

SHOCKING TRUTH ABOUT CHRISTMAS Pt.12: VALENTINE'S DAY, PAGAN RITUALS, FERTILITY, SEXUAL IMMORALITY, SACRIFICES

By the time you are seeing this sermon it will be Valentine's Day 2026. Let's have a timely reminder of how the Roman Catholic Church brought all the pagan feast days and festivals into the church without changing anything except the name. They say that giving pagan festivals a new name means they are now "Christianized" and acceptable to God but that is not true. God is holy and will never accept the things done in worship of false gods.

Valentine's Day is another example of what the Roman Catholic Church did in blending Christianity into paganism.

The holiday has origins in the Roman festival of Lupercalia, held in mid-February. The festival, which celebrated the coming of spring, included fertility rites and the pairing off of women with men by lottery. At the end of the 5th century, Pope Gelasius I replaced Lupercalia with St. Valentine's Day.

From Encyclopedia Britannica - The holiday has origins in the Roman festival of Lupercalia, held in mid-February. The festival, which celebrated the coming of spring, included fertility rites and the pairing off of women with men by lottery. At the end of the 5th century, Pope Gelasius I replaced Lupercalia with St. Valentine's Day.

The Roman Catholic Church took the pagan festival Lupercalia and renamed it to St. Valentine's Day. Valentine's Day is yet another example of the renaming of a pagan festival and saying it is now a Christian festival when it never was.

The modern spin is that it is about love. Modern day valentiners believe it is about love but the truth of what went on in ancient times was fertility rituals, orgies, sexual perversion and all sorts of sexual immorality. It was never about love but about sex. When the men and women were paired off they were not having an innocent coffee date or a dinner date. It was sexual in nature.

The Roman Catholic Church masked over the sexual immorality with a seemingly innocent little word which would be acceptable to all, “love.” However, this does not erase the truth of the fertility rituals, sexual perversion and false god worship which is what went on during this ancient festival.

L: Cupid – Tammuz R: King Sargon of Akkad who some believe is Nimrod. Nimrod's son, Tammuz, is also known as cupid – the winged boy and shows his might like his father as a great hunter by the bow and arrow that he is always depicted with. I did a teaching back in 2016 about what Valentine's Day really is and where it came from which you can find on the church website.

Let's get back to Christmas and take a look at some of the rituals and things that went on at the pagan winter solstice festivals.

WINTER SOLSTICE RITUALS

Pagan worship always involved fertility rituals to the gods they served. They were often linked to seasonal changes and included symbolic actions. Festivals like Yule and Saturnalia involved animal sacrifice and at various times also human sacrifice to appease the gods to in a desperate, attempt to secure prosperity and safety during the coldest, darkest part of the year. Fertility rituals were often included to worship these fertility gods at winter solstice and would include symbolic sexual acts or sex magic. Fertility rituals and worship included ritual sex, orgies, and all sorts of sexual immorality. Child sacrifice was done to appease their gods, remember Molech in Scripture certainly received child sacrifices and he is linked to baal and baal is linked to Nimrod and they are all linked to satan. Various offerings and gifts were brought to worship their gods. This included food and drink offerings. They did all of these things hoping for their gods to bless them and make them, their animals and crops fertile and productive. They performed their fertility rites in the groves under the green trees.

During the time between Babel and Christ, pagans developed the belief that the days grew shorter in early winter because their sun-god was leaving them. When they saw the length of the day increasing, they celebrated by riotous, unrestrained feasting and orgies. This celebration, known as Saturnalia, was named after Saturn, another name for Nimrod.

