

STRONG DELUSION Pt. 4: TARGETING, MANDELA EFFECT, EVOLUTION, NO SATAN, NO HELL

TARGETED or TARGETING

Is targeting the strong delusion? My father heard a voice tell him that Jesus was not the Son of God. And from that time on he didn't want anything to do with Jesus. I believe my father could have been an unwilling participant in Project Artichoke which is mind control conducted by the military. One aspect was that they also used psychiatrists in this mind control experiment. I have done some background research and my father fits perfectly into the time frame that this went on. He was in the army, stationed in Germany during the time this project was being conducted. Early on after he got out of the army and had married my mom he had a nervous breakdown and just so happened he wound up going to a Jewish psychiatrist that went to one of the schools that participated in all of this. They were trained in how to play their roles in the experiment.

I have met several targeted individuals who know about their targeting. Most of us are targeted to some degree especially if you have military or government connections. People are murdered through targeting in different ways all the time. They targeted Ted Gunderson and took him out when he started exposing the government's involvement in Satanism. There are a lot of people that do not even know they are being targeted and if they are Christians and even die from their targeting, it doesn't mean they are damned to hell.

Having said that I do want to say that I believe people can be deceived through targeting as my dad was and if you believe the voices they use, you can wind up in the lake of fire. The frequency technology they use to speak into a person's skull is called V2K. Before my dad died he never spoke of Jesus and did not even allow me to pray with him. It seems that he believed what that voice told him all the way to his grave. Demons can speak to an unsaved person and through the voice of God weapon or V2K the Luciferians can speak to a person and say anything they want to in order to draw that person away from Jesus. Targeting certainly can be strong delusion.

1 John 4:1 - Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

Thinking of the V2K, the voice of God weapon and what the enemy is doing with technology, we had better learn how to test the spirits. How many times do we have to hear someone on tv say God told me to kill this person? That's not of God. He is against murder so we know it was either a demon or technology used against that person. When my dad heard that voice tell him that Jesus is not the Son of God, if he really knew God's Word he could have refuted that and paid no mind to it any further. He could have rebuked that voice or technology and stayed covered and protected by Jesus' blood but he didn't. It is high time we learn God's Word and apply it to our lives. Learn to test the spirits because what the luciferians are doing through technology is more than you can even fathom.

MANDELA EFFECT

Is the Mandela Effect strong delusion?

Drink the mirror. If you do not see 2 realities in play, Mandela effects, signs and wonders, & if life is "same as it ever was" you are likely under the strong delusion! Put on the belt of Truth. The Bible now says that the wolf shall dwell with the lamb!

If you have never heard of the Mandela Effect I encourage you to go to the church website sermons page and search for all the sermons on the Mandela effect. I've put a lot of work in on that one to help you to understand what it is and how it is impacting God's Word, especially the King James translation. It never used to say the wolf will dwell with the lamb in Isaiah 11:6. It used to say the lion shall lie down with the lamb...but not anymore. This is a supernatural change.

The luciferians have been tampering heavily with God's Word. All the way back to the beginning, satan has come against God's Word and he has never stopped and never will until he is finally confined to the lake of fire for all eternity. His ministers pervert God's Word, twist it and leave out truth. For those who have ever memorized God's Word, for those that have truly hidden His Word in their hearts and really were familiar with His Word, you should have eyes to see at least some of the supernatural changes to our translations. All translations are being changed but the KJV is being hit the hardest. I believe that is on purpose to drive people to the newer translations which were changed from the beginning and come against the deity of Christ and many other things. When I refer to the KJV translation, I'm not talking about the original print in 1611 but the revised version from the 1800's. That's the version of KJV we read today. It is changing supernaturally. I believe God will show these things to His children when they seek Him with their whole heart.

One strong example is 1 Corinthians 13. This is called the love chapter and now KJV reads charity. I memorized this chapter when I was a teenager for a program in our local church. Everywhere it says charity, it used to say love and charity and love do not mean the same thing.

