

SHOCKING TRUTH ABOUT CHRISTMAS Pt.18:
BELIEVE, HOLLY KING, OAK KING, MOLOCH, BAAL,
NIMROD, SANTA CLAUS

satan mocks God at every turn. Here is good old santa encouraging you to believe. Believe what? Believe in him! Christians are called believers. When you meet someone new and you don't know if they are a Christian or not you might ask them if they are a believer. Well now you might have to specify what you're talking about if it happens to be during the Christmas season.

The retail industry capitalizes on Christmas. Look at all this belief that has nothing to do with Christ. It is marketed to young and old alike. These little kids have sweatshirts that say I believe or you can have a custom one like on top right, that has your name on it.

Believe in the “magic” of Christmas. Magic has nothing to do with Christ. Most people are using the word magic to mean something wonderful or super exciting but spiritually it has always been synonymous with witchcraft and idolatry.

Yuletide Times – believe in Santa – He’s on his merry way in a big, red sleigh...May the magic of Christmas fill your heart. Most Christians don’t even know what Yule is and that it was celebrated thousands of years before Christ came to the earth.

*Please play from 1:53 to 2:29 This pagan woman is going to explain where Santa came from. STOP

The tradition of Santa actually comes from the tradition of the oak king and the holly king. Santa is actually the holly king who dies at this time of year and gives way to the oak king to bring back the Spring time. Because the oak king reigns during the spring and summer and the holly king reigns during the fall and winter. Santa’s ride is sort of the passing the hat off to the oak king for the spring and summer. So there are a lot of our (pagan) traditions that are incorporated. This is a very pagan holiday – because it is.*(about .5 min’s)

Let’s take a look at the holly king and oak king.

Here's a picture of the holly king who is synonymous with Santa. Pagans know who this is while Christians are deceived believing the Roman Catholic lie that he's based on an actual bishop who did good deeds.

The holly king represents darkness and the oak king represents light. (Britannica – winter solstice) You will always find duality in the occult. They call it yin and yang and believe you cannot have one without the other to achieve balance. That's why we have seen with the occult, they believe there must be chaos in order for there to be peace.

Images of the holly king, who rules the darker half of the year beginning at summer solstice through the winter solstice. Notice the horns on his head in both pictures.

The oak king facing the holly king. The occult teaches that these kings rule at separate times. Notice the oak king is more in the light and the holly king is more in the dark.

The holly king is the Santa figure, on the right he has a rack of horns on his head.

These two kings are duality, the opposite of each other, in paganism they are dying and rising gods. The oak king rules from winter solstice until the summer solstice and the holly king rules from the summer solstice through to the winter solstice.

Many see the two kings as the duality of the horned god, also known as the sun god. This is why you see the rack of horns on the depictions of the holly king. The term Hollywood comes from the wood used by the druids to make their magic wands which came from the holly tree. They used the holly wands in their spell work. Those in Hollywood are the modern day witches who satan uses to mesmerize and bewitch the world. They are using their magic wands - holly wands, to cast spells over their audiences by doing spell work over the movies we see, the music we hear etc. They are demonically talented.

Nimrod is historically associated with horned headdresses to symbolize power, divinity, and kingship. In Mesopotamian culture, horns denoted divine rank and wild, untamed strength, linking rulers to deities. Horns signify authority and strength in the Ancient Near East.

In Mesopotamian, African and Egyptian traditions, multiple horns denoted higher status within the divine hierarchy and served as a visual representation of power.

The horns linked to Nimrod were a symbol of his role as a “mighty hunter” and tyrant ruling through strength. Horns were associated with strong animals (like the bull) to represent procreation, fertility, and strength. I believe the horns Nimrod wore showed his direct connection to satan, the god he served.