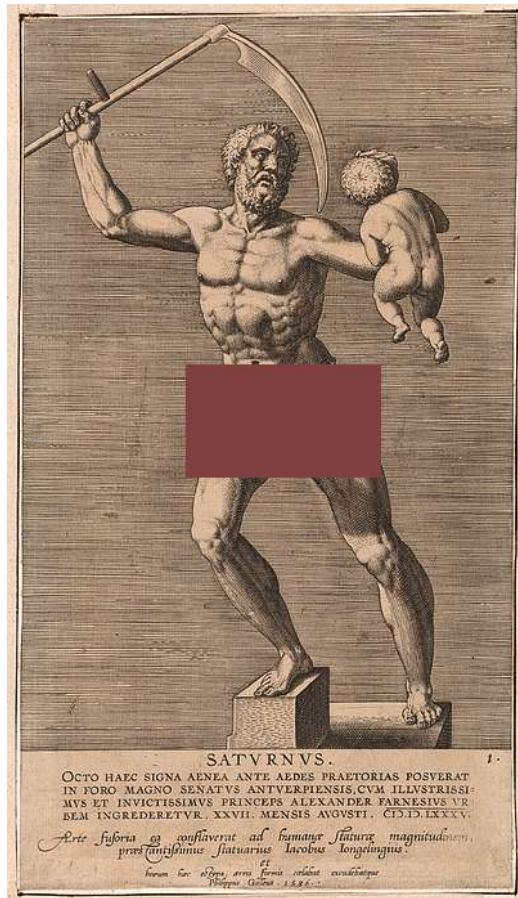

The unrestrained feasting has become a focal point of Christmas. There are all sorts of tips on how not to overeat during the holidays or how to lose all the weight you gained during this time etc.

The ladies are cooking all day before and during the day of Christmas. At the previous church we attended, when Christmas fell on a Sunday, many of them did not come to church. If they truly believed Christmas is all about Jesus, then why were they not in church that day? Instead they were at home cooking and doing last minute wrapping of presents and preparing for family and company to arrive.

The other thing mentioned in Saturnalia is unrestrained orgies. That means group sex and anything goes. Most people aren't doing this today but it is still tied to Christmas because Christmas came from these pagan practices. These are the things done in Saturnalia and Yule in worship of their gods.

Saturnus, a Roman sun god. He is usually depicted with a sickle and it is said that he did not want his children to take his throne so he ate them or killed them. He's said to be the father of the titans, that's the nephilim. Think about the children sacrificed to baal and Molech because this is the same god.

Saturn is also known as Chronus / Kronos the greek god. He carries a sickle representing his association with agriculture, the harvest and time. The word Saturday means Saturn's day. Remember the days of the week honor fallen angels and false gods. Sunday means the sun's day and so on and so forth.

Another depiction of saturn. This is supposed to be Nimrod. I think of the grim reaper when I see the sickle or scythe. Nevertheless, this is the god who was worshipped at winter solstice by the Romans during Saturnalia which became Christmas. This is not Jesus.

The Roman festival of Saturnalia was dedicated to the god Saturn, who was the god of agriculture, liberation, and time. The festival celebrated his connection to the "Golden Age," a time of plenty and equality, and featured activities like feasting, gift-giving, and social role reversal.

- Who Saturn was: Saturn (or Saturnus) was an early Roman deity associated with the sowing of seed and agriculture. He was linked to a mythical "Golden Age" of prosperity and peace.
- Symbolism: Because of his association with a time of plenty, the festival was a time of great feasting, merriment, and reversal of social norms, with masters sometimes serving their slaves.
- Other connections: He is sometimes considered the equivalent of the Greek god Kronos.

Want to know where the idea of overeating all day long on Christmas and the days preceding and following came from? Saturnalia.

Other connections: He is sometimes considered the equivalent of the Greek god Kronos.

The ancient Romans performed fertility rituals in worship of the agricultural god saturn, particularly during the winter festival of Saturnalia. These rituals included sacrifices and decorations with evergreen plants like holly and fir to symbolize life and abundance through the winter. The festival itself celebrated the agricultural cycle of life and death and involved elements of renewal.

Sacrifices were made at the temple of saturn, and the festival's overall theme was rooted in the renewal of fertility, particularly around the winter solstice.

These sacrifices were made in worship of false gods. If you really love Jesus you do not want to be part of anything that was done to worship other gods.

Saturnalia's rituals honored the agricultural cycle, with the festival representing the rebirth of fertility and the return of abundance that would come with the spring and summer. Some traditions during saturnalia involved drinking and merrymaking, and many Romans believed that the timing of the festival led to a surge in births approximately nine months later, around August.

BLOOD SACRIFICE

From FB: People who still teach your children pagan holiday's, make sure you tell them that this pic is the original image of a Christmas tree. Merry Christmas

In ancient sun worship, women would ceremonially weep until Nimrod-Tammuz was reincarnated as the evergreen tree. Nimrod's birthday was December 25th. In Egypt, Osiris, the sun god, the son/husband of Isis was born on December 25th. Tree worship and celebrating a birthday on December 25th certainly did not start in the Christian Era.

I thought this was pretty horrific and decided to do some digging and see if I could make sense out of what was being shown here. We haven't been thinking about the animal AND human sacrifices that went on during winter solstice in times past. Just because Christians aren't making these kind of sacrifices in today's modern day celebrations doesn't change the fact that this was part of it.