The televangelists will never speak of this because how can you defend it and not look crazy or be attacked as if you yourself are trying to discredit God's Word? How can you not cause fear in your congregation if you say that the translations are supernaturally changing? Who knows what changes will happen to the translations in the future.

I have seen shills who say the Mandela Effect is not real, cling to certain scriptures that refer to God's Word being preserved and not changing. That's true. No real Christian or minister would ever argue against or dispute that. God's Word that He has spoken will never change and stands forever.

Isaiah 55:11 - So shall My word be that goeth forth out of My mouth: it shall not return unto Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

God's Word will be accomplished. Let's just say God said a certain city will be destroyed and so Satan's minions do witchcraft through technology and change a translation of that very statement to say that God said He will bless that city. You can know for a certainty that what God really said will happen, the city will be destroyed. Playing with words on paper does not change or nullify God's Word. No one can do anything to change it, no supernatural power or witchcraft can change His spoken word. But these translations of His Word can certainly be changed. Words on paper can be changed supernaturally and ARE changing supernaturally. Aside from the initial revised version of the KJV, I'm not talking about revisions or changes but the first revision of the KJV from the 1800's which I have owned a copy of since the 1980's, that Bible that I own, many of the words in it have now been changed and I have given you a few examples here today and in past teachings.

Can someone be deceived because of the Mandela Effect? I know a woman who quit reading her Bible because she thought it was already pointless. I encouraged her to stay in God's Word because if you know it, The Holy Spirit will help you to remember what it said. But the more you don't read it, the more you are not growing in God's Word, in relationship with Him, in the faith. You become stagnant and ineffective as a Christian.

John 8:31-32 – Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on Him, If ye continue in My word, then are ye My disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

If you are faithful to Jesus' Word then you will know the truth and be set free. The Holy Spirit will show us the truth even if God's Word begins to get so distorted that we cannot make sense out of it. The Holy Spirit is God and He will lead us in the paths of righteousness and show and teach us all we need to know in order to live a righteous life and keep the faith if we will listen to Him.

James 1:22 – But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

If you throw God's Word out and quit reading it, quit feeding on it, pretty soon you won't be doing it, you won't be keeping it and God will not be speaking to you and you will wind up deceived.

By the time the tribulation gets here no telling what these translations will say. People, naysayers, already say that The Bible was written by man. They will continue to attack God's Word and draw people away from it and from Jesus. So far it still says the only way to eternal life is Jesus so the salvation message is still in tact. (John 14:6) It has not changed so much that we cannot still benefit from reading it. It is the main way that God will speak to you, so get in His Word.

EVOLUTION

Is evolution the strong delusion? People who fancy themselves to be intellectuals believe government paid for science which is always against God, and it says there was a big explosion and everything just came together from there. They really don't like faith, but it actually takes a lot of blind faith to believe something like that. They believe that everything morphed from an amoeba that crawled out of the ocean? That's their way of getting God out of the equation.

The Atheist Delusion – Why Millions Deny the Obvious – A Living Waters / Ray Comfort Film. Notice the double helix DNA Strand in the center of the light bulb. They refuse to believe there is a Creator. They refuse to acknowledge God's very on purpose and magnificent design. They refuse to believe there is an order to all of creation – but rather they promote that order came out of chaos, the big bang and that everything was just a big accident. They are mocking God. Order out of chaos is what luciferians adhere to.

Col.1:16-17 - For by Him (Christ) were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him (Christ), and for Him: And He is before all things, and by Him all things consist.

Christ was here before He created anything. Initially there was nothing but God and by God, I mean The Trinity. Jesus made the things we can see and the things we can't see— such as thrones, kingdoms, rulers, and authorities in the unseen world. Yes, those that believe in evolution and never come to Christ, will be damned to hell. They are strongly delusional already. Strong delusion is already at work in a wide variety of ways.

