

NEW AGE Pt.13: MEDITATION, KUNDALINI, YOGA, DEMONIC ANOINTING in the CHURCH

Let's pick up where we left off last week talking about the kundalini, awakening the serpent force.

Please excuse this naked man. Notice the two snakes wrapped around and going up the spine – just like the symbol for medicine. Until they reach the pineal gland or what occultists call the third eye. Then at that point they say enlightenment happens. You see all the lines or rays of energy bursting out of the crown chakra which shows wings for reaching divinity and they have the winged sun disk above this guys head, an Egyptian occult symbol. Remember those snakes wrapped around the pole on the private part of the baphomet that I showed last week. Now we see the same symbolism wrapped up with this kundalini serpent force or serpent power.

The research says that kundalini opens new pathways in the nervous system; the pain associated with this apparently is due to the nervous system's inability to immediately cope with the energy. Yogis assert that the body must be properly attuned for kundalini through yoga, and that a premature or explosive awakening can cause insanity or death. There's our bad fruit again you guys. This is an invitation to the demonic to activate in the person's life that is practicing this. This is not for Christians at all. Notice it can cause you to go insane and it can cause you to die. That is not of God, it is evil and not holy. God's Holy Spirit is never going to cause you pain.

Research: When we open our practice with the adi mantra. (adi by the way is a name of a demon), incorporate another specific mantra, use hand mudras, invoke a spiritual energy meditation, or practice kundalini yoga poses, we can awaken the energy.

But, is it safe? Yes and no. Keep in mind, while awakening the kundalini is safe, it isn't something that should be taken lightly. Those who study transpersonal psychology have monitored the effects of psychosis caused by rising kundalini in those who are unprepared. Many people experience this as a traumatic kundalini awakening, or something even more scary.

Think of a sudden and unprecedented change in your life. This can happen due to sudden physical and emotional stress or trauma and is referred to as kundalini syndrome. You can read more about the symptoms of kundalini syndrome and if you feel you may be experiencing any of these symptoms of unwarned and unprepared kundalini energy rising please seek consultation from a professional.

Me: So if you attempt this and you go insane or you have great pain, then you should get help. From who? A mental institution? The instructors who teach this and practice it themselves are not going to help you and cannot help you because they don't have Jesus. A mental institution isn't going to help. You need real salvation through Jesus Christ and deliverance at that point.

Listen to some of the things they say can take place because of trying to awaken kundalini. One notable characteristic of these lesser awakenings is that the individual thinks, acts, and feels remarkably different. Symptoms may involve involuntary and spasmodic body movements and postures; pain; abnormal breathing patterns; paralysis; tickling itching; vibrating sensations; hot and cold sensations; inner sounds, such as roaring, whistling, and chirping; insomnia; hypersensitivity to environment; unusual or extremes of emotions; intensified sex drive; distortion of thought processes; detachment; disassociation; sensations of physical expansion; and out-of-body experiences (OBEs). This is all demonic. Such experienced awakenings are difficult to definitely define though because scientific research of kundalini energy is still in its embryonic stages, little is known of the energy's nonphysical nature, and many of its symptoms are similar to those associated with mental disturbances and stress.

Me: Mental disturbances and stress doesn't sound like anything that anyone should even chance by messing around with it.