The tree in their post with humans hanging there as sacrifices seems to be tied to Odin and the Yggdrasil (igg-dra-sil) tree.

We learned last week that Odin hung on this tree for 9 days in order to gain wisdom. There are variations as to how he hung there and it was not a permanent death for him. The ancient Germanic and Norse cultures, where Yule came from, practiced human sacrifice to Odin, often involving hanging victims from trees. A practice mirrored in myth in Odin's own self-sacrifice on Yggdrasil to gain rune knowledge, earning him titles like "god of the hanged" (hangantyr). Historical evidence, like preserved bog bodies such as Tollund Man, suggests strangulation and hanging were ritualistic, possibly for fertility or thanks, connecting the mortal practice to Odin's quest for wisdom through suffering.

Historical accounts and sagas describe pagan people, particularly Norse Vikings, performing animal (and sometimes human) sacrifices, called blot, around the winter solstice (Yule) to honor gods like Odin for victory, Freyr for fertility, and Njord for peace, involving blood spattering on altars, walls, and participants, followed by feasting on the sacrificed meat. These rites were significant rituals for ensuring good harvests, success in battle, and good fortune, often featuring large feasts and drinking.

The ancient Norse / Germanic cultures practiced human sacrifice, often linked to Odin and midwinter (Yule) for fertility, good fortune, and atonement, with accounts describing hangings (like Odin's self-sacrifice in myth) and sacrifices at major sites like Upsala and Lejre (or Hlader) involving victims (slaves, prisoners, children, even kings in desperate times) and animals.

Ancient Norse blot rituals for Odin, chief of the gods, involved communal feasts, offerings of blood / meat (often horse, sometimes human in extreme cases), and toasts for victory, wisdom, and battle glory, centered in temples or sacred groves (like Uppsala), led by chief priest (gothi) who blessed horns of ale / mead, spatter blood with twigs, and invoked Odin for protection, success, and communion with the einherjar (fallen warriors). These sacrifices, often held in winter (disablot) or for war (Sigrblot), were crucial for appeasing gods and ensuring community survival, blending feasting, prayer, and ancestral reverence.

HUMAN SACRIFICE & THE HANGED MAN

Adam of Bremen, History of the Archbishops of Hamburg 1075-1080 AD
Book IV, Ch. 27: Regarding The Temple at Old Uppsala

"For all their gods there are appointed priests to offer sacrifices for the people. If plague and famine threaten, a libation is poured to the idol Thor; if war, to Wotan (this is Odin); if marriages are to be celebrated, to Frikko. It is customary also to solemnize in Uppsala, at nine-year intervals, a general feast of all the provinces of Sweden. From attendance at this festival no one is exempted Kings and people all and singly send their gifts to Uppsala and, what is more distressing than any kind of punishment, those who have already adopted Christianity redeem themselves through these ceremonies. The sacrifice is of this nature: of every living thing that is male, they offer nine heads with the blood of which it is customary to placate gods of this sort. The bodies they hang in the sacred grove that adjoins the temple. Now this grove is so sacred in the eyes of the heathen that each and every tree in it is believed divine because of the death or putrefaction of the victims. Even dogs and horses hang there with men."

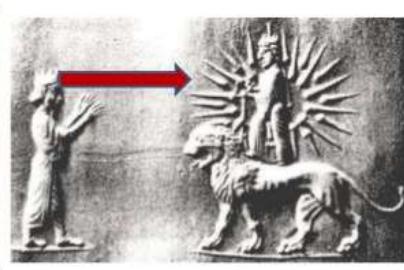

Scene from The Oseberg Tapestry – The Hanging Tree from Peter Robinson's Svipdagsmal. This is a depiction of the Yggdrasil tree as Odin's horse because the tree was the horse he rode symbolically, to get knowledge. Crazy stuff I know but these false gods were worshipped and real sacrifices were made to them.

But when half-converted church members rose to positions of leadership in the Church, they made policy changes in agreement with contemporary heathen customs.

And that is how we got Christ-mass.

Revelation 13:3 ....and all the world wondered after the beast.

But when half-converted church members rose to positions of leadership in the church, they made policy changes in agreement with contemporary heathen customs. And that is how we got Christ-mass. L: Pope with sun god symbol R: sun god Mithra on a lion Revelation 13:3 ...and all the world wondered after the beast.

The beast system in Revelation seems to consist of a political component which is our world governments and a spiritual component. The best example of mystery Babylon in the church is The Roman Catholic Church which incorporated every part of the mystery Babylon religion into it's practices. They compromised with the pagans and kept their worship just as it was. All they did was gave each feast a new name. Roman Catholicism is a false religion that does not adhere to God's Word. Shame on the churches and denominations who practice the same things she does.

