

SATAN'S HIGH HOLY FEAST DAY Pt 2: SAMHAIN, HALLOWEEN, TRICK or TREAT, JACK-O-LANTERNS, DIVINATION

samhain was known in Ireland as the “lord of darkness.” The druid religion was practiced by ancient Celtic tribes that populated Ireland and parts of Europe. This religion worshipped samhain, the “lord of darkness.” Some writings also speak of samhain as the lord of the dead.

The druid new year began on November 1st. It is also known as the “Feast of samhain.” The Celts only recognized summer and winter seasons. Translated, samhain means “summer’s end.” At this time, the hours of nighttime were growing significantly over the hours of sunlight. Hence, lord samhain reigned over the long winter months, as the influence of the sun god and the summer season (Beltane) preceeded and died down. samhain’s influence grows with the increase in the hours of darkness. He can only roam the earth during hours of darkness.

Me: This is the same nonsense the druids / witches believe and practice about the oak king who rules through spring and summer until the holly king begins to rule at the winter solstice, the holly king rules the darker half of the year just like samhain.

The druid's New Year's Eve was hallow E'en, (also called Hallowmas). The druids believed that on this night, all of the people who died in the past year would rise up and search for the passageway to the netherworld. On this night the passageway or "veil" between both worlds was its thinnest. lord samhain would roam the earth in search of these souls to capture them and take them to his world of darkness.

To this day, some people put lights in their windows to help the dead find their way and keep lord samhain away from taking them.

No druid god was more powerful, nor more feared, than lord samhain. The change from one year to the Celtic new year was called the feast of samhain. As Christians we know that all of this is describing satan and since modern day halloween morphed out of this feast we understand that all that halloween stands for is in honor and worship to satan.

Halloween started as the Druid festival called Samhain or the feast of samhain. Halloween (Samhain) is the chief demonic festival set up by the Druids to worship Baal. baal is the same demonic spirit worshipped by Muslims as Allah, Greeks as Zeus, and Romans as Jupiter, as well as the Hindu chief God called Shiva. The Druids, Wiccans and Muslims all worship baal. baal is satan.

The Druids believed in a supreme god, whom they called Be' al, meaning "the source of all beings." The symbol of this supreme being was fire. But the Druids also worshiped many lesser gods. The Druids taught that the human soul was immortal and that, upon death, it passed into the body of a newborn child.

The druids believed in a supreme god, whom they called be'al, meaning "the source of all beings." The symbol of this supreme being was fire. But the druids also worshipped many lesser gods. The druids taught that the human soul was immortal and that, upon death, it passed into the body of a newborn child.

Baal is in our Bibles, the pagan nations surrounding the Israelites served him and we read throughout the Bible time and again the Israelites were serving him too. He required human sacrifice, usually it was child sacrifice that they did in worship to him. Baal is none other than satan. He is always mocking God because he wanted to be God. Notice his symbol was fire and Scripture tells us that our God is an all consuming fire. (Heb.12:29) And here, they are giving him a title meaning the source of all beings. That is a lie, Jesus is The Creator of everything. (Col.1:16, John 1:1-5) The teaching about the soul dying and coming back in the body of a newborn child is just Hinduism's reincarnation. That's a false teaching. It is appointed unto man once to die and then comes the judgement. (Heb.9:27-28)

Revelation 9:11 - And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

satan has many names and titles, we just read two of them in this passage of Scripture, abaddon and apollyon or apollo. samhain is the lord of the dead who is none other than satan himself. The king of the bottomless pit, or the abyss is satan and he is the lord of the dead and therefore he is also samhain aka as the lord of darkness.

The end of October through the first week of November, all of the so called celebrations, are in honor and worship of satan with the highest form of worship, a human sacrifice and especially a child sacrifice, still being practiced today by the luciferians, witches and freemasons. They are the druids of today. They are still making sacrifices to please satan at this time of the year.