NO SATAN and NO HELL

Is the strong delusion the belief that satan doesn't exist? How about there is no hell. Have you ever heard of these? I have. If you believe in God then you have to believe there is a devil. I believe those that don't want to believe in God have just as easily decided to say satan doesn't exist either. People who don't want to live righteous and obedient lives say there is no hell and that everyone is going to heaven. Clearly those that hold to these theories have not read and studied God's Word at all. Jesus spoke of hell and satan in Scripture quite a bit.

(Matt.25:41-46, Mark 9:43-48, Luke 10:18). Jesus rebuked satan in the wilderness when he was tempting Him. (Matt.4:1-11) Every person will be judged by Christ and there are only two places in the afterlife: eternal life with God in heaven above or hell and then ultimately the lake of fire for all of eternity. The Bible says satan is the god of the bottomless pit and that is hell.

The ones who don't want to believe there is a devil and there is no hell have not come to Christ, they are not saved. If they continue in this line of thinking, yes, they will be damned and that is their delusion.

✦ 2:11 “And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie,”

PEMPO pres act indic –God continually allows them to believe false realities and they harden their hearts.

PISTEUO AAInfin– to believe as a result without question due to their scarred souls (Romans 1:24)

PSEUDEI the lie that man can be a god, he won't die, God and the Bible are wrong, worship of self and Lucifer.

I found this out online as I was putting this sermon together. Thess.2:11 – “And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie,”

From there it seems that they did a word study in the Greek language on part of that passage:

Pempeo should be pempei and pertains to “will send” it is present active indicative – God continually allows them to believe false realities and they harden their hearts.

Pisteuo – pertains to “will believe” Aorist Infinitive Active – to believe as a result without question due to their scarred souls (Romans 1:24)

Pseudei – pertains to “the lie” - the lie that man can be a god, he won't die, God and the Bible are wrong, worship of self and lucifer.

Those are certainly several strong delusions in a nutshell that will cause those who believe it to go into damnation. Men who believe they are god or can be god are under strong delusion already. Those who are desperately struggling not to die, making electronic organs that run outside the body, making clones and inserting their consciousness – body snatching drinking the blood of young children etc. refusing to come to Jesus. It is appointed unto men once to die and after that is judgement. (Heb.9:27) No one is going to escape death unless they happen to live to the time of the rapture and are Christians and are redeemed off the earth through that miraculous event. For those who reject Christ, they will die twice. They will die a physical death and then after they are judged and thrown into the lake of fire they will die another type of death because they will be in eternal torment and punishment.

To say that God and The Bible are wrong is from a calloused heart, a blinded mind. Satan has such a strong hold on their soul they truly are under strong delusion.

Worship of Lucifer is strong delusion. Many have fallen prey to him because they wanted what he had to offer: riches, fame, power, sex etc. We know that he even tempted Jesus and Jesus quoted God's Word back to him, rebuked him and made him leave. (Matt.4:1-11) Worshipping Satan and any of the fallen angels or anyone or anything as a god is idolatry and the idolater will certainly go to hell. Those who worshipped themselves, living for themselves, not bowing and surrendering to Christ and not doing God's will, they are headed to the lake of fire.

Do not fall for these strong delusions.

Here is our Scripture for this sermon series. 2 Thess.2:9-10 – They could be saved, but they will refuse to love the truth and accept it. They would rather keep the blind fold on and stay blinded by the god of this world. (2 Cor.4:4) They would rather stay bound by satan. Jesus is the one Who offers freedom.

There are some things going on right now and that have been going on for years that many people, believers and non-believers, don't know. Just because you are not aware of some deep deception or of some wicked things that are going on, doesn't mean that being oblivious to those things will lead you to damnation. For example not knowing about chemtrails will not damn someone to hell.

CLOSING

Rev.12:9 – And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil, and satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

satan is called the one who deceives the whole world – he's already deceiving the world. That's what he does. He's the father of lies. He is not just going to begin deceiving those who wind up in the tribulation, he's been hard at work for thousands of years already. God can certainly use satan in His strong delusion.