Date	Celebration	Type	Usage	Age

- A. The highest ritual holiday is the member's birthday. It usually involves the member or a victim of the member's choice and someone in authority, usually the coven's leader.
- B. The first and third of every month. Put 1 and 3 together and it makes 13, though ritual/worship can occur at anytime, frequently coinciding with times of stress.
- C. All Friday the 13th's are high satanic days.
- D. All full-moon nights provide reason for major occult activity (easiest to move around without difficulty and without being detected).
- E. Holy week (Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday). Some groups are thought to sacrifice, cook and eat a human baby on Easter Sunday.

Sacrifices continue to this day. This chart of information is from The Open Scroll.

Honest people in the FBI and police department know these things to be true. Remember Ted Gunderson, he was a retired FBI special agent working a case when he found out that satanism goes all the way to the top, the government and hi-level elitists. He gave his life for speaking out about these truths.

Nimrod was called baal or Moloch / melech in the Canaanite religion and his mother Semiramis and wife were called Asherah or Astarte. Child sacrifice was a common part of their worship.

Other Names For "Nimrod"

ARES	MARS	ODIN
BACCHUS or	CUPID	WODAN,
DIONYSUS	VULCAN	OSIRIS
EROS	MERCURY	TAMMUZ
Hephaestus	PLUTO	EL-BAR meaning "God the Son"
HERMES	NEPTUNE	MOLECH
PLUTO	JUPITER	BAAL, BEL or BELUS – meaning "Lord"
(HADES)	SATURN	ATLAS
POSEIDON	LUPERCUS	St. VALENTINE
ZEUS	MARDUK	DAGON -- the fish-god
KRONOS	NEBO
ABIR	CRONUS
SHAMASH

Other names for Nimrod. Baal, molech, moloch, St. Valentine and Odin are all on this list. This was a wicked man and his mother and wife was just as wicked as he was. They served the fallen angels and some believe he was a nephilim which is part human and part fallen angel. Some research says his mother was born to a fish goddess which would seem to indicate that she was a nephilim. Even if they were not nephilim, because of their rebellion against God and their worship of fallen angels, they were possessed and empowered by satan and the fallen angels to be the false trinity he used to spread this false religious system out to the whole world. Nimrod was the first major antichrist figure. satan worked through him and had a false trinity that the world worshiped and still do today in various ways.

satan requires human sacrifices. A human sacrifice is the highest form of worship that can be given because life is so precious. Those that hold the power in this world have made their human sacrifices to satan. This is his world and those that worship him are seated in all the positions of power. The beast system is already fully in place. It is just a matter of time before Christ takes His church and kicks off the tribulation and the rise of the antichrist who will be fully possessed and empowered by satan.

CLOSING

We see the depiction of people hanging from a tree at winter solstice and think how horrific. The winter solstice festival was no stranger to human and animal sacrifice at different times throughout history. Odin is linked to Nimrod and Nimrod is linked to baal and moloch who seem to be the same false god of the canaanites. If we go to Scripture and take a look at these false gods, who are just different names for Nimrod, we will find plenty of human sacrifice to him.

Leviticus 18:21 – And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Molech / Moloch, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I Am The Lord.

Jeremiah 19:5 – They have built also the high places of baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into My mind:

Jeremiah 32:34-35 – But they set their abominations in The Temple, which is called by My name, to defile it. And they built the high places of baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither cam it into My mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

God speaks about the children of Israel setting up their idols to asherah and baal right in His Temple. In the sermon series entitled “Freemasonry” part 8 and part 15, the hi-level freemasons say that osiris is saturn. You see this crossover with all the false gods because they are the same one.

After God talks about the idols to them in His Temple, He says they built the high places of baal to cause their sons and daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech. This seems to indicate they are the same false god. Baal generically means lord. These were the gods of the Canaanites. Israel was sacrificing their children to these false Gods. The Canaanites were burning their children as sacrifices, the Norse seemed to hang theirs from sacred trees, pigs were sacrificed at Saturn’s temple during winter solstice. The false gods worshiped in Scripture are the same ones who were worshiped at winter solstice.

These things were part of winter solstice celebrations in ancient times. Even though there may not have been a human sacrifice every single winter solstice, it did happen. You cannot make it holy, you cannot offer any part of the Christmas festival up to Jesus in worship. Everything about Christmas is an abomination to Jesus.