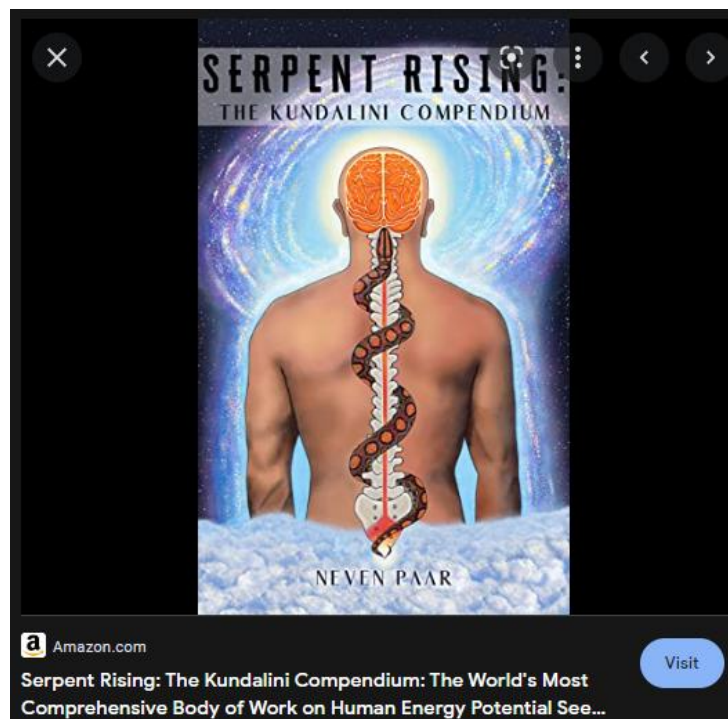

Listen to this blatant lie – kundalini is the Sanskrit name for the fire of the Pentecost that empowers and awakens the apostles; it is the serpent raised by Moses. Kundalini is the energetic basis of becoming an angel, Buddha, master, etc.

Kundalini is not the same as the fire that was poured out at Pentecost. That fire was the Holy Spirit and those that The Holy Spirit rested on were baptized into the Holy Spirit on that day. It was not the divine feminine energy or mother goddess of the Hindu religion. They are not the same. One time the Israelites were complaining against God Numbers 21:5-9 – And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread (horrible manna). So the LORD sent fiery serpents (venomous snakes) among the people, and they bit the people; and many of the people of Israel died. Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray unto the LORD, that He take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people. And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live. And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

This was a one-time event. It was a picture of what Jesus would do in the future for all of mankind by becoming a curse, so we could be blessed and have eternal life. The Bible tells us that every man that is hanged on a tree is cursed. The cross is made from a tree. (Gal.3:13, Deut.21:23) Sadly, back in Moses day the people then began to worship that serpent. They turned the snake into an idol instead of turning to God Who was the One that healed them. (2 Kings 18:4) I'm sure the pagans worship of serpents influenced their sin in this area also. Be careful when you find yourself mad at God or complaining against Him or His ministers. Be quick to ask forgiveness and make things right with God because we serve the same God, He has not changed. (Malachi 3:6, James 1:17)

Let's look at some pictures that are very telling about this kundalini yoga and kundalini meditation.

Kundalini awakening – awaken kundalini energy, improve psychic abilities, intuition, higher consciousness, third eye, expand mind power, heal your body through kundalini yoga and chakra meditation – By Serenity Marcus. These abilities or gifts are satanic in nature.

Even if New Agers are not contributing their awakening experience to the kundalini spirit, it is still a demonic experience. Even if they did not do what was called kundalini yoga or kundalini meditation, whatever practice they used to seek enlightenment outside of Jesus, was demonic in nature and the experiences they are having are with fallen angels.

Notice the word initiation used here. Freemasons, witches, Jesuits – satan’s servants all take initiations. These people will say anything to get people involved in this. The truth is that you will have a mystical / supernatural experience but it is completely demonic. It may start off feeling great but the end of it is going to be destruction.

The 3 Major Nadis (rivers) and the 7 Chakras (wheels of energy)

The 3 major nadis (rivers) and the 7 chakras (wheels of energy). I want to read the top portion of this chart. Remember this is Hinduism. The moon, Shakti, right brain (negative) feminine / The sun, Shiva, left brain (positive) masculine / Pingala nadi: sun, right nostril / ida nadi: moon, left nostril. Do you see how ridiculous this is. In some of these meditation practices you breathe through one side of the nose and then you exhale through the other and do various patterns of inhaling and exhaling. It is all in worship of Hindu gods. Look at the bottom of the person, it says kundalini – shakti rises to meet Shiva at 6th chakra – that is at the third eye.

