agree with this. When I was in school, the black girls did not wear weaves. They would braid their hair or wear it straightened or relaxed maybe styled with a curling iron sometimes.

I also notice that Pastor Erustus' daughters usually have their hair cut close to their scalp. I think that is because it is so hot there and it is just easier to manage. And they are not of age to be thinking of dating or getting married yet. You may not be able to see very well, but Pastor Sarah's hair is braided here. God is not against braids or braiding our hair or making our hair beautiful. There is nothing wrong with a grown woman wearing a weave as long as she is being modest and is not trying to cause men to lust after her.

Widely accepted and used human hair for making weaves are Peruvian hair, Indian hair, Vietnamese hair, and Brazilian hair. Each type of hair has its unique features. Vietnamese hair is soft and silky in texture, whereas Indian hair is thicker in its texture. Jan 9, 2021

<https://michair.vn> › blogs › type-of-hair-weaves-different-... ⋮

Type Of Hair Weaves & Different Methods In Hair Weaving?

Widely accepted and used human hair for making weaves are Peruvian hair, Indian hair, Vietnamese hair and Brazillian hair. Each type of hair has its unique features. Vietnamese hair is soft and silky in texture, whereas Indian hair is thicker in its texture.

I thought it was interesting to take a look at what hair weaves are made from. Even in these little details, I think of how amazing God's creation is. We are all different and fearfully and wonderfully made by God, right down to the texture of our hair.

I notice the Latino ladies, at the Mexican Restaurant that we like to go to, usually have very thick hair. In researching about black women's hair, it said it is a myth that a black woman can't grow her hair, it said that everyone's hair grows about a half an inch a month. But it is about how much hair you retain after breakage. And that black hair because it is curly can be weaker than straighter hair.

Hair comments from my research:

Cassandra Wright

June 5, 2017

Thank you for more information on this. My hair simply hates to be long. It is easier and less time consuming to let it be short as it wishes. It is very fine and I look like an egg with it wet. I have also been faithful to my beloved husband of 40 yrs. But, WOW, do I get nasty remarks from traditionalists and complementarians who tell me that my shorn head testify to my rebellious nature and worse.

Cassandra Wright said: Thank you for more information on this. My hair simply hates to be long. It is easier and less time consuming to let it be short as it wishes. It is very fine and I look like an egg with it wet. I have also been faithful to my beloved husband of 40 years. But, WOW, do I get nasty remarks from traditionalists and complementarians who tell me that my shorn head testifies to my rebellious nature and worse.

Jan

June 5, 2017

Good article. it is amazing how much a misunderstanding of scripture can affect an entire culture.

I am thinking of the Amish and Mennonites of the USA who have interpreted these verses from 1 Corinthians to create an entire culture where the head covering of women is of paramount importance. So much so, that those who are not of the same belief are considered to be "of the world".

Jan said: Good article. It is amazing how much a misunderstanding of scripture can affect an entire culture.

I am thinking of the Amish and Mennonites of the USA who have interpreted these verses from 1 Cor. To create an entire culture where the head covering of women is of paramount importance. So much so, that those who are not of the same belief are considered to be "of the world."

Isn't that the truth. It's a shame how the church has infighting over wrong teaching and wrong interpretation of Scripture.

These are Amish, or Quaker, or Mennonite women – I saw them advertised as all three. I do not know the difference in the way they dress, it must be very similar. They keep their heads covered wherever they go. This looks like bondage to me over not correctly understanding God’s Word. However, if you want to wear a bonnet or head covering all the time, you can. But you should not be made to feel you have to or else you are in sin against God, because that just isn’t true.

These women have long hair and if you want to do that, there’s nothing wrong with it. As Paul said, if a woman has long hair it is a glory to her because it was given to her as a covering. But to be clear, God’s Word is not telling us ladies that we have to wear long hair. It is my hope that many will have their questions answered in this teaching and be set free. The Bible tells us that the truth will set us free. (John 8:32)

If you want to wear a head covering of some type in church, you can. It becomes a problem when you think you are sinning against God if you don't.

What about this new fad of having your hair dyed to strange shades of color? Colors like out of a crayon box, like this shade of blue on Katy Perry.