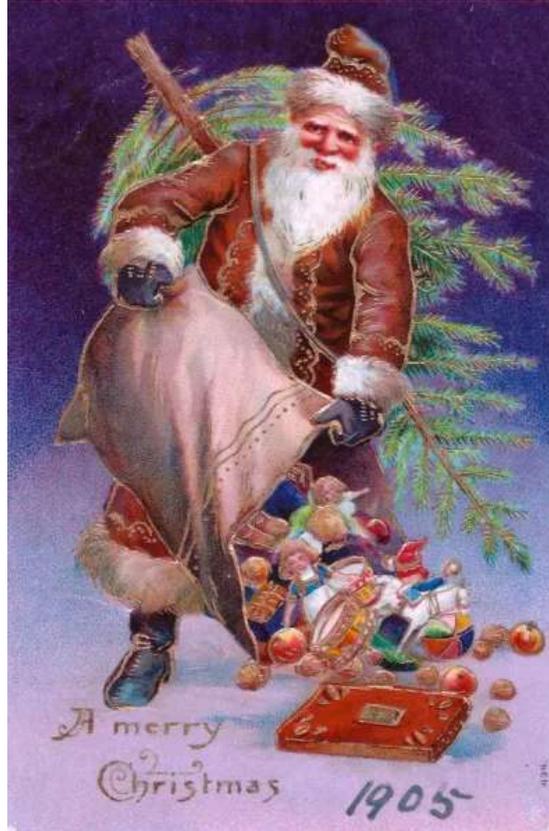

On left is a lamassu which symbolizes Nimrod as a winged bull with a crown surrounded with 3 sets of horns. On right is the ancient god Shamash of Mesopotamia who many believe is Nimrod wearing 3 to 4 sets of horns on his head. Nimrod was worshiped as a deity in death, he was a fertility god and he is associated to the horned god who ultimately is satan. We will come back to the horned god and his connection with winter solstice a little later in this series.

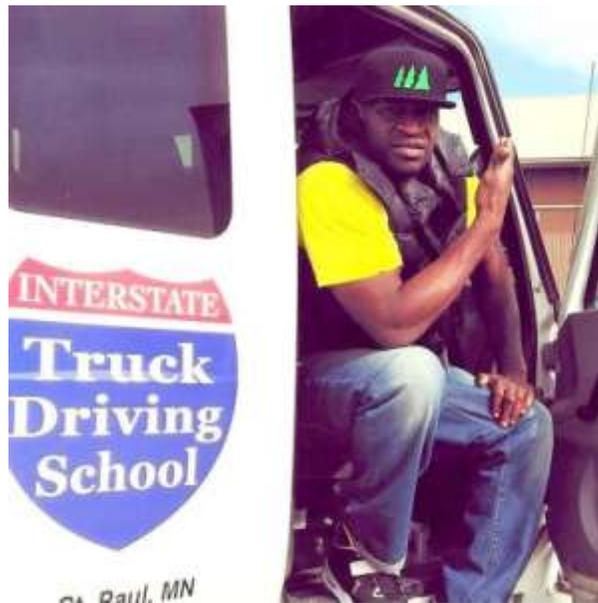

A vintage Christmas card with Santa carrying toys and a green tree with holly and mistletoe. Santa is the holly king and this is why the holly is usually pictured with him.

This vintage card shows Santa on foot carrying his bag of toys and green tree. satan's system of worship is heavily steeped in symbolism. The fallen angels and false gods have symbols equated with them. One of Nimrod's symbols is the evergreen tree just as it is with Santa who is the modern day version of Nimrod.

Vintage Christmas Card from 1905, Santa – the gift giver, dumping out his bag of toys, and carrying his green tree.

This is George Floyd wearing a hat with three green trees on it. These trees are the green tree of Nimrod and they are symbols of his wife Asherah too because they are also called asherah trees. George Floyd's death was a false flag, in fact one of the highest honors for a freemason is to fake his own death. They always speak to each other and that whole event was loaded with freemasonic symbolism.

MOLOCH, BAAL, NIMROD

Way back in the beginning God called Abraham out of the land of the Chaldeans, out of Mesopotamia (Genesis 12). This was Nimrod's land, this is where they worshiped false gods and fallen angels. They practiced paganism, worshiping many gods. God wanted His children to be set apart and show the world how to worship Him, the true god and be blessed and thrive. Let's look at the instructions God gave to Moses for His children after they left Egypt, which was another country completely steeped in paganism:

Lev.18:21 – And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Moloch, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I Am The Lord.

When God began to make the nation of Israel, He gave them instructions on how to serve and worship Him. They were about to enter the land of Canaan and the Canaanites sacrificed to baal and moloch. God wanted His children to forsake all the pagan practices they had learned from the nations where they had lived, Babylon and Egypt and the nations all around them. God has never wanted human sacrifice. It is appalling to Him. (Jeremiah 7:31, 19:5) For that very reason, it is the highest sacrifice a luciferian can bring to satan, a human sacrifice. To rise up the ranks in luciferianism you will bring a human sacrifice. A human sacrifice is satan's preferred form of worship. It flies in the face of God. satan is against God and he does the opposite of God. If something disgusts God, then it is revered in luciferianism. The pagan nations such as Babylon and Canaan were sacrificing their children to Moloch which is another name for Nimrod and satan.