Irene Park, a former witch, has explained some of the practices of the druids:

Trick or Treat: "The Druids in Ireland would go through the neighborhoods and countryside on the eve of October 31 to collect offerings for satan. They would carry lanterns, bags for money, and canes with very sharp points on the ends (currently known as leprechaun staffs, good luck horns, or fairies' wands). At each house they would demand a specific amount. If the house would not give the offering (penance or treat), the Druid would use his cane to castrate the male human or one of their prize animals." - Irene Park

The souls of the dead kin were also thought to revisit their homes seeking hospitality, and a place was set at the table for them during a meal. Mumming and guising were part of the festival from at least the early modern era, whereby people went door-to-door in costume reciting verses in exchange for food. The costumes may have been a way of imitating, and disguising oneself from, the aosi (fairies, evil spirits). Divination was also a big part of the festival and often involved nuts and apples. In the late 19th century John Rhys and James Frazer suggested it had been the "Celtic New Year", but that is disputed.

The spirits that were summoned this time of year were to be provided with suitable food and shelter or else they would cast spells, cause havoc, steal infants, destroy crops, kill farm animals and create terror as they haunted the living. The spirits demanded placating by giving them a type of worship and offering. This is the action that “Trick-or-Treat” emulates today. The community also sacrificed animals and offered fruits and vegetables so the spirits would keep their distance.

The druids wanted a human sacrifice and as they went house to house they would ask the master of the house to provide a human sacrifice.

If the house gave a human to be sacrificed, a large pumpkin was hallowed out, with the smiling face of samhain carved into it, and a candle of human tallow was placed inside." - Gene Aven "Halloween" This was used as a sign to let the evil spirits know that this home had provided a proper sacrifice. Human tallow is fat from the person's body.

Also because the people were so superstitious, they would carve out pumpkins or turnips and place candles in them to ward off the evil spirits.

Look at what we are doing today. These were horrific symbols of what was taking place with the human sacrifices, murdering to appease satan. Here we are today painting them, decorating them with smiling faces, lights and using carving kits to make all kinds of pictures in them. The picture on the top left, the words on the board in the background say: The witches be killing you on halloween. This is a true statement and yet we think it is all fun and games.

We put jack-o-lanterns out in our yards as decoration not even realizing they are very wicked symbols of worship to satan and drawing points for demonic entry into this realm. The jack-o-lanterns are directly linked to human sacrifice and evil spirits.

We have even drug Jesus into satan's high holy feast day. Pumpkins and gourds were glowing with human tallow inside from a sacrifice or they were set out to try and ward off evil spirits. Now churches and so called Christians are carving the image of Jesus into them. You cannot christianize something that is in honor of satan and an abomination to God. The root of everything being done in halloween celebrations comes from the occult, from what the druids did in worship of satan.

HEX - If a sacrifice was not willingly provided, the home was cursed by placing a six-pointed star enclosed in a circle upon the door. An evil spirit would make this his point of entrance to take the victim's life. This drawing of the hexagram is where we get the phrase "putting a hex on someone." This is a highly demonized symbol and it does draw demons to it.

The townspeople tried many things to protect themselves from the "living dead." They began dressing up in ways that they would look like the wicked spirits in order to "trick" them into believing that they were the same. They also were able to enlarge their empty cupboards with food for the winter because they went door to door receiving offerings.

When you dress up like the dead, or put wicked masks on, you are drawing death to yourself and drawing evil spirits into your life. There is nothing beautiful or fun about it. It pleases satan when we stay in ignorance about how he operates.

AUGURY and DIVINATION

For the druids, samhain was both `the end of summer`and the `festival of the dead.` Divination and auguries for the new year were practiced at samhain.

Divination – the practice of seeking knowledge of the future or the unknown by supernatural means. Those who practice this are seeking to satan and the fallen angels to know what they can reveal about the future, they are not seeking Jesus or The Word of God to know what He says but rather they are working directly with demons.