I found this satanic cartoon character with a shade of blue hair also. Bul for satan and ma is also a false god and stands for “devil” in Japanese mythology.

This was what they chose to put on Wikipedia for blue hair. She is wearing a blue wig and the face says it all.

I asked Pastor Erustus his thoughts on these extreme hair dyes or colors of hair. He said, "I don't support so much coloring the hair in extreme ways or over doing it. It means one is under a controlling spirit."

That means a demon has influenced you to go to this extreme. Where is this coming from anyway? The world.

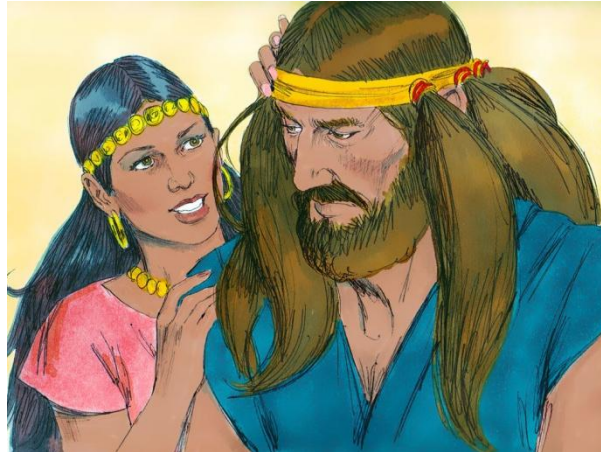

Most of the time, this is the type of failed, dyed hair I see all around town. Everyone is doing it and most of it looks like this mess right here.

I dye my hair, but I stay with colors that are considered natural colors. I don't allow Kennedy to dye her hair. She has a beautiful hair color naturally. When she grows up, if she wants to dye her hair, then that will be her decision. I never dyed my hair until I was in my late 20's. I went natural a few years back and for now I prefer to have some color in it. I'm sure one day I will let it go natural but that day has not come for me yet.

MEN'S HAIR and BEARDS

As a man, you should not have long hair. In the Bible, it was those that were under a Nazarite vow who let their hair grow long. Like Samson.

Samson and Delilah. Numbers chapter 6 speaks about the vow of a Nazarite in not cutting his or her hair.

Lev.19:27 - Ye shall not round the corners of your heads (do not cut the hair at the sides of your head so as to make your hair round), neither shalt thou mar (clip off) the corners of thy beard (the edges of your beard).

Ellicott's Commentary for English Readers

(27) Round the corners of your heads.--That is, they are not to shave off the hair around the temples and behind the ears, so as to leave the head bald except a dish-like tuft upon the crown, thus imparting to their heads the form of a hemisphere. This was done by the Arabs, and other worshippers of the god Orotal. Hence the Arabs are ironically called "those with the corner of their hair polled," as it is rightly rendered in the Margin (Jeremiah 9:26; Jeremiah 25:23; Jeremiah 49:32).

Ellicott's Commentary for English Readers

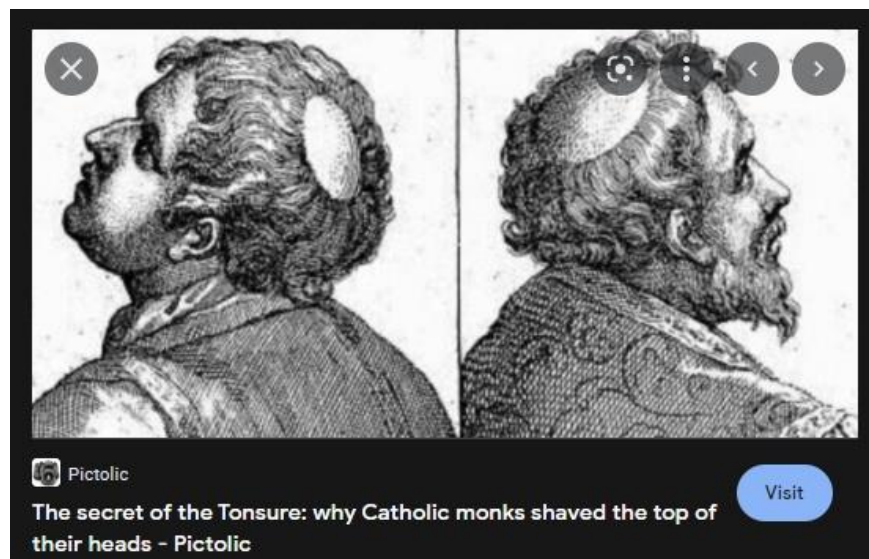

Round the corners of your heads – That is, they are not to shave off the hair around the temples and behind the ears, so as to leave the head bald except a dish-like tuft upon the crown, thus imparting to their heads the form of a hemisphere. This was done by the Arabs, and other worshippers of the god