To activate the unconscious means to awaken the divine, the devi (goddess), kundalini – to begin the development of the suprapersonal within the individual in order to kindle the light of the gods. Kundalini, which is to be awakened in the sleeping muladhara world, is the suprapersonal, the non-ego. For this kundalini is the same principal as the soter, the savior serpent of the Gnostic...Dr. Carl Jung

Carl Jung was another big New Age influencer. He just called the serpent the savior, this matches what Blavatsky said about the serpent in the Garden of Eden. She said satan is the serpent in Genesis and that he is the savior. Notice on the right side there is the shape of a huge eye and in the inside is a serpent with the head of a lion and his head is over the image of the sun and there is also another sun image there and a sliver of a moon too. The serpent and the lions symbolize sun gods and the moon symbolizes moon gods. Or shiva for the sun and shakti for the moon.

Yaldabaoth is frequently called "the Lion-faced", leontoeides, and is said to have the body of a serpent. The demiurge is also described as having a fiery nature, applying the words of Moses to him: "the Lord our God is a burning and consuming fire".

Yaldabaoth is frequently called "the lion-faced", leontoeides, and is said to have the body of a serpent. The demiurge is also described as having a fiery nature, applying the words of Moses to him: "the Lord our God is a burning and consuming fire". Look at how they take what is holy and about the God of the Bible and boldly apply it to satan. Our God is an all consuming fire! (Heb.12:29) This image right here has nothing to do with the I Am that I Am nor to Jesus Christ. We don't relate them to a serpent in any way, shape or form.

When you look at the gods of Egypt and the pharaohs you see them with the cobra on their forehead and wearing a cobra hood like when the cobra flares. The serpent represents satan and those that serve him, the fallen angels.

*Please play from :31 to 24:26 and from 26:01 to the end – Andrew Strom has put together some great research exposing a false kundalini anointing or you can say a demonic anointing and transference of demons being spread in apostate churches or that is in satan’s churches. Let’s listen and hear how this latest false anointing and transference of demons got started and take a look at what some of the manifestations of kundalini look like. STOP

