

SOUL TIES Pt.4: IDENTIFYING SOUL TIES, SEX WITH DEMONS, UNEQUALLY YOKED

WARNING: This is not for young children. This is a very sexually sensitive subject matter. I would say it is for older teens and that you should be sure your child understands this at the right point in their life. They need to understand especially what happens when they are intimate with someone.

Last week we were discussing how to know or identify if you have a soul tie. We're going to pick up right where we left off.

SEX WITH DEMONS

Another clue you have a soul tie is that you are having sexual interaction with demons. Other sins can cause this as well, but for sure an ungodly soul tie can be the cause. It's time you learned and understood that demons, that is fallen angels, are still sleeping with people today. (Gen.6:4) Sometimes demonic entities attach themselves in the form of a spirit husband or a spirit wife. We discussed demonic attachment a little bit last week. Demons can attach in different ways.

Like the movie "Rosemary's Baby" or "The Entity." They have presented this to us as just scary movies or sci-fi movies when it is actually very real. They have shown us the truth and we did not recognize it because we haven't understood spiritual things.

In "Rosemary's Baby," a woman and her husband got mixed up with some occultic people and one night when Rosemary and her husband were intimate she felt like she was having sex with satan himself. That is because of the demon inside of her husband controlling the situation and the movie makers wanted us to understand this spiritually. She went on to be pregnant and worry about what kind of baby she was having. That's why she is shown here thinking about killing the baby.

This is Barbara Hershey who played the main character Carla, in the movie "The Entity." In this movie she was raped and sexually assaulted by an "entity" over and over again. Her family were harassed and bitten, pushed and tormented by these entities as well. A wicked entity is a demon which is a fallen angel. Psychiatrists say that she was making it up, abusing herself, that she and her family's experience with this entity was mass hysteria etc. This is the same thing they do to targeted individuals to isolate them and offer no help only more of the same. They just say they are crazy and put them in psych wards or in jail etc. and keep on experimenting on them.

The answer to all of this is Christ. But the world doesn't give a true solution and they will not mention Jesus. The luciferians run Hollywood and they use movies and music to tell us the truth. But we just thought it was entertainment. Those people aren't that imaginative or creative. They are just showing us true things if we could grow spiritually and let Jesus open our spiritual understanding to it all so that we could comprehend it better.

Listen to parts of the plot:

Sneiderman drives Carla home and meets her children. She explains to him that she suffered a variety of traumas in her childhood and adolescence, including sexual and physical abuse, teenage pregnancy, and the violent death of her first husband. Dr. Sneiderman believes her apparent paranormal experiences are delusions resulting from her past psychological trauma, but agrees to keep an open mind at her request. Shortly after Sneiderman leaves, Carla is attacked again, this time in front of her children. Her son tries to intervene, but he is hit by electrical discharges and his wrist is broken.

Notice they are telling us openly about soul ties here. She was traumatized, sexually abused and physically abused as a young child. Now all of that created a soul tie and that is how the attachment of these demons came about. The main entity that kept raping her seemed to be behaving as a spiritual husband to her.

After Cindy witnesses an attack, the two discuss possible supernatural causes. While visiting a local bookstore, Carla happens to meet two parapsychologists, whom she convinces to visit her home. Initially skeptical, they witness several paranormal events and agree to study the home under the supervision of their team leader, Dr. Cooley. During their study, Sneiderman arrives and tries to convince Carla that the manifestation is in her mind, but she dismisses him. Reassured that her case is taken seriously, Carla begins to relax. Her boyfriend, Jerry Anderson, visits and she suffers a particularly disturbing attack, which he witnesses. Hearing the commotion, Carla's son enters the room and believes that Jerry is harming her, prompting him to attack Jerry. Later at the hospital, Jerry is so troubled by the experience that he ends their relationship.

After Cindy, that's her friend, witnesses an attack, the two discuss possible supernatural causes. Now you see a result of an ungodly soul tie. The demon kept going until it destroyed her relationship with her boyfriend. Now these were not godly people, but that is one of the goals of a demon brought in through a soul tie. The demon wants to destroy the person and even if the person gets saved, they still want to tear down their life as long as that person does not learn about soul ties and doesn't take the steps to break it off and out of their lives.

"The Entity" is based on the true story of Doris Bither. In seeking help, she finally met some researchers who were interested to investigate her story. A team of 20 researchers from UCLA came to her home with equipment to see for themselves.

This is Doris Bither, sitting on the bed. They were able to capture on film, the energy or that is the entity's energy arching above and around her. They witnessed their equipment being thrown around the room as well.

Sex with demons is real and it continues today. I know a lady who has demonic sexual activity in her life. She was molested at ten years old. Her grandparents are freemasons. She was living with people who were Roman Catholics and of the Bahia faith – both false religions.

After I told her the activity in her dreams was demonic she said she bound it and commanded it never to return. However, before that she had said that she knows when she doesn't orgasm with her husband that a few days or so and she'll be able to orgasm in her dreams. To me she wasn't serious about wanting to get it out of her life. The demon pleases her more than her husband does. This woman believes she is saved. In fact she teaches the Hebrew Roots Movement. She's trying to live under the law, all the while believing she's saved. She's not saved and neither is her husband.