Orotal. Hence the Arabs are ironically called “those with the corner of their hair polled,” as it is rightly rendered in the Margin (Jeremiah 9:26; Jeremiah 25:23; Jeremiah 49:32)

Once again we see here that the pagans were cutting their hair in a certain way to worship the fallen angels. God forbid His children to cut their hair like that.

This is one version of the creepy haircut. This makes a round disc on the head.

The secret of the Tonsure: why Catholic monks shaved the top of their heads. You know this is not a christian religion, but rather it is a mystery religion out of Egypt and Babylon. They do this against God and His Word. They are still forming the disc on their heads by doing it this way.

Why do monks have shaved heads? Because they worship the sun god who is satan, baal. He has shown them to do just the opposite of God's Word. They are not worshipping the God of the Bible. The symbol for the sun god is even shown here in this picture.

Here is famed football player, Tim Tebow, who was supposedly hazed into this hair style. He is encouraging his fans, those that idolize him, to do the same abominable haircut against God.

So the Kabalistic Jews have taken the verse that stated not to cut the hair at the sides of your head and made it into a perverted ritual of their own. Growing these curly ques from the sides of their head had nothing to do with what God said. Total non-sense.

Here they are giving these ridiculous hair cuts. And the one guy is smoking a cigarette, acting like this is such a holy ritual.

And they bring their children up in this perversion against God too.

Mar the corners of thy beard.—The beard was regarded by the Hebrews and other eastern nations as the greatest ornament of a man, and was as dear to them as life itself. It was the object of salutation (2Samuel 20:9), and the mutilation of it was looked upon as the greatest disgrace and most degrading punishment (2Samuel 10:4; Isaiah 7:20; Ezra 5:1-5, &c.). It was only in seasons of sorrow that the Hebrews neglected their beards; and sometimes, to show how deeply they were afflicted, they covered them up, or even cut them off, or tore them out (2Samuel 19:24; Isaiah 15:2; Jeremiah 41:5, &c.). Because it was so precious a treasure, it was customary among some of the ancients to present to their gods the firstlings of their beards. The prohibition before us alludes to this practice. . . .

Back to our commentary: Remember the verse in Leviticus said for them not to clip off the corners of their beards. That sounds strange. Didn't God want them to maintain the situation?

Mar the corners of thy beard – The beard was regarded by the Hebrews and other eastern nations as the greatest ornament of a man, and was as dear to them as life itself. It was the object of salutation (2 Sam.20:9), and the mutilation of it was looked upon as the greatest disgrace and most degrading punishment (2 Sam.10:4; Isaiah 7:20, Ezra 5:1-5). It was only in seasons of sorrow that the Hebrews neglected their beards; and sometimes, to show how deeply they were afflicted, they covered them up, or even cut them off, or tore them out (2 Sam. 19:24, Isaiah 15:2, Jeremiah 41:5). Because it was so precious a treasure, it was customary among some of the ancients to present to their gods the firstlings of their beards. The prohibition before us alludes to this practice...

Now we see again, that the pagans were worshipping the fallen angels by trimming off parts of their beards and offering them to their gods. Our God told the Israelites not to be doing those things. He wanted His children to be holy as He is holy and to stay out of pagan practices.

Isaiah 7:20 - In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

They wore beards back then and God was going to use the king of Assyria to shave off all the hair of their body, including their beards. They would be utterly defeated and put to shame.

Isaiah 15:1-2 – The burden of Moab (A prophecy against Moab). Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste (destroyed), and brought to silence; He is gone up (Your people are gone up) to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

When God judged them, He said they would shave off their hair and beards in mourning for their god, Nebo and for the city of Medeba.