These men predict the future by observing the flight and calls of birds and by the sacrifice of holy animals: all orders of society are in their power...and in very important matters they prepare a human victim, plunging a dagger into his chest; by observing the way his limbs convulse as he falls and the gushing of his blood, they are able to read the future. This is murder and witchcraft plain and simple. The witches divine through many things like tarot cards, tea leaves, a crystal ball etc. but augury seems to be divining through the use of animals.

BOBBING for APPLES and GAMES

There were a lot of games and divination practiced at this time of year. These magical practices concerned such questions as who would die during the next year, the identity of future marriage partners and the chances of good fortune. It was also an occasion when fairies, witches and goblins terrified the populace. -

Vintage Halloween Card - Superstition

This is a vintage Halloween card. You see a different version of bobbing for apples. It says “Bite it and you will have a successful year.”

Among the ancient Celts, Halloween was the last evening of the year and was regarded as a propitious time for examining the portents of the future. The Celts also believed that the spirits of the dead revisited their earthly homes on that evening. After the Romans conquered Britain, they added Halloween features of the Roman harvest festival held on November 1 in honor of Pomona, goddess of the fruits of the trees, thus came the association with apples and bobbing for them.

Learn not the way of the heathen - Jer.10:2

Halloween

The root of apple bobbing is divination / witchcraft.

Introduced by the Romans to honor their goddess Pomona. The first one to bite into an apple would be the first one to be married in the coming year.

Learn not the way of the heathen. Jer.10:2 The root of apple bobbing is divination which is witchcraft. Introduced by the Romans to honor their goddess Pomona. The first one to bite into the apple was an indication through divination that they would be married first in the coming year. The Celts incorporated this into their samhain feast.

Apple peeling was used to see how long your life would be. The longer the unbroken apple peel, the longer your life would be. This again was a divination practice.

You Are Sure to See SOMETHING in the Flames

This is a vintage halloween ad. Would you know whom you are destined to wed? Build a ghost fire hallowe' en. You are sure to see something in the flames / ashes. See the crazy witch behind them and look at the smoke, you can see the silhouette of men's faces.

On halloween look in the glass, your future husband's face will pass. This is superstition and witchcraft. She's standing there holding the candle and you can see the witch's shadow in the background and demonically a man appears in the mirror image beside her.

CLOSING

Deut.:18:10-12 – There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee. Thou shalt be perfect with the LORD thy God. For these nations, which thou shalt possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath not suffered thee so to do.

God forbids human sacrifice but satan requires it. In Old Testament times the Israelites were sacrificing their children to baal. (Jeremiah 7:31, 19:5, Lev.20:1-8) Those that serve him today are still doing this same practice at this time of year even if you can't believe it.

Divination or clairvoyance is fortune telling, looking into the future. An observer of times is someone who uses astrology to try and divine future events or to tell people about their personalities. An enchanter can be called a sorcerer too and is a hypnotist. A witch can be called a sorcerer, someone casting spells on people and controlling them with their mind – telekinesis. Enchanters, witches, charmers and sorcerers to me are all about the same – practicing witchcraft or magic. A consulter with familiar spirits is a medium, someone who asks spirits to guide them. A wizard is a male witch. A necromancer uses familiar spirits to tell the future. Necromancy is the practice of magic involving communication with the dead by summoning their spirits as apparitions or visions for the purpose of divination.

Halloween celebrates everything God condemns. Witches – Exodus 22:18, Vampires - Leviticus 7:26-27, Ghosts – Leviticus 19:31, Wizards – Deuteronomy 18:11.

God still forbids His children to have anything to do with any of these practices today. Everything about halloween is based on the occult and what the druids did to worship and appease satan with sacrifices. If you truly love and serve Jesus then you cannot participate in this satanic filth on any level. REPENT! Ask forgiveness, burn and destroy all decorations, costumes, masks and anything to do with halloween. Ask God to break any demonic attachments and demonic activity that came into your life because of participating in this wickedness. Ask God to give you strength to please Him and not worry what man thinks. (Gal.1:10) Those that rejected you and ostracized you will be sorry about it when they stand before Christ in judgement.