Shocking footage of what has invaded the church will be shown in this video. It looks very similar to the kundalini in Hinduism, the New Age cults and eastern religions. Andrew shares that he has been part of the charismatic movement for over 25 years and has been part of the prophetic movement for 11 years. He saw all of this incredibly disturbing and alarming stuff coming in while he was involved in those movements. He begins with Rodney Howard Brown and says he first heard of him in about 1993 or 1994. He was holding huge meetings in the U.S. and was very popular, starting to have a huge influence with his drunkenness, calling himself The Holy Ghost bartender. He would lay his hands on people imparting to them this laughter or wave his hands and have people and this laughter would overcome them or shaking or uncontrollable jerking or fall down. All of these manifestations were starting to happen. There is a clip of Rodney with Kenneth Copeland acting like fools. They are supposedly speaking in tongues but these are not godly tongues. And they are just acting drunk and out of their minds. He became huge in the Word of Faith movement because he is a huge prosperity preacher. Then he shows a clip of Rodney imparting the spirit of drunkenness and laughter into some of the biggest “leaders” in the church. (They are satan’s ministers). This was in Tulsa, OK. The biggest “Word of Faith” prosperity preachers. Looks like Oral Roberts at the center to me. A guy called Randy Clark came down, saw what was happening, got this impartation, got the anointing himself and took it into The Vineyard Movement. Todd Bentley describes how Randy received a “spark” in Tulsa and in Lakeland and came down and just weeks later God used him as the fire starter for the Toronto out pouring and the Toronto Blessing in 1994. Then he invites Randy to come on stage. So this false demonic anointing entered into the Toronto Airport Vineyard Church and became known as The Toronto Blessing. It went worldwide under that name, The Toronto Blessing. Everyone knew what that was about. People falling down, acting drunken, laughing hysterically, shaking uncontrollably, jerking backwards and forwards, their heads shaking back-n-forth, people roaring like lions, people even making animal noises. This stuff had never been seen in the church on this scale before and it invaded worldwide. All around the world, especially in the common wealth countries, England, The UK, Australia, New Zealand, Canada and all through Europe, all of the charismatic movement was into this stuff. This thing became a worldwide sensation just in a couple of years. Then he moves into speaking about Hinduism, kundalini and kriyas. He says, the big question that we are asking in this documentary is why are the manifestations so similar to Eastern religion manifestations and Hinduism and the Kundalini cults and yet they are not found in Scripture they are not found in the Bible or classical Christianity at all. In Hinduism the most common way of experiencing a kundalini awakening is through a guru placing his hand upon your forehead. This is called a shaktiphat. (Transferring spiritual energy from one person to another / The satanic version of laying on of hands.) When they do this you will be infused with the wave of love and this incredible emotion and you will fall down there will be all these manifestations, maybe animal noises. A joy and weeping and shaking. This is a kundalini awakening and amazing it is exactly the same as what we have been seeing in The Toronto Blessing. It all began with Rodney Howard Brown imparting this “new anointing” into a bunch of leaders. And then they spread it around the world, in fact it spread like wild fire. How do we know that Rodney had a pure anointing, how do we know it was not a kundalini spirit because it seems absolutely identical to it. One of the very clear signs of a kundalini awakening has always been these kriyas. He shows a woman who is involved in The New Age Movement walking along exhibiting kriyas. Uncontrolled spastic movements. We are seeing time and again these same type of kriyas right through the Toronto Movement. His friend from of his from South Africa who has done a tremendous amount of research on this topic says that kundalini is like a false Holy Spirit. It produces miracles and healings and infusions of love and power and energy and all these kind of things and yet it is the Hindu version of the Holy Spirit and it’s not holy. He talks of the Bible warning us that in the last days there will be deception, seducing spirits and perilous times will come. And that there will be lying signs and wonders. Soberness, sobriety, being alert, being watchful is what it says to us all the way through the prophecies of the last days. Here we are in the last days and what do we have on our hands? We have a movement that’s promoting weird and bizarre signs and wonders, we have a movement promoting drunkenness, when we are told to be sober in the last days. It’s promoting all sorts of whacked out spiritual experiences and we are warned to watch out for seducing spirits. The Bible even says if possible the very elect themselves would be deceived. So I don't want to be taking any chances with deceiving spirits in the last days. If it's weird, if it looks like Hinduism or some eastern religion I don't want any part of it. The church should have shut it out and said NO – this is exactly what we are warned about in Scripture. In part two it begins with people acting crazy and a woman howling into a microphone. Charism magazine was right behind – in approval. (They are satan's servants as well). Another "revival" took off in Brownsville Pensacola. He says it had real repentance preaching but it also had a lot of this truly bizarre stuff as well. In 2008 came the biggest one of all. Todd Bentley in The Lakeland Revival. This false revival went around the world – televised into 214 nations a night. They were going 10 hours a day in Florida. The same bizarre manifestations were seen there too. Todd Bentley credited Randy Clark for this outpouring and then he invited him on stage. He says, I see some of you already have like 110 flowing, God make it 220. Thousands of leaders and Christians from all over the world were coming to Lakeland to get an impartation of this spirit. Todd Bentley said his focus was that he lays hands on every single person that comes each night and says "God give it away, give it away, give it away." He said, that's the focus here, impartation. June 23, 2008 they held a special commissioning ceremony for Todd Bentley, live at Lakeland with biggest spiritual leaders. Peter Wagner and Rick Joyner were there. Peter Wagner said this represents a powerful spiritual transaction taking place in the invisible world. Then he said he takes the apostolic authority that God has given me and I decree to Todd Bentley – "your power will increase, your authority will increase, your favor will increase, your influence will increase, your revelation will increase...Only weeks later Todd Bentley's movement completely fell apart. Then on July 9, ABC nightline had a special on the Todd Bentley revival. This was the beginning of the end of the revival. They could not supply actual information of anyone that had been healed. Then it came out that Todd Bentley was divorcing his wife and was having an affair with a female staff member. Things began to fall apart at that point, Charisma magazine even said it wasn't supposed to end this way. Then Rick Joyner of Morning Star ministries started fast tracking to restore Todd Bentley and get him back on stage again. Then we see Todd on stage with his new wife and she is shaking her head uncontrollably telling the audience about a "spiritual dream." These same spasmodic head movements in Hinduism are taken as a sure sign of a kundalini awakening. He then talks about how the leaders in the church have no discernment. ((This man does not seem to be aware that the ministers on tv are satan's servants – of course they want to spread this satanic anointing all over the world.)) He explains that he is a charismatic, tongues speaking, Pentecostal believer himself. He is not against the gifts of the Spirit. He wants to see more and more people filled with the Spirit of God. Full of the Holy Ghost. John Scotland at Toronto Airport Church is shown at the pulpit acting completely drunk. Saying it is the Holy Spirit who is making him act like this. Then we see John Crowder acting drunk and ridiculous and he says "Lord I love your heavy drunken glory". Then he says he firmly believes in "token the Ghost, have a little Jehovajuana". (What a mockery!) He says, "It's free, you just reach in your pocket and it's there". Then he pulled an air joint to his mouth as if he was smoking The Holy Spirit. He and his buddies hold something called "Slosh Fest" each year attracting hundreds and hundreds of people where they come and act ridiculous, laughing, drunk, shaking, making animals noises etc. Then a scene of the "drunkenness" going on at Bill Johnson's church, Bethel in Redding, California is shown. Bill Johnson is author of the book "When Heaven invades Earth." (This is New Age speak for "bring heaven down to earth".) This is now one of the major centers for this drunkenness false anointing in North America. They specialize in what is called a fire tunnel where they impart this anointing to all the young people. They show a scene taking place in the church and it looks and sounds like utter confusion and chaos. They also openly endorsed and promoted Todd Bentley and the Lakeland Revival. These apostate churches all work together. Another major center where this drunkenness false anointing is being imparted is IHOP, International House of Prayer in Kansas City. They say this "Holy Spirit drunkenness" is just like in Acts chapter 2. Andrew said, no it isn't. The Holy Spirit was poured out and other people heard them speaking in other languages and they said maybe these people are drunk. It wasn't because they were reeling around and acting drunk. The Bible warns us again and again in the last days not to be drunk but to be sober and vigilant. Why is the charismatic movement giving itself over to acts that seem the opposite of being sober and the opposite of holiness? In fact they look outright like paganism. A lot of this stuff has a real New Age feel to it. In fact when you go to John Crowder's website, he openly advertises his mystical schools where people can learn to operate in trances, raptures, in prophetic prayer, mysticism, spirit travel and every other New Age sounding thing you can imagine. Christian leaders all over the world are promoting these ministries. (That is because they are satan's churches and his anointing is going out.) People are being deceived to believe in guided visualization, astral travel, centering prayer, stigmata, contemplative prayer and all kinds of New Age practices. They call them different names like spirit travel and contemplative prayer to hide how totally New Age they are.