Isaiah 50:6 - I gave My back to the smiters, and My cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

Isaiah prophesied this about Jesus. For the men out there, can you imagine the pain of having your beard plucked out? He did even that for us. He took it all and said nothing in return.

I cannot imagine dealing with all of that hair. Remember we learned that one reason women would cut their hair off was because of lice. Can you imagine getting an infestation of lice in that hair? Now I get a better idea of the woman who cried tears on Jesus' feet and wiped them dry with her hair. I couldn't imagine most women today trying to dry Jesus' feet with their hair but this hair makes more sense.

God never said we cannot cut our hair. We do not have to veil our heads. We are to be subjective to our husbands and to please them. There are a lot of women living in bondage because of what was said to the Corinthian church regarding their customs and traditions of that time.

Paul was teaching the Corinthians how to serve and worship God. They had just come out of the pagan religion worshipping the fallen angels. The Jews prayed with covered heads, but the Greeks did not. There were many questions as to whether the women should cover their hair with a veil or put it up on their heads or even to cut it or not. The end of that teaching was that the Apostles nor God's churches had any such customs.

For a woman, if you want to grow your hair long and not cut it, you can. However, if you want to cut your hair, you can do that too. If you want to wear a head covering in church, you can but if you don't want to, you don't have to.

Are these things important to God? Are we impressing God with all of the elaborate hairstyles? How much time do you spend on your appearance? I remember when I was single and I had longer hair, it would take at least an hour just on my hair. And that was not even elaborate hair.

Have you given thought to people with severe arthritis or diseases that hinder their ability to do their hair? Surely God loves them just as much.

With my rheumatoid arthritis there have been times that it has been very hard for me to wash even my short hair and just as hard to try to blow dry it and fix it. There have been times I have had to get Scott to blow dry it for me because the pain in my hands was so severe. What about people who have gone through chemo and have lost their hair? God loves them still. If a woman has long hair it is her crowning glory just as my short hair is my crowning glory. God does not judge us on our hair or outward appearance.

In different situations, like losing your hair because of cancer, you might wear a wig. I know a woman who lost her very long beautiful hair because of cancer. After that, Sister Margaret, wore some cute wigs as her hair was growing back in. I will say this, if you wear a wig or hair extensions or a weave of any sort – pray over them first. Bind and cast out any demonic attachments, curses, spells – witchcraft and cast it out in Jesus' name. Cover them in the blood of Jesus. Ask God to place His blessing on it because it is being used for His servant. There is a war against Christians and they are doing witch craft over these type of things, placing curses and spells on them and even demons attached to them.

Last of all, let's remember this next very important thing about God:

1 Samuel 16:7b - for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

Let's not get so caught up in our appearance that we lose sight of how God sees us.

PRAYER

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Greco-Roman_hairstyle

<https://www.sciencedirect.com/science/article/pii/S0022202X15526158>

https://books.google.com/books?id=keL8DwAAQBAJ&pg=PA165&lpg=PA165&dq=convicted+adulteresses+had+shaved+heads+in+corinth&source=bl&ots=1yjXoWNn3I&sig=ACfU3U1s2UiiiR_Rf-mBJEpSYnN-MTWdA&hl=en&sa=X&ved=2ahUKEwi05YmM4aH4AhUxc98KHW5cCu0Q6AF6BAGYEAM#v=onepage&q=convicted%20adulteresses%20had%20shaved%20heads%20in%20corinth&f=false

Women's hair, braids, ancient styles etc.

<https://deeperstudy.com/link/issue010.html>

<http://www.ethos.org.au/online-resources/engage-mail/women-s-hair-in-corinth-and-in-sydney>

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Herm_\(sculpture\))

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Roman_hairstyles

<https://etc.worldhistory.org/interviews/ancient-hairstyles-of-the-grecoroman-world/>

<https://www.quora.com/Why-were-women-in-Victorian-society-not-permitted-to-leave-their-hair-loose-or-cut-it-short>

<https://www.evidenceunseen.com/bible-difficulties-2/nt-difficulties/romans-2/1-cor-11-5-6-is-it-wrong-for-a-woman-to-have-her-head-uncovered-while-praying/>

<https://biblehub.com/leviticus/19-27.htm>

“ma” stands for devil in Japanese Mythology

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mazoku>