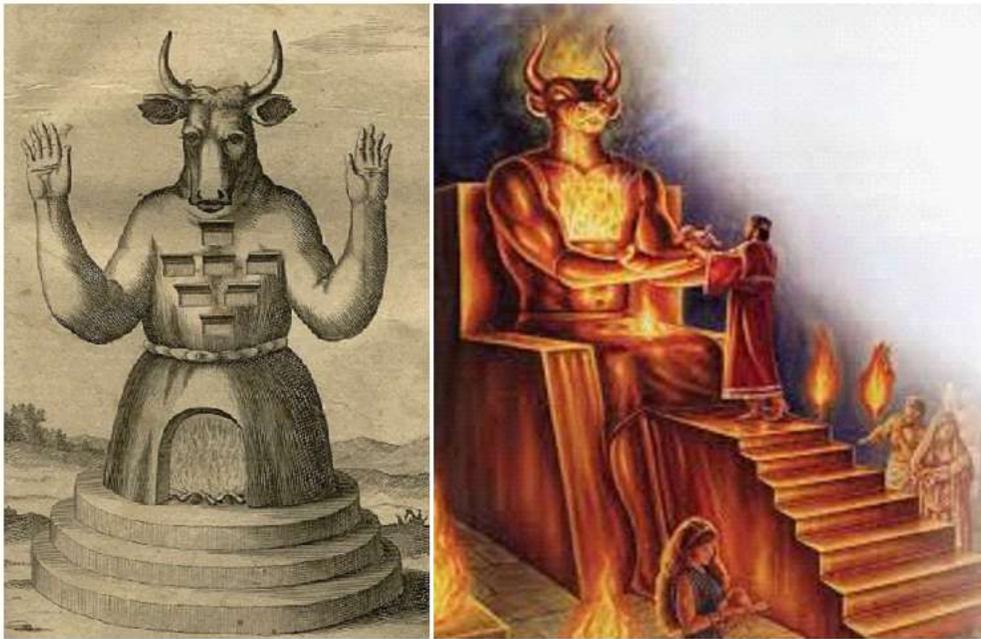

Offering children to santa is spiritually no different than offering them to Moloch. The bull is a symbol of Nimrod and the devil. This is a depiction of King Solomon offering to Moloch. (1 Kings 11:7) He went into idolatry because of his many foreign wives. The ruler of the whole land built altars to worship false gods and goddesses. What a shame.

Santa Claus is Moloch. The bull is a symbol of Nimrod and Nimrod is where Santa comes from.

According to Langer's Encyclopedia of World History, (article "Santa"), "Santa" was a common name for Nimrod throughout Asia Minor. This was also the same fire god who came down the chimneys of the ancient pagans and the same fire god to whom infants were burned and eaten in human sacrifice among those who were once God's people. (Lev.18:2, 20:2-4, Deut.18:10, Jer.19:5-6)

Depictions of Moloch. L: there were 7 chambers. Not sure how they were supposed to place the sacrifice in the chambers. On right, they would place the child in the arms of moloch and let them burn to death. This is what fertility worship looked like in ancient times. Today many people are worshiping this god in ignorance by having abortions.

Jeremiah 19:5 – They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into My mind:

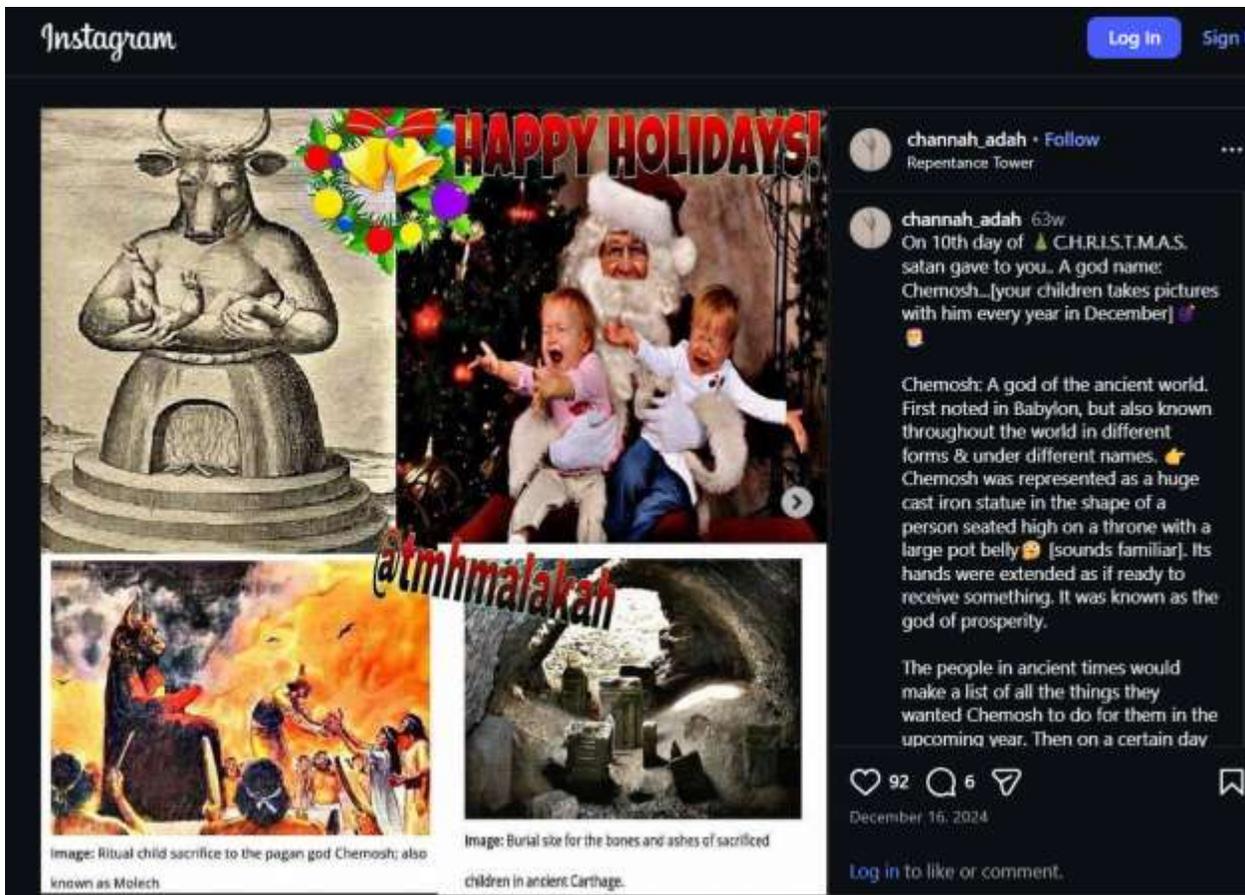

This is a depiction of a high place of baal where child sacrifice took place. Moloch and Baal are one and the same.

Top L: The image of the false god Moloch holding a child sacrifice Bottom L: Ritual child sacrifice to the pagan god Chemosh; also known as Moloch Bottom R: Burial site for the bones and ashes of sacrificed children in ancient Carthage. Top R: children being offered up to Santa against their will. Santa is the modern day image of Moloch, Baal, Nimrod, satan.

They write: On the 10th day of Christmas satan gave to you...A god named: Chemosh... (your children take pictures with him every year in December).
 Chemosh: A god of the ancient world. First noted in Babylon, but also known throughout the world in different forms & under different names. Chemosh was represented as a huge cast iron statue in the shape of a person seated high on a throne with a large pot belly (sounds familiar). Its hands were extended as if ready to receive something. It was known as the god of prosperity. The people in ancient times would make a list of all the things they wanted Chemosh to do for them in the upcoming year. Then on a certain day...it tapers off. On that certain day, they would bring him a child sacrifice.

Placing children on Santa's lap is influenced from the act of sacrificing children to Moloch.

Today we put our children on Santa's lap and they scream and cry which is similar to ancient times when they sacrificed their children to Moloch and the fire was burning them and they screamed and cried until they died. Why would we do this in the first place? We teach our children not to have anything to do with strangers and then we go and give them to a stranger and expect them to smile and be happy about it.

Deut.12:30-31 - Take heed to thyself that thou be not snared by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou inquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise. Thou shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God: for every abomination to the LORD, which He hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods.

God did not want His children to have anything to do with the detestable practices of those nations who practiced the mystery religions and served the fallen angels and false gods. Human sacrifices were offered to Nimrod who is called Moloch and Baal in Scripture and he is the original Santa Claus, the gift bringer. He is Odin of the Norse people and they certainly offered human sacrifices to him. He is Saturn of the Romans and Mithra of the Persians. This is where Santa Claus came from, he didn't just pop out of thin air, he is not something someone just imagined and inserted in Christmas. He was in winter solstice from the time of Babylon. Once you learn the truth about who he really is, there's nothing cute or innocent about teaching your children about him and introducing him as this mystical and magical image to them.

Psalms 106:34-43 - They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them: But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works. And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them. Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood. Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions. Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance. And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them. Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand. Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity.

The heathen or nations is another name for pagans. The Israelites served the gods of the pagan nations which led to their downfall. They murdered their children, shed their blood by sacrificing them to idols, Moloch and baal of the Canaanites. They committed spiritual adultery against God by worshiping these false gods. Because of their sin against God, He allowed their enemies to rule over them and crush them.

If you want God's full and best blessing flowing in your life, you need to get the sin out, get every trace of these pagan practices out of your life and home.