Many people when they see this “stuff” they go right over to the other extreme, they don’t want any part of miracles, or prophecy, they want no part of a supernatural God. God does do miracles, they are holy miracles. God does do supernatural things but they have a holy character about them. Even angels do visit people from time to time, they are holy angels. *(about 26 min’s)

CLOSING

God doesn’t zap us or shock us just to entertain us. He doesn’t do tricks or miracles just because we want to see one. There are people that are chasing a feeling, an experience, a miracle etc. and they are the very ones falling for this demonic anointing. The Bible tells us we are not to seek after signs. (Matt.12:38-39) The anointing, baptism and moves of The Holy Spirit do not look like any of what you just saw. You can be slain in the Spirit and if The Holy Spirit does that, it will not look like what you just saw. When you are baptized into The Holy Spirit, you can feel a great joy whelming up on the inside, or you may cry or there may be no outward show at all. The baptism is different for each person. What you just saw is a false fire, a lying spirit and false demonic anointing. If you are in a church where things like this are taking place you should get out of that church. Always be careful about the minister or person that you allow to lay hands on you. Be sure you know what God they serve and you know about their walk with the Lord Jesus. Stay in God’s Word and test the spirits (1 John 4:1-6) as we are told to do and pray for more godly discernment. The Bible tells us not to be drunk but to be filled with The Spirit (Eph.5:18). The Holy Spirit doesn’t make us laugh uncontrollably or cause us to stumble around and slur our words like a drunk. He will never cause God’s minister not to be able to minister. That is all coming from satan.