I shared to her that I thought she was having difficulty with her husband because her sex life was being stolen through her dreams. Her sex life with her husband would improve and heal if she was not interacting sexually with the demonic.

I will do a separate teaching at another time about sleeping with demons. It is real, it is possible and it does happen. What they have shown us in the movies and we all thought was just sci-fi type of stuff is actually true. The spirit realm is deeper than we can even understand.

If you are being pleased in your sleep and there is no physical contact with anyone else in the room, but you believe it to be a dream...please understand that it is real, and it is a demon that you are interacting with. You have to go through the steps to break it off and out of your life. If you are not serious and are not ready for it to stop, then it won't. When this type of thing happens, you have to get to the root of it to get it stopped. You have to look back over your life and think about past sins and ask forgiveness and break off any ties through generational curses or soul ties. If you are sinning against God, it does open doors for demonic activity. You must repent which is stop the sin, ask forgiveness and break off connections with the demonic.

UNEQUALLY YOKED

Just as soul ties can be created in non-believers sexual relationships, close friendships, associations, vows and commitments, a believer can be vulnerable to soul ties when they do not obey God. Anytime we don't obey God, it is sin against Him.

God's Word teaches us that we are not to be unequally yoked in marriage or in our close friendships and relationships. Associating closely with unbelievers can create ungodly soul ties giving their demons access to you.

God told us not to be unequally yoked with unbelievers for our benefit. When you become a Christian you leave your ungodly friends behind. If you keep associating with them they will more than likely bring you down and keep you in a sinful life.

1 Cor. 15:33 – Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners (bad company corrupts good character).

We need to teach our children what God expects concerning sex, virginity and marriage. And we need to teach them the consequences of having ungodly friendships.

You've heard these clichés – “don't rub elbows with them” or “they will rub off on you.” You are known for the company you keep.

Prov.22:24-25 – Make no friendship with an angry man (hot tempered person); and with a furious man thou shalt not go: Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul (or you will learn to be like them and endanger your soul).

When you have close relationships with people, anyone, believer or non-believer, you begin to talk alike, think alike, act alike. That is why God's Word tells us not to keep bad company. Sooner or later you will begin to be like them.

1 Cor.5:11-13 – But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator (sexually immoral), or covetous (greedy), or an idolater, or a railer (slanderer or abusive), or a drunkard, or an extortioner (cheats people); with such an one no not to eat. For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within? But them that are without God judgeth (God will judge those on the outside of the church or that is the unsaved). Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person (Expel the wicked person from among you).

Just to explain the last part about putting away that wicked person from among them. The church is open to everyone. We learn and grow in Christ and are disciplined in a true church. Unbelievers are welcome in hopes that after they hear God's plan of salvation, the gospel message, they come on and get saved. If there is someone in the church who claims to be a Christian and they are living in openly known sin and the elders and the pastor have spoken with them privately and shown them in the Bible where it is written regarding what they are doing. Then after a time, if they do not want to let go of their sin, they must be brought before the church and expelled from the church.

NLT verse 12

It isn't my responsibility to judge outsiders, but it certainly is your responsibility to judge those inside the church who are sinning.

You must not keep company with your old ungodly friends once you are saved. Break your ungodly friendships and acquaintances. Start to live a righteous life and make new friends. You are a new creation and as the Holy Spirit works in your life you will no longer have things in common with your old friends. Many people make the mistake of thinking they can stand for Jesus and still hang out with their old friends. What usually happens is that the old friends will draw you away from Christ and draw you back into a life of sin.

Prov.13:19-21 – The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul (it is sweet to see dreams come true): but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil (but fools refuse to depart from evil to attain them). He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed. Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repayed.

UNEQUALLY YOKED in MARRIAGE

Notice spiritually there are two representations here. They are not the same and that is a problem. I'm using this to represent unequally yoked marriages.

Paul taught in Corinthians that the partner who is saved sanctifies the other who is not saved to bring forth acceptable seed ie children. (1 Cor.7:12-16)

Praise God for those of you who are in unequally yoked marriages, that God protects the one who is saved, the one who belongs to Him through Christ. The believer is sealed by the Holy Spirit, we are in the hands of Christ. So even though the unbeliever has demonic activity in their life, their demons do not transfer to their spouse. It is still a struggle in a home like that because the two will be at odds because they serve different masters. (Matt.6:24)

CLOSING

The demons are passed from person to person and they are on the inside. Their work is to boss from inside and start controlling the outside. To possess that person. They want to hinder that person from a healthy relationship. Think about what I shared about the woman who is sleeping with demons. They are performing better than her husband and so she likes to drift off to sleep and have these sort of dreams. They are not dreams, but it is real interaction with demons ie. fallen angels.

The demons that are transferred through soul ties can cause you to have illness, personal setbacks, opportunities that fall through, failed relationships or any number of things. They come in to wreak havoc in your life. They want to steal, kill and destroy.

The final intent of those demons is to try and take the person back into that sin again against God. If they get saved and have not broken off those soul ties, it can wreck their marriage. The demonic link to the other person can cause them to go off and cheat on their spouse or any number of things simply because they do not know how to break off the demonic attachment. If not careful many people end up backsliding. That's because they go back to those sinful relationships. All sexual immorality is a sin against God and adulterers and fornicators will not be in heaven.